14th SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

JULY 4, 2021

Our office will be closed July 5th in observance of the Independence Day holiday.

www.icctampa.org

I pray these lines find all doing well and not getting heat stroke – it is really brutal out there and we just started summer, but we all signed up for this – we are living in Florida. So glad that things are getting back to normal at the parish, parishioners coming back in droves and getting the feeling like the pandemic is really becoming a thing of the past, don't get me wrong, I'm still hearing about people, parishioners getting covid, but it has reduced significantly.

This weekend is one of those times when a preacher can go in so many directions with subjects to preach about. For this article I will focus on St. Paul and his "thorn in the flesh." There are different takes and translations for the meaning behind this however one of the prominent meanings deals with sin.

The reason for my focus is that I use this example all the time in the sacrament of confession. When St. Paul uses this term of a "thorn" he is referring to a sin or defect in his character that he prays he could fix or get rid of. He is told "My grace is sufficient for you." In essence what we are hearing and need desperately to learn is that all of us are subject to sin. Each and every one of us has a sin or sins which we can fall into, either from time to time or constantly – it varies from person to person. In some ways it is as unique as "finger-prints", Satan is clever and uses our experiences as well as our individual thought processes to "get to us" however is very common and many are affected by similar sins. Always remember that Flip Wilson was an imaginary character (although very funny) the catch phrase being – "the devil made me do it!" this phrase is a total fallacy!!! Satan does not make us do anything at all, he has no power over us whatsoever except for the power WE give him. If we had no choice, it would not be our fault.

That being stated, all of us are sinners, we NEVER have the ability of thought process to point a finger or point out the flaws of others (parent to young child being the exception -it's in fact your duty). We should be so concerned about fixing ourselves and living a good life that we have no time to point out other's faults. Remember God is going to see YOU face to face and ask about what YOU did in life, not what your spouse did, your child, parent etc.

Realizing our faults helps us to depend upon God in the way we are designed to. We cannot and in fact, never make it on our own. It is God's grace and His grace alone that helps us to improve – if we have will power and finally get past something, who do you think gave you that will power – The one who also forgives and loves you! Have a great week!

Love, Fr. Mike

Thank you for your generous support in last week's Peter's Pence

Collection! As a parish, we collected $ 1,649.00. Our contributions, combined with those from our brothers and sisters around the world, provide essential support for the Holy See's activities and help Pope Francis relieve the victims of wars, oppression, and natural disaster around the world. If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give. Visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections.

WELCOME/BIENVENIDO

Reverend Michael Owen: EL PADRE MICHAEL OWEN

*NUESTRA PARROQUIA ENCARNACIÓN SE PLACE EN
PRESENTAR NUESTRO NUEVO SACERDOTE*

Father Michael Owen was born and raised in the Chicago area. Having grown up in River Forest, he attended St. Luke Parish and School, where he began discerning a vocation to the priesthood around the age of seven. He received his high school education at Marmion Academy, in Aurora, Illinois. After high school, Father Owen enrolled in the University of Miami, in Coral Gables, Florida, where he earned his B.A in Philosophy and Religious Studies.

Father Owen then returned to Illinois, where he began his seminary studies at the University of St. Mary of the Lake, in Mundelein. On May 23, 2009, was ordained to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Chicago by Cardinal Francis George, O.M.I.

Following his ordination to the priesthood, Father Owen served as a Parochial Vicar in six different parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago before Cardinal Blasé Cupich permitted him to come to the Diocese of St. Petersburg in 2019. He has served for two years as Parochial Vicar of Corpus Christi Parish, in Temple Terrace. During his time at Corpus Christi, Father Owen has graciously shared his gifts of pastoral ministry with members of both the English and Spanish-speaking communities.

El Padre Miguel Owen nació y creció en el área de Chicago. Habiendo crecido en River Forest, asistió a la parroquia, así como la escuela de St. Luke, donde comenzó a discernir una vocación al sacerdocio en torno a la edad de 7 años. Cursó sus años de educación secundaria en la Academia Marmión, en Aurora, Illinois. Después de concluir sus estudios de la escuela intermedia, el Padre Owen se matriculó en la Universidad de Miami, en Coral Gables, Florida, donde obtuvo su Licenciatura en Filosofía y Estudios Religiosos.

El padre Owen luego regresó a Illinois, donde comenzó sus estudios de seminario en la Universidad de Santa María del Lago, en Mundelein. El 23 de mayo de 2009 fue ordenado Al Sacerdocio por el Cardenal Francis George, O.M.I., para la Arquidiócesis de Chicago

Después de su ordenación al Sacerdocio, el Padre Owen sirvió como Vicario Parroquial en seis parroquias diferentes de la Arquidiócesis de Chicago bajo la dirección del Cardenal Blasé Cupich, quien le permitió venir a la Diócesis de San Petersburgo en 2019. Se ha desempeñado durante dos años como Vicario Parroquial de la Parroquia Corpus Christi, en Temple Terrace. Durante su tiempo en Corpus Christi, el Padre Owen gentilmente compartió sus dones de ministerio pastoral con miembros tanto del habla inglés, como las comunidades de habla hispana.

Believe in God's Truth

"Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him." - Mark 6:3

Have you ever been a situation where you haven't seen an old friend or coworker, maybe for many years, and then when you reunite, you think, "boy, he or she has changed!" The same can be said for a young adult returning from college, or someone returning after a long deployment in the military. When you first saw them, you may have judged first by appearance, then by what they said in sharing what's been going on in their life since your last encounter. At times it can be disturbing to you. After all, that's not how you remembered them.

In Mark's Gospel this weekend, Jesus returns to His hometown, seemingly to be welcomed by His former community. Many remembered Jesus as the son of Mary and Joseph, the carpenter. But Jesus had been gone awhile. He'd grown up.

We read that Jesus goes to the synagogue to teach, and that those who heard Him were astonished. They become indignant, asking "How could the son of a carpenter have this kind of knowledge? What gives him the authority or right to say such things?" In essence, the people of Jesus' hometown question His authority and all that He was doing. How could those Jesus grew up with not accept Him now?

This account is meant for us to examine ourselves. How often are we quick to judge others, to pigeon-hole them based on nationality, color of skin or creed? Today more than ever, it seems we are not open to the opinion of others, so much so that we do not even listen to the other side. Our Lord shows us the way to the Father, yet often we want to do things our way instead of His. We pick and choose what we want to believe versus God's truth. Have the courage today not to pass judgment on others based on what we have seen in the past, but what has been revealed to us as truth.

-Bishop Gregory Parkes

Nuestra Misas Publicas Se Reanuden Con Protocolos de Seguridad En Efecto (Las mascarillas a su nivel de comodidad para personas que asisten a misa).

Todos debemos usar la puerta principal de la iglesia, así como seguir las instrucciones de los acomodadores (ujieres). Por favor ejercitemos la paciencia. Las puertas laterales de la iglesia se usarían SOLO en emergencia. Siga la guía de las marcas con cinta verde en los bancos. Los ujieres (acomodadores) cortésmente le indicarán los espacios disponibles. Las personas que viven en una misma casa pueden sentarse juntos en el mismo banco. La capilla y el cuarto para familias con niños pequeños permanecerán cerrados. Canasta de colecta: las encontraremos a la entrada. No pasaremos la canasta dentro de la misa y por el momento las especies para la consagración serán colocados en la mesa cerca del altar en lugar de llevarlos en procesión. Tendrá la oportunidad de higienizar sus manos a la entrada/salida del templo. No unirnos de manos durante el Padre Nuestro; no contacto en el saludo de la Paz. Los Ujieres dirigen a los comulgantes a formar una sola fila para la comunión, la cual se hará por sección, habrán tres estaciones para recibir la Comunión. Por el momento, La Comunión será distribuida solo en la mano, no sobre la lengua. Por favor mantenga la distancia entre personas en la fila para recibir la Comunión.

Prayer for Protection against Storms & Hurricanes

Le pido al Señor que al recibo de estas líneas estén disfrutando de buena salud y que no sean afectados por el tremendo calor de este Verano; recordemos que todos nosotros en uno u otro momento, decidimos vivir en Florida. Me alegro de que todo está tomando su lugar en nuestra parroquia, los feligreses están regresando y percibo que la pandemia está muy cerca de ser algo del pasado; pero debo anotar que todavía escucho de feligreses que en estos momentos han sido afectados por el COVID; pero que la incidencia de la misma se ha reducido significativamente. Este fin de semana se nos presenta uno de esos momentos en que un predicador puede ir en tantas direcciones con los temas de que podría predicar. En este artículo me centraré en San Pablo y su "aguijón en la carne". Nos encontramos con que este tema se ha presentado de diferentes formas, así como traducciones que expresan su significado; sin embargo, uno de los significados prominentes tiene que ver con el pecado. La razón por la cual enfoco este tema es porque a menudo uso este ejemplo durante el sacramento de la Confesión. Cuando San Pablo usa el término de una "espina", se está refiriendo a un pecado o defecto en ese personaje que ora suplicando poder arreglar o deshacerse del mismo. Jesús dice "Mi Gracia te Basta". En esencia, lo que estamos escuchando es precisamente lo que necesitamos desesperadamente aprender; es que todos estamos sujetos al pecado. Todos y cada uno de nosotros se enfrenta a un pecado o pecados en los que podemos caer; ya sea de vez en cuando o de manera constante, varía de una persona a otra. De alguna manera es tan único como las "huellas digitales", Satanás es inteligente y utiliza nuestra experiencia, así como nuestro proceso de pensamiento para "afectarnos de una u otra forma"; Sin embargo, es muy común y muchos se ven afectados por pecados similares. Recordemos el personaje imaginario que conocíamos como "Flip Wilson, un personaje imaginario (aunque muy divertido), recordemos el modo jocoso de interpretar una frase que decía: "¡el diablo me obligó a hacerlo!"; esa frase es totalmente una falacia!!! ¡Satanás no nos puede obligar a hacer nada! Él no tiene poder sobre NOSOTROS, excepto si nosotros se lo permitimos; si no tuviésemos ninguna alternativa, entonces no sería nuestra culpa. Habiendo dicho eso, diremos también que todos somos pecadores, nosotros NUNCA tenemos la perfecta habilidad del proceso de nuestro pensamiento como para señalar las faltas de otras personas (exceptuando la comunicación entre padres e hijos menores, ya que es sin lugar a dudas, una responsabilidad de los padres). Deberíamos estar preocupados por mejorar nosotros mismos y vivir una vida donde no tenemos tiempo para señalar las fallas de otros. Recordemos que Dios nos va a ver cara a cara, nos va a afrontar y preguntar sobre lo que hizo USTED en la vida, no lo que su cónyuge hizo, o su hijo, padre, y otros. El hecho de darnos cuenta de nuestras faltas nos ayuda a depender de Dios en la forma en que estamos supuesto a hacerlo. No podemos y, de hecho, nunca lo lograremos por nuestra propia cuenta. Es la gracia de Dios y solo Su gracia lo que nos ayuda a mejorar, si tenemos fuerza de voluntad y finalmente superamos esas cosas, ¿quién crees que te dio esa fuerza de voluntad? El que también te perdona y te ama! ¡Que tengas una buena semana!

Con amor, P. Mike

¡Muchas gracias por su generoso apoyo la semana pasada a la Colecta Peter's Pence! Como parroquia, recaudamos $ 1,649.00.

Nuestras contribuciones, aunadas a las de nuestros hermanos y hermanas alrededor del mundo, proporcionan un apoyo esencial a las actividades de la Santa Sede y ayudan al papa Francisco a socorrer a las víctimas de guerras, de opresión y de desastres naturales alrededor del mundo. Si no les fue posible contribuir a la colecta, todavía lo pueden hacer. Visiten www.usccb.org/nationalcollections.
