PATRIS CORDE

WITH A FATHER'S HEART: that is how Joseph loved Jesus, whom all four Gospels refer to as "the son of Joseph".^[1]

Matthew and Luke, the two Evangelists who speak most of Joseph, tell us very little, yet enough for us to appreciate what sort of father he was, and the mission entrusted to him by God's providence.

We know that Joseph was a lowly carpenter (cf. Mt 13:55), betrothed to Mary (cf. Mt 1:18; Lk 1:27). He was a "just man" (Mt 1:19), ever ready to carry out God's will as revealed to him in the Law (cf. Lk 2:22.27.39) and through four dreams (cf. Mt 1:20; 2:13.19.22). After a long and tiring journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem, he beheld the birth of the Messiah in a stable, since "there was no place for them" elsewhere (cf. Lk 2:7). He witnessed the adoration of the shepherds (cf. Lk 2:8-20) and the Magi (cf. Mt 2:1-12), who represented respectively the people of Israel and the pagan peoples.

Joseph had the courage to become the legal father of Jesus, to whom he gave the name revealed by the angel: "You shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins" (Mt 1:21). As we know, for ancient peoples, to give a name to a person or to a thing, as Adam did in the account in the Book of Genesis (cf. 2:19-20), was to establish a relationship.

In the Temple, forty days after Jesus' birth, Joseph and Mary offered their child to the Lord and listened with amazement to Simeon's prophecy concerning Jesus and his Mother (cf. Lk 2:22-35). To protect Jesus from Herod, Joseph dwelt as a foreigner in Egypt (cf. Mt 2:13-18). After returning to his own country, he led a hidden life in the tiny and obscure village of Nazareth in Galilee, far from Bethlehem, his ancestral town, and from Jerusalem and the Temple. Of Nazareth it was said, "No prophet is to rise" (cf. Jn 7:52) and indeed, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" (cf. Jn 1:46). When, during a pilgrimage to Jerusalem, Joseph and Mary lost track of the twelve-year-old Jesus, they anxiously sought him out and they found him in the Temple, in discussion with the doctors of the Law (cf. Lk 2:41-50).

After Mary, the Mother of God, no saint is mentioned more frequently in the papal magisterium than Joseph, her spouse. My Predecessors reflected on the message contained in the limited information handed down by the Gospels in order to appreciate more fully his central role in the history of salvation. Blessed Pius IX declared him "Patron of the Catholic Church",^[2] Venerable Pius XII proposed him as "Patron of Workers"^[3] and Saint John Paul II as "Guardian of the Redeemer".^[4] Saint Joseph is universally invoked as the "patron of a happy death".^[5]

Now, one hundred and fifty years after his proclamation as Patron of the Catholic Church by Blessed Pius IX (8 December 1870), I would like to share some personal reflections on this extraordinary figure, so close to our own human experience. For, as Jesus says, "out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks" (Mt 12:34). My desire to do so increased during these months of pandemic, when we experienced, amid the crisis, how "our lives are woven together and sustained by ordinary people, people often overlooked. People who do not appear in newspaper and magazine headlines, or on the latest television show, yet in these very days are surely shaping the decisive events of our history. Doctors, nurses, storekeepers and supermarket workers, cleaning personnel, caregivers, transport workers, men and women working to provide essential services and public safety, volunteers, priests, men and women religious, and so very many others. They understood that no one is saved alone... How many people daily exercise patience and offer hope, taking care to spread not panic, but shared responsibility. How many fathers, mothers, grandparents and teachers are showing our children, in small everyday ways, how to accept and deal with a crisis by adjusting their routines, looking ahead and encouraging the practice of prayer. How many are praying, making sacrifices and interceding for the good of all".^[6] Each of us can discover in Joseph – the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence – an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble. Saint Joseph reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation. A word of recognition and of gratitude is due to them all.

The Holy Father Francis. Apostolic Letter Patris Corde. 8 Dec. 2020. On the 150th Anniversary of the Proclamation of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church.

Collection for the Church in Latin America

This weekend, we take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean, do not have access to church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity makes it possible for our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous to this special collection. To learn more about how your gifts make a difference, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

To donate online, visit <https://www.scd.org/cla>.

Colecta Especial para la Iglesia en América Latina

Este fin de semana realizaremos la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina. Muchas personas en América Latina y el Caribe, no tienen acceso a los programas y ministerios de la iglesia debido a una creciente cultura secular, a terrenos rurales difíciles y a la escasez de ministros. Su generosidad hace posible que nuestros hermanos y hermanas en América Latina y el Caribe participen en la vida de la Iglesia y se acerquen más a Cristo. Les pedimos que por favor sean generosos en esta colecta especial. Para informarse más sobre cómo sus donativos hacen una diferencia, visiten www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Para donar en línea, visite <http://www.scd.org/cla>.

We Need You !

In order to continue stopping the spread of Covid-19 and its variant, we are still in need of volunteers to clean and sanitize our church after all Masses. Thank you!

“WHEN DID YOU STOP PRAYING?”

In February, 2020, we began to feel the impact of the pandemic. We were limited in our ability to worship as a community; we began to restrict our travels and how we socialized with each other. Family and friends became distant relatives, even when they lived across town. Many of us hoped and prayed that by summer of 2020, things would get back to normal. We all know the “rest of the story.” Here, we are in August, 2021, and the death toll keeps rising. We face the real possibility of a new variant taking more lives and people who thought they were safe because they were fully vaccinated, now face the possibility of getting the virus.

On March 18, 2020, Ascension Press posted on their website, “A Prayer to Combat the Coronavirus Pandemic.” Ascension Press urged its readership to pray this prayer daily. A few days after this prayer was posted, I asked many of you to join me in praying every day at 9 am and 9 pm. I called it a “Chorus of Prayer.” Your response was overwhelming, I received emails from people from our community and from other places as well, that committed to join in this daily prayer. And just when we thought our prayers had been answered with a vaccine, we ran into the devil’s roadblocks of anger, hate, fear, distrust, and blame.

Dr. Tod Worner, a managing editor at the Word on Fire Institute, in a recent article tells us that “prayer is what Christ taught the disciples and what he employed in countless miracles.” Isn’t that why, we often pray for our friends and loved ones. We seek God’s miracles for divine healing and wellness. As Dr. Tod Worner states in his article, “prayer offers us what we hunger for: friendship with Christ.” The Ascension Press prayer ends with our need for God’s friendship; “Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.”

But when we fall into the devil’s roadblocks of anger because we have been doing everything asked of us to be safe, and still, we face a deadly virus. We begin to hate and blame those who have chosen not to vaccinate as the reason for the threat of another pandemic. Or, we are fearful of doing anything and begin to play the devil’s blame game. When we do these things even for a minute, we stop praying, just as the devil has planned for us.

In the early 1990’s, there was a TV sitcom, called The Golden Girls. It features four (4) wonderful actresses; Beatrice Arthur, Betty White, Rue McClanahan, and Estelle Getty. Do you remember the theme song for the sitcom: “Thank you for being a friend.”? Isn’t that what we should say everyday as we pray to our Lord, “Thank you for being a friend.”

Pope Benedict XVI once observed, “A mature adult faith is deeply rooted in friendship with Christ. It is this friendship that opens us up to all that is good and gives us a criterion by which to distinguish the true from the false, and deceit from truth.” We must always remember that Jesus is “The Way, The Truth, and The Life.”

Do not fall for the devil’s roadblocks that keep you from developing that intimate friendship that the Lord, Our God wants with you. As Maya Angelou says, “We may encounter many defeats, but we must not be defeated.”

And to all of you who love your neighbor, “thank you for being a friend.”

“May the Passion of our Lord, Jesus Christ, be always in your heart.” (St. Paul of the Cross.)

Becoming Catholic....

Are you someone or do you know someone who:

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?.
- Have adult children who have not been baptized?
- Was baptized Catholic but have not completed the Sacraments of Initiation: Confirmation and/or Eucharist or was baptized in another Christian denomination and wishes to become a member of the Catholic church?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. We come together to learn about Jesus and his teachings. The weekly sessions also focus on the Teachings and experience of the Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments.

During our meeting, you are welcome to participate in the process and ask questions as you would like. You can think, imagine, wonder, and reason out your faith story in a warm and welcoming environment. For further information, please call Len Beltran (916) 213-5789, or you can inquire by sending an e-mail to rcia@stjoseph-elkgrove.net
