A MESSAGE FROM FATHER

There is No Need to Be Afraid

Fear not! Jesus knows us so well. The Scriptures tell us about 365 times not to be afraid.

However, we fear a lot of things: what the future will bring, how our kids will turn out, job stability, finances, health, relationships with family or friends. The list is almost endless.

The Good Shepherd is always there for us. So, in today's Gospel (Matthew 10.24-29), Jesus was preparing His disciples for what will happen in the future. At a certain point in His ministry, Jesus' popularity was rising. Crowds that gathered to hear Him turned into multitudes of people. The day would come when persecution and even death would result in following Christ. Remember, Christ told us, "Do not be afraid."

We are to witness our faith to others. It might be difficult to do that when the Church is being criticized for beliefs we hold or teachings that people cannot accept. It is tempting to remain silent when these tough moments happen. Be not afraid.

Thousands of martyrs witnessed their faith. The Church kept on growing and flourishing because of their great witness. We are called to witness to our faith. Be not afraid.

I was reading about a young boy at a boarding school in England who would kneel at his bedside to offer his nightly prayers. He was teased and laughed at by the other boys. One of the boys even threw a shoe at him. The boys were looking forward to the next night to make fun of the boy again. When the boy knelt down, one of the most popular boys in the school also knelt at his bed. So the other boys did not carry out their plans.

We are invited to follow that example of witnessing our faith. A great example of that would be to pray before meals at a restaurant; or when we are guests at someone's home. We can share what our faith has done for us in our lives. The list of witnessing to our faith is also endless!

Welcome, Fr Loring!

Fr. Loring's appointment as associate pastor here at Holy Cross takes effect on Wednesday. You may have seen an article about him in our monthly newsletter, CrossTalk. He is an avid hunter. I bet he'll enjoy our famous annual Wild Game Feed next March! He is excited to begin his new assignment. We are also excited to have him join us. Welcome!!

Our Building Loan

On June 14th, we withdrew $50,000.00 on our approved loan/line of credit to help pay our bills for the building of our new church and offices. Up to this point, we were able to pay cash for all our building project expenses. From January 1, 2022 to June 15, 2023, we received $3,754,252.04 in donations to the Building Fund. We also had $2,193,632.51 in savings before our building campaign began a year ago in January. From January 1, 2022 to June 15, 2023 we have paid out $5,898,143.76 in building expenses.
