FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

Pastor's Letter, Oct. 30, By Fr. Vincent Gilmore

Dear Parishioners,

November is upon us and we have two beautiful celebrations that make us think about death and the afterlife: Nov. 1, the Feast of All Saints, and Nov. 2, All Souls Day. All Saints is about Heaven and All Souls is about Purgatory.

We are all called to be Saints. Canonized or not, everyone in heaven is a saint. All Saints is about honoring all the saints in heaven and building our belief and desire for heaven. We all have a bit of window to heaven in our souls and this needs to expand. Heaven is the grace or life of God living within us. Our desire for heaven to be with God and all the saints should grow with each passing day and year. Heaven is our true home, we are only passing through this life on earth to eternal life.

On Nov. 2, we celebrate All Souls Day. We know that it is a good and charitable thing to pray for the souls of the dead in purgatory who need our prayers to come into the full glory of paradise. Purgatory is the place of purification before we can enter heaven. Our prayers for the souls in purgatory help those souls reach their eternal home in heaven. It is good to offer rosaries and masses for the souls in purgatory. As Our Lord reminds us, only the just and pure of heart will see the face of God. And we have to become like little children to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Purgatory is that process of restoring the innocence of a child.

This Tuesday, Nov. 1, All Saints Day, is a Holy Day of Obligation. I attempted to get a priest to come out here to celebrate a mass for this Feast Day but was unsuccessful. Therefore, we will have to use our neighboring parishes for this Holy Day. Please refer to the mass schedule on Page 3 for mass times for the Feast of All Saints at Deer Park and Colville.

Fr. Vincent sent this quick update of his pilgrimage on Wednesday, Oct. 26:

We walked 15 miles yesterday and 18 miles today. It has been very beautiful and warm. The food is great. While in Lucca we got to know two saints and visit their tombs: St. Gemma Galgani and St. Zeta. St. Gemma died in 1903 at age 25 and is pictured at the altar here (a picture that Fr. Vincent took on his visit).

Crystalline LUNCHEON

Saturday, Nov. 19, 11 am

St. Mary's Crystalline Luncheon is a fun annual women's gathering where we can enjoy each other's creativity and connect with one another. Tickets are $15 each. Call Kellie in the office to purchase a ticket or even host a table!

Fr. Vincent will be celebrating his 60th birthday on Nov. 9. Since he will still be in Italy, we will be collecting birthday cards at masses on Nov. 5 & Nov. 6 - and at Faith Night Nov. 9 - to be delivered to him upon his return as a surprise.

TEMPORARY SCHEDULE

Fr. Vincent is on a pilgrimage in Italy from Oct. 22 through Nov. 11. During that time, Saturday masses on Oct. 22 and Oct. 29 are canceled due to lack of priest availability. There will be substitutes celebrating each Sunday mass. However, on the weekend of Nov. 5 & 6, Fr. Mark Pautler will cover all Saturday and Sunday masses. There will also be no daily mass or confession while Father is away but parishioners are encouraged to go to St. Mary's Presentation Catholic Church in Deer Park (602 East 6th Street) or Immaculate Conception Parish in Colville (320 N Maple St.) during this time. The front of this bulletin lists mass and confession times for each parish. Visit www.stmarypresentationcc.org for the complete mass and confession schedule at Deer Park and www.myparishfamily.org for the North Stevens County schedules. However, we will still have Eucharistic Adoration on Fridays from 9-10 a.m. We apologize for the inconvenience.
