Saint Jerome Emiliani – Feast Day - February 8

While imprisoned in 1511, Jerome, had encountered the Mother of God in his cell. He promised her that he would change his life and devote himself to the will of God. By her inspiration, he walked to the town where he entered the church, and his life began to change. After the passing of his parents, Jerome took care of his orphaned brother, which lead him to his future calling to care for orphans. He eventually was able to build hospitals, orphanages, and places of refuge for reformed prostitutes. St. Jerome is the patron saint of orphans and abandoned children. Saint Jerome, pray for us.

Pope Francis' February prayer intentions:

For consecrated women

The Pope urged all Catholics to pray for the women who have consecrated their lives to God, and to express their appreciation for their courage and mission. "Thank you," Pope Francis told the Church's consecrated women, "for what you are, for what you do, and for how you do it."

Prayer for Consecrated Life

God, throughout the ages you have called women to pursue lives of perfect charity through the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience.

We give you thanks for these courageous witnesses of Faith and models of inspiration. Their pursuit of holy lives teaches us to make a more perfect offering of ourselves to you.

Continue to enrich your Church by calling forth daughters who, having found the pearl of great price, treasure the Kingdom of Heaven above all things.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
