O ANTIPHONS

For centuries in anticipation of celebrating Christ's coming in the Incarnation, His presence with us in the here and now, and His final coming in glory, the Church has prayerfully cried out each day in the final week before Christmas Day, "O Come!" Referred to as "The O Antiphons" they have been part of The Liturgy of the Hours as the antiphons of the Magnificat. Using the many titles of Emmanuel, the O Antiphons tell us something about the Messiah. They are based on the Book of Isaiah and other prophetic texts and are most familiar as the verses of the hymn, "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel." They are prayed or sung during evening prayer, December 17 through December 23.

DECEMBER 17

O Wisdom of our God Most High, guiding creation with power and love: come to teach us the path of knowledge!

DECEMBER 18

O Leader of the House of Israel, giver of the Law to Moses on Sinai: come to rescue us with your mighty power!

DECEMBER 21

O Radiant Dawn, splendor of eternal light, sun of justice: come and shine on those who dwell in darkness and in the shadow of death.

DECEMBER 19

O Root of Jesse's stem, sign of God's love for all his people: come to save us without delay!

DECEMBER 22

O King of all nations and keystone of the Church: come and save man, whom you formed from the dust!

DECEMBER 20

O Key of David, opening the gates of God's eternal Kingdom: come and free the prisoners of darkness!

DECEMBER 23

O Emmanuel, our King and Giver of Law: come to save us, Lord our God!

Please remember in your prayers
