Saint Rita of Cascia, feast day May 22

Rita was married for 18 years and had two sons. She endured her husband's insult, physical abuse, and infidelity until he was stabbed to death. Since the marriage ended in death, Rita was free to satisfy a holy desire and entered an Augustinian convent. Rita was obedient, generously served the sick of the convent and shared her wisdom of human nature, especially regarding marital distress, with the lay women. Sister Rita was also devoted to prayer and meditated so deeply on the Passion of our Lord she experienced a mini-stigmata. St. Rita, pray for us!

Weekday Masses in June

No daily Mass June 2-June 16 while Father Ed is on vacation. Fr. Thomas Blau and future Fr. Peter Claver will be filling in for the Sunday celebrations.

There will also be no daily Mass June 19-22 because of the priest Convocation with the Bishop.

We will still have adoration from 6-7pm on the Tuesdays Father is out of town.

*Lord, your ascension into heaven
fills me with joy
because the time for me to stand around looking at what you are doing is over.
It's time for me to be involved.
What you have entrusted to me
cracks the shell of my individualism and of my standing around looking,
making me feel personally responsible for the salvation of the world.
Lord, you have entrusted your Gospel to me so that I might proclaim it on every street in the world.
Grant me the same strong faith that your first apostles had so that I might not be conquered by fear,
that difficulties might not stop me,
that misunderstanding might not dishearten me,
but that always and everywhere,
I might be your glad tidings,
that I might reveal your love,
just as the martyrs and saints did
throughout the history of all the peoples of the world.
(Dominican Fathers, Roman Province of Saint Catherine of Siena)*

4 More Habits of Catholic Families Family Month, May 14-June 18

1. Get sacred art in your home – Use Catholic paintings or statues to add richness to the family's devotion
2. Go to confession frequently – it is important to encourage all members of the family to go to confession regularly
3. Use Catholic media – it is a good resource to keep all the members of the family close to God and the Church
4. Celebrate – Saints' Day, Church Seasons... keep the joy of the Gospel in your family!
