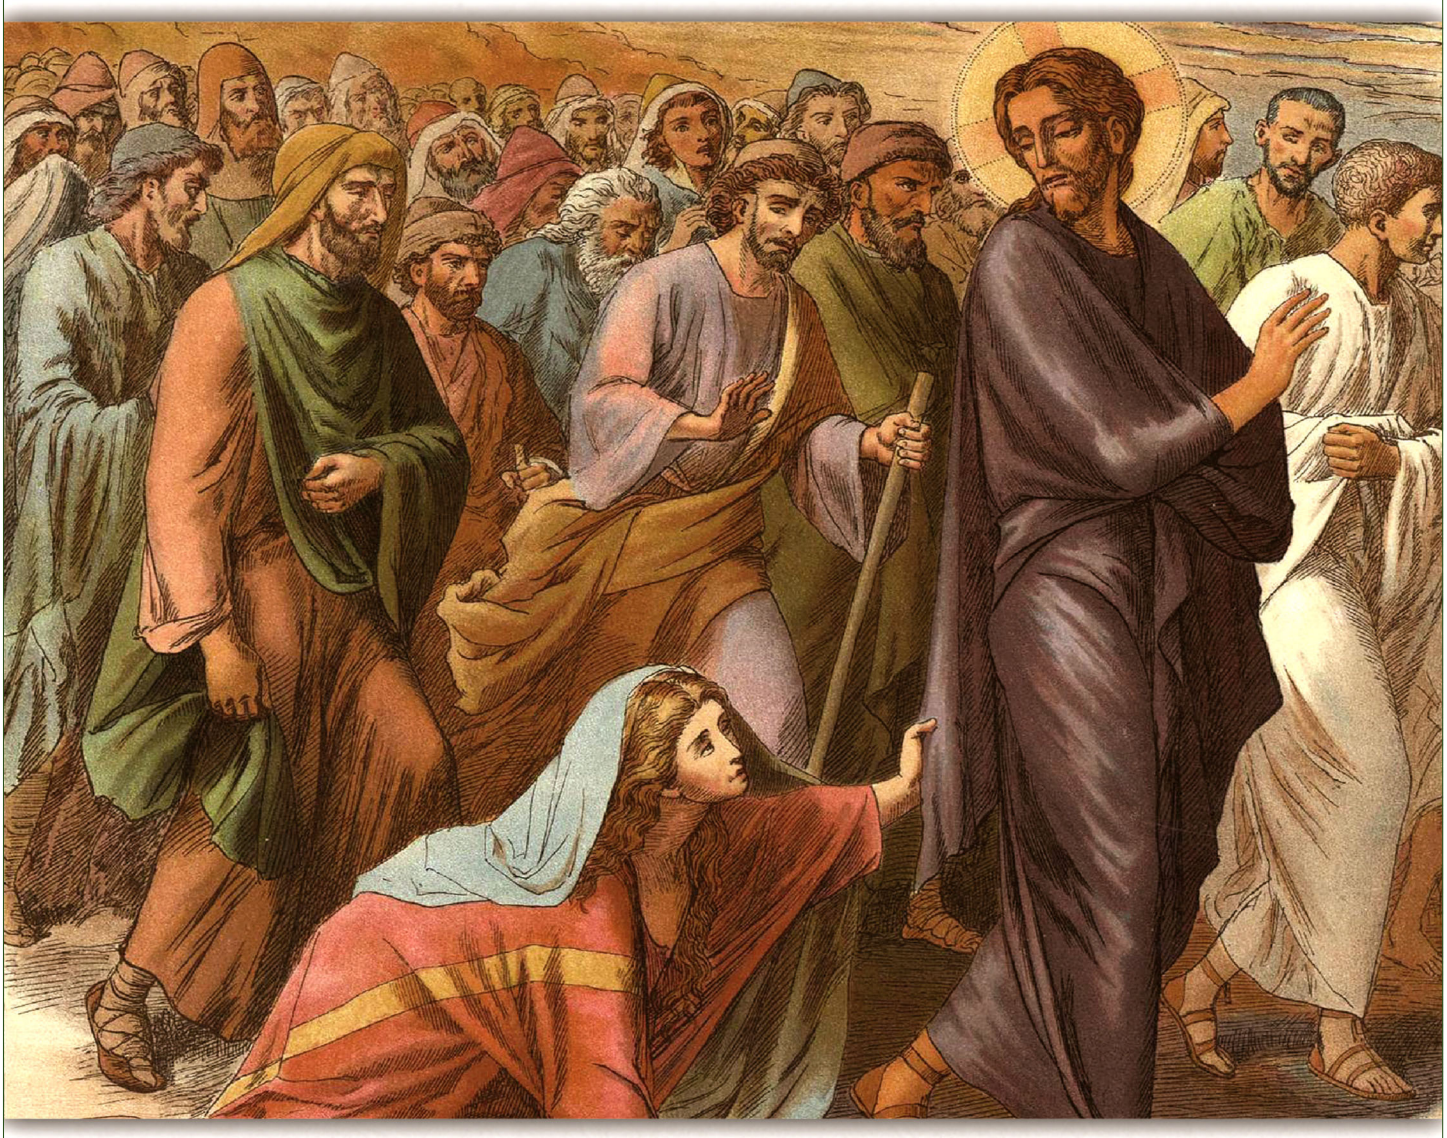
INCARNATION CATHOLIC CHURCH

Jesus said to the woman,
"Daughter, your faith has saved you.
Go in peace and be cured of your affliction."

MARK 5:34



THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 27, 2021

8220 W. Hillsborough Ave. Tampa, FL 33615
www.icctampa.org

I pray that these lines find all doing well and staying cool! So glad we are getting the well needed rain. Stepped out this morning and felt like I got hit with a wall like an inferno, no breeze, no coolness – just brutal heat, and we are now just entering summer. Hoping all the young ones are enjoying summer vacation and that for the rest of us, summer helps work go a little bit slower and easier.

We are reminded today that Jesus is Lord of ALL!!! We hear about a man that we can all learn from regardless of what we are experiencing or going through in our lives, tragedy or otherwise - Jairus. He is a man of amazing faith!! He comes to see Jesus knowing that his daughter, who is at the "point of death," will be cured by Jesus. He had complete faith in Jesus, the kind of faith that all of us have access to.

God obviously can do anything, that having been stated He chooses to act from the amount of faith we bring to whatever situation in which we find ourselves. We simply need to trust in Jesus in any and every situation we find ourselves in. What in the world could be worse that losing a child and yet Jairus had total trust in Jesus and that faith was used to restore his daughter. That having been stated – where else could Jairus go? Who else could help him, but how often do people fail to reach out to Jesus thinking something is a lost cause or too far gone? NOTHING is impossible for God!

Again, Jairus is our rock star for this scenario! Later in our Gospel he gets the news that his daughter has in fact died. He does the most important thing – He listens to Jesus and never loses faith in Him! Jesus says, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Jesus tells US this as well, all the time, on so many levels of whatever we go through. And often times it is a lot less important or stressful than losing a child, yet we freak out a worry over what ends up being nothing – more times than not.

Trust and total faith in Jesus is what helps us to enjoy our lives. Should you find yourselves in a moment of life where all is good, no real concerns, no tragedies then now is the proper time to practice total trust in Him. He loves us so much and is always with us! What more do we need? Have a great week! Love, Fr. Mike

Carry your cross with faith

"Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." Mark 5:34

As a priest and Bishop, I have encountered many people who are suffering. I've celebrated many funerals and witnessed the pain of a parent losing a child, a spouse losing a loved one and in my own life, the loss of my parents and older brother. Losing a friend or loved one is never easy, but we put our faith, our trust, in God - that He is in control and is holding those loved ones close to Him.

This weekend's Gospel finds Jesus encountering two different people who are suffering. First, He encounters a temple official, Jairus, urging Jesus to bring healing to his daughter who is at the point of death. It is interesting that the writer mentions the synagogue official four times. He is not a carpenter, a fisherman or other tradesman; He's a religious leader. Jairus obviously has heard of the miraculous works of Jesus and is desperate to save his daughter, and therefore, turns to Jesus in his time of need. Ironically, it would later be synagogue officials who would persecute Jesus and call for his death. But Jesus goes to the family in their time of desperation and heals the young girl.

On His way there, a woman, suffering from years of hemorrhaging, touches His cloak with the belief that He has the power to heal her. Jesus senses this and asks who touched Him. The woman admits to doing so, and Jesus said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction."

Two healings through faith in Jesus. Suffering and healing can come in many forms. Suffering from physical or mental illness, emotional strain, and heartache from a loss, just to name a few. During these trying times, we pray to Jesus to bring healing and peace to our lives. But, sometimes it seems that the prayer goes unanswered. The healing and peace don't come, at least not in the way that we want or expect them. We must remember that it is the will of God that prevails, not our own. Even our Lord Jesus, God's only son, the Savior of the world, had to suffer and die. It wasn't easy.

Life is not always easy. At times we endure pain to better understand and appreciate the love, peace, joy and hope that comes from the Lord. Pray that you have the strength to keep the faith and ask Jesus to walk with you as you courageously carry your own cross in life.—-Bishop Gregory Parkes

Carga tu cruz con fe

"Hija, tu fe te ha curado. Vete en paz y queda sana de tu enfermedad". – Marcos 5, 34

Como sacerdote y obispo, me he encontrado con muchas personas que sufren. He celebrado muchos funerales y he sido testigo del dolor de un padre o una madre por la pérdida de un hijo, de un cónyuge por la pérdida de su querida pareja. En mi propia vida, he pasado por la pérdida de mis padres y de mi hermano mayor. Perder un amigo o un ser querido nunca es fácil, pero ponemos nuestra fe y nuestra confianza en que Dios tiene el control y mantiene a esos seres queridos cerca de él.

El Evangelio de este fin de semana nos relata el encuentro de Jesús con dos personas que sufren. Primero, se encuentra con Jairo, uno de los jefes de la sinagoga, que le pide a Jesús la sanación de su hija que está a punto de morir. Es interesante que el autor mencione al jefe de la sinagoga cuatro veces. No es carpintero, pescador o comerciante sino un líder religioso. Jairo obviamente ha oído hablar de las obras milagrosas de Jesús, está desesperado por salvar a su hija y, por lo tanto, se vuelve a Jesús en su momento de necesidad. Irónicamente, más tarde serían los jefes de la sinagoga quienes perseguirían a Jesús y pedirían su muerte. Pero Jesús va a visitar a la familia desesperanzada y sana a la niña.

De camino, una mujer que sufría hemorragias durante años tocó su manto, pues cree que él tiene el poder de sanarla. Jesús se da cuenta de lo que ha pasado y pregunta quién lo tocó. La mujer admite haberlo hecho y Jesús le dice: "Hija, tu fe te ha curado. Vete en paz y queda sana de tu enfermedad".

Esas dos curaciones ocurrieron por tener fe en Jesús. El sufrimiento y la curación pueden venir de muchas maneras: por enfermedades físicas o mentales, por tensión emocional o por la pérdida de un ser querido. Ésos son sólo algunos ejemplos. Durante estos tiempos difíciles oramos a Jesús para que sane nuestra vida y nos traiga su paz. Pero, a veces parece que no recibimos respuesta a nuestra oración. La curación y la paz no llegan, al menos no de la manera que queremos o esperamos. Debemos recordar que lo que prevalece es la voluntad de Dios y no la nuestra. Incluso nuestro Señor Jesús, el Hijo único de Dios, el Salvador del mundo, tuvo que sufrir y morir. No fue fácil.

La vida no es siempre fácil. A veces, el dolor que sobrellevamos nos hace comprender y apreciar mejor el amor, la paz, el gozo y la esperanza que vienen del Señor. Pide en tu oración la fuerza necesaria para mantener tu fe y pídele a Jesús que camine junto a ti mientras cargas valientemente con tu propia cruz.- Bishop Gregory Parkes

Our Public Masses Have Resumed With Safety Protocols In Effect

(Face masks to your level of comfort for people who attend mass).

Everyone must use main entrance and follow the instructions of the ushers. Please be patient. The side doors are ONLY emergency exits. They are marked by green crosses. People who live in the same home may sit together. Ushers will greet each person and show them to their seat.

Please limit private prayer after mass to no longer than 5 minutes so our volunteers can properly disinfect the church. The chapel and cry room will remain closed. There will be a collection basket at the entrance. No basket will be passed around and there will be no basket bearers. Hand sanitizer dispensers are in the Narthex as you enter and leave. No holding hands at Our Father and no contact peace. Ushers will direct section by section in a single line at three communion spots. Communion is ONLY distributed on the hand, not the tongue, for the time being at Incarnation. Please respect other's space in communion line with proper distance.

Nuestra Misas Publicas Se Reanuden Con Protocolos de Seguridad En Efecto

(Las mascarillas a su nivel de comodidad para personas que asisten a misa).

Todos debemos usar la puerta principal de la iglesia, así como seguir las instrucciones de los acomodadores (ujieres). Por favor ejercitemos la paciencia. Las puertas laterales de la iglesia se usarían SOLO en emergencia. Siga la guía de las marcas con cinta verde en los bancos. Los ujieres (acomodadores) cortésmente le indicarán los espacios disponibles. Las personas que viven en una misma casa pueden sentarse juntos en el mismo banco. La capilla y el cuarto para familias con niños pequeños permanecerán cerrados. Canasta de colecta: las encontraremos a la entrada. No pasaremos la canasta dentro de la misa y por el momento las especies para la consagración serán colocados en la mesa cerca del altar en lugar de llevarlos en procesión. Tendrá la oportunidad de higienizar sus manos a la entrada/salida del templo. No unirnos de manos durante el Padre Nuestro; no contacto en el saludo de la Paz. Los Ujieres dirigen a los comulgantes a formar una sola fila para la comunión, la cual se hará por sección, habrán tres estaciones para recibir la Comunión. Por el momento, La Comunión será distribuida solo en la mano, no sobre la lengua. Por favor mantenga la distancia entre personas en la fila para recibir la Comunión.

¡Oremos que estas líneas les encuentren a todos bien y que se mantenga el actual frescor del ambiente de estos días! Todos recibimos con alegría el fresco de la lluvia que hemos tenido y esperamos tener; recibimos con alegría estas lluvias que tanto necesitamos. Salí de casa esta mañana y sentí como si me golpeara contra una pared; no había brisa, por lo tanto, no sentí el fresco que por un corto tiempo disfrutamos en días pasados; hemos tenido un calor tremendo y ahora estamos entrando en el verano. Esperamos que los jóvenes estén disfrutando de las vacaciones y que, para el resto de nosotros, que el verano ayude a que el trabajo sea un poco más llevadero.

¡Hoy se nos recuerda que Jesús es el Señor de TODOS! Escuchamos sobre un hombre del que todos podemos aprender independientemente de lo que estemos viviendo y atravesando en nuestras vidas por alguna tragedia, como sucedió con Jairo. ¡Es un hombre de una fe asombrosa! Viene a ver a Jesús, sabiendo que su hija, que está a "punto de morir", será curada por Jesús. Él tuvo fe completa en Jesús, el tipo de fe a la que todos tenemos acceso. Dios obviamente puede hacer cualquier cosa, y sabiendo esto, Él elige actuar a partir de la fe que nos acompaña en cualquier situación en la que nos encontramos. Simplemente necesitamos confiar en Jesús en cualquier situación. ¿Qué podría ser peor en el mundo, que perder un hijo? y, sin embargo, Jairo tenía total confianza en Jesús y es esa fe, lo que le sirvió de base para que sanara su hija. Habiendo dicho eso, ¿A qué otro lugar hubiese podido ir Jairo? ¿Quién más podría ayudarle; ¿con qué frecuencia la gente falla de no acercarse a Jesús, pensando que nuestra situación es una causa perdida o si nuestra situación ya está demasiada avanzada? ¡Olvidamos que NADA es imposible para Dios! Una vez más, ¡Jairo es nuestra estrella en este escenario! Más adelante en nuestro evangelio recibe la noticia de que su hija, de hecho, ha muerto. El hace algo importante: ¡Él escucha a Jesús y nunca pierde la fe en Él! Jesús dice: "No temas, solo ten fe". Jesús nos dice esto también a nosotros, todo el tiempo, en todos los niveles, en todo aquello por lo que atravesamos; lo cual a menudo es mucho menos importante y estresante que perder a un hijo; sin embargo, perdemos la perspectiva y a menudo actuamos como si hubiésemos perdido la fe. Si pusiéramos nuestra fe total en Jesús, recibiríamos Su ayuda, y seguro que disfrutaríamos más de nuestra vida. ¿Deberían encontrarse en un momento de la vida donde todo es bueno, sin preocupaciones, sin tragedias? entonces ahora es el momento adecuado para practicar confianza en Él. ¡Nos ama inmensamente y siempre está con nosotros! ¿Qué más necesitamos? ¡Que tengan toda una buena semana!
Con amor, P. Miguel
