Dear Family and Friends in Jesus Christ…,

The stories of today's gospel have several common features. One woman is 12 years old, and the other has suffered for 12 years. Both are called "daughter," and both are in need of physical healing. The girl's father is encouraged to have faith, and the older woman is praised for her faith. The two stories illustrate Jesus' power over both chronic illness and death. In each healing, Jesus shows God's marvelous generosity by giving the recipients life and salvation in addition to physical healing.

The woman's boldness in touching Jesus' garment — which, according to the Law, made Jesus unclean — could have angered the Master. Further, because her "chronic bleeding disease" rendered her ritually unclean, any contact she had with others in the crowd, made them also ritually unclean as well. But her faith in the healing power of Jesus was so strong that she risked breaking all the social rules to seek what she believed He could do for her. By affectionately calling her "daughter," Jesus established a relationship with her and gave her the assurance that she was healed: "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." In addition, she gained a personal relationship with Jesus as a member of Jesus' family (3:35). By trusting in the power of God and doing His will, she was not only physically cured but was also fully restored to a normal religious and social life. It was her Jesus' garment – that was a major factor in her healing.

As Jesus sent the woman to her house, Jairus received the shocking news of the death of his daughter. But Jesus insisted on going to Jairus' house and consoled the father saying, "Do not be afraid; only have faith." The phrase, "Do not be afraid," appears in the Bible 366 times [Source: www.believersportal.com/list-365-fear-not-bible-verses/]

Those who greeted Jairus at his home were professional mourners who wailed, beat their breasts, tore their hair, and rent their garments. There were also flute players who played funeral dirges. The crowd told Jairus: "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" (35). But Jesus assured the crowd: "The child is not dead but sleeping," meaning that the girl's death was only temporary, and she would wake up at his call. Jesus took the parents of the little girl with only Peter, James, and John into the room, took the child by the hand and said to her, "'Talitha koum,' which means, 'Little girl, get up!'" Those who had laughed Jesus to scorn must have been greatly amazed when they realized Jesus' power. Here is a beautiful old story about Zacchaeus, the tax collector. It tells how, in later years, he rose early every morning and left his house. His wife, curious, followed him one morning. At the town well, he filled a bucket… and he walked until he came to a sycamore tree. There, setting down the bucket, he began to clean away the stones, the branches, and the rubbish from around the base of the tree. Having done that, he poured water on the roots and stood there in silence, gently caressing the trunk with both of his hands. When his amazed wife came out of hiding and asked what he was doing, Zacchaeus replied simply, "This is where I found Christ." I can just imagine that for the rest of their lives, that woman who touched the tassel of Jesus' robe that day on the street… and the daughter of Jairus who was raised up in that room in her home, continually brought people back to those sacred spots and said, "This is where I found Christ! This is where Christ loved me into life!" — Do you have a sacred spot like that? This is the Good News of our Christian Faith, isn't it! Love has the power to heal, to reconcile, and to redeem. In both instances, we see Jesus' personal concern for the needs of others and his readiness to heal and restore life.

We need to accept God's call to health, wholeness, and holiness. Jesus accepts us as we are. Hence, let us bring before him our bodily illnesses and spiritual wounds and ask for his healing touch. As Christians, we believe that Jesus continues to heal us through God's instruments in the medical profession like doctors, nurses, and medical technicians. Hence, when we go to a doctor, we need to offer a prayer to Christ, The Divine Healer, that we may choose the right doctor, who will make the correct diagnosis, prescribe the correct treatment, and give us the right medicine. Let us not forget the truth that Christ still works wonders of healing. Let us also thank God for the great gift of health and use it for helping those who are sick. (Courtesy Fr. Tony Kadavil)

Let us pray "Lord Jesus, you love each of us individually with a unique and personal love. Touch my life with your saving power, heal and restore me to the fullness of life. Help me to give wholly of myself in loving service to others."

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 11, 2021 — 12:00 pm Mass

If you are planning on attending the Hospitality after the Mass, please call the Parish office to let us know by Thursday, July 7th

Dear Parishioners,

We are experiencing some issues with our Air Conditioning System. We turned it on and as many of you experienced a couple of weeks ago the church is not cooling. There are many issues affecting the system which includes the chiller, low refrigerant, and among other things a faulty electronic metering valve. Replacing the electronic metering valve is a big process and very expensive.

We are being told this valve replacement alone will cost the Parish $6,000.00 plus all the other maintenance costs totaling over $10,000. We have a second collection for the Air Conditioning scheduled for July 24 & July 25, please consider us, as your means allow. I am hopeful that once the repairs are made we will have our system up and running to capacity for the summer. Please pray that nothing else breaks.

Disaster Relief Resources

Spiritual first aid for disaster survivors and first responders

Dear Friends:

Pope Francis has asked the Church to accompany the faithful and support the healing of heart wounds.

Beyond Trauma is a basic resource that helps people understand trauma, reflect on their own responses(s) to trauma, and become familiar with specific Catholic practices and mental health principles for moving forward in a healthy way.

The Beyond Disaster program from the Trauma Healing Institute provides materials to help people recover from natural and man-made disasters. The program integrates best practices in mental health into a biblical framework. Currently we offer resources in English, Spanish, French, and several other languages. Download free PDF copies, or order printed copies from the following link: https://beyonddisaster.bible. Scroll down to Church Resources at the bottom.

Distributed by American Bible Society in the USA and by other partners worldwide.
