April 6, 2025

Fifth Sunday of Lent

*For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy; yet mercy triumphs over judgment.
James 2:13*

In the first reading, Isaiah uses the image of water to describe God's grace. Like water, God's grace is necessary to sustain us. God causes it to flow where it is needed the most, like "water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland" (Isaiah 43:20). So it is with God's mercy. Just as we plead for and receive mercy from the Lord at the beginning of every Mass ("Lord, have mercy"), we are called to extend that mercy we have received to those in need of our forgiveness and compassion. We honor God when we direct the flow of God's mercy where it is needed the most.

Please make note: Please make checks for Mass Intentions out to Father Florante Marcelo, not St. Joseph's Church. Thank You!

*"Apart from the cross, there is no other ladder by which we may go to heaven."
St. Rose of Lima*

*Lord,
Lead me in Truth, Guide me in Wisdom,
Strengthen me in Courage.
Amen*
