Dorothy Day had Vatican II heart and spirit two generations before it was even a reality!

Join us as Brother Mickey Mc Grath, OSFS shares his own art and stories inspired by the life and writings of the prophetic future saint. We will look at the social activist side of Dorothy Day, as well as her more contemplative, creative side. In these violent and divided times in our Church, nation, and world, Servant of God Dorothy Day, who herself lived in times of war and racial strife, can inspire us with peace and hope.

PRESENTER:

Brother Mickey McGrath, OSFS
