THE CATHOLIC
FOUNDATION

"So the last will be first and the first last" – Matthew 20:16

You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

Learn how you can show your gratitude by supporting your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Visit www.catholic-foundation.org/development for more information.

Catholics Care. Catholics Vote.

We vote because we are citizens. But we vote conscientiously because we are people of faith. Our consciences are formed through studying Scripture and the teachings of the Church, examination of the facts, and prayerful reflection.

This brief insert is intended as a starting point to help us respond to our choices in the current political landscape.

Forming Consciences

Faithful Citizenship

While there are many moral issues before us, every issue is not equal.

- ★ Issues that directly affect human lives—such as abortion and euthanasia—are fundamental and demand serious consideration.
- ★ Our Constitution heralds religious liberty in the First Amendment, yet increasingly people of faith are having to fight to retain this basic right.
- ★ There is a move in the nation to redefine marriage. The marriage of a man and a woman is the foundation of the family and an essential core element of a flourishing society.
- ★ The growing disparity between rich and poor means most of the world's resources are in the hands of a small percentage of its people. The federal budget is a moral document and must prioritize the poorest and most vulnerable among us.
- ★ The millions of undocumented persons living in the United States deserve our compassion. There is an immigration problem, and we need a humane solution to it.
- ★ War, terror, and violence have caused thousands of lost lives. We must work for just solutions to conflict in the Holy Land, throughout the Middle East, and beyond.

Visit FaithfulCitizenship.org today.

As Catholic citizens, we should remember three things:

- 1. Respect for the dignity of each person is the core of Catholic social and moral teaching. This is our most basic principle.
- 2. We focus on the common good, not our own personal interests. We ask, how can we make the world a better place? Not, how can I improve my own personal situation?
- 3. We have a responsibility— a true obligation—to form our consciences and participate in the civic life of this nation.

Here are some ways to do that.

- ★ Be true to the teachings of the Church. Read Scripture, the Catechism of the Catholic Church, teachings from the Holy See, and the statements of our bishops. Read Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship at faithfulcitizenship.org. We need to be sure that our reasoning and judgments are well-grounded in our faith.
- ★ Stay well-informed about issues through judicious and reasoned engagement with the immense world of information in the twenty-first century. Just as all issues are not equal, all sources are not equal. For example, an individual's blog—while potentially very insightful—may not have the same fidelity to factual truth as our media sources that hold themselves to professional standards of journalistic ethics, imperfect though they are.
- ★ Remain in contact with our representatives in local, state, and federal government. Our responsibility to form our consciences leads to an obligation to be active citizens. We communicate regularly with our leaders—not only during election seasons.
- ★ Engage in reasoned, compassionate, and loving dialogue with others—Catholics and non-Catholics alike—about the issues and choices that we are facing as a nation. Remember that we are called first to witness the Gospel, and through that witness, to share our social teaching, to highlight the moral dimensions of issues, and to participate in debate on public policy.
- ★ The dual calling of faith and citizenship lies at the heart of what it means to be a Catholic in the United States. We stand on the shoulders of many Catholics who have gone before us, who have helped the United States of America become a better country because of their faith in a loving God.

We care. Therefore, we vote.

COLUMBUS

A Day of Prayer and Penance

Bishop Brennan invites you to join him in a Day of Prayer and Penance on Thursday, September 24th, the feast of Our Lady of Mercy. This day, let us join our prayers in solidarity for our wounded and troubled world, with those of our Blessed Mother, Our Lady of Mercy who gathers us together under her mantle and brings us to Jesus. Take some time to pray the Chaplet of Our Lady of Mercy for the healing of our communities. Together, let us ask Mary to intercede on our behalf and bring us to the font of all Mercy, her Son, Jesus. The Chaplet, along with other Marian prayers and devotions can be found at <https://columbuscatholic.org/marian-feasts-devotions>.

Devotion to Our Lady dates back to the second century after Christ, and it developed widely during the Middle Ages. Mary was venerated as the Mother of God, Queen and Mother of countries, nations, cities, religious orders, religious and secular organizations, and as the Mother of every human being. The devotion to the mercy of Mary first developed in the East, and was then adopted by the Church in the West, which gradually developed the devotion, deepened it and gave it its own form visible in the areas of devotion and iconography. In the late eighteenth and nineteenth century, the idea of Mater Misericordiae began to dawn and it can be seen most clearly through the theological reflection in St. Pope John Paul II's encyclical "Dives in Misericordiae". (Taken from <https://www.saint-faustina.org/in-the-church/>)

Season of Hope:

Message from Bishop Brennan

In this time of pandemic, many of our people are experiencing a poverty of hope as they grapple with the troubles and the issues of the day. They look to the Church for hope and help. Remembering that Christ is our hope and that we as believers have something to offer them, I invite you to join me in sharing that hope with those in need. The Diocesan HOPE Task Force is developing resources to support our prayer, reflection, action, and accompaniment. Please make use of these resources to share our hope and help with others who are struggling. To read the full text of Bishop Brennan's message and for monthly resources, visit www.columbuscatholic.org/seasonofhope.
