Cardinal Parolin to attend on behalf of Holy See:

The Director of the Holy See Press Office announced that Cardinal Secretary of State Pietro Parolin will travel to Glasgow to represent the Holy See at the UN Conference on Climate Change (COP26). Cardinal Parolin will take part in the session of the Conference of the Parties to the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change.

Pope Francis has repeatedly emphasised the moral dimension of the climate emergency and the obligation of all to help protect the planet. Earlier this year in a message for Earth Day he said: "We have the instruments. This is the moment to act. We are at the edge. We need to ensure that the environment is cleaner, purer and that it is conserved. We must care for nature so that nature may care for us."

We notice that many people - including those in faith communities - can struggle to find helpful ways to respond to change, transition, tension and difference. Some structures, cultures, systems and habits can make it difficult for people to hear each other well and relationships may break down. We also know that there is much transformational potential in conflict.' Faith in Change and Conflict is a training course running in September and January for individuals or parish representative their parish or diocese.

Bible Timeline Course The Bible can be quite intimidating, due to its size and complexity. Many Catholics long to read the Bible, but they don't know how. The Bible Timeline Study System, divides the whole Bible into different Periods, easy to understand and memorise. In our course, we will walk you through each of the Periods. This way, you will clearly see how the many characters and events in Scripture are related to each other in one unified narrative, from Adam & Eve to Jesus Christ. Each live-streamed session has a time of discussion with Q&A starting on Wednesday 29th September at 7pm for 8 weeks. Bible Readings and Teaching Summary notes will be available. More details and registration at www.comeandsee.org Sponsored by Paisley Diocesan Permanent Commission for Evangelisation.
