*Jesus,
King of Mercy,
We Trust in You!*

Join in praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy this Sunday at 3:00 pm.

April 27, 2025

Second Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy)

*Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!"
Then Jesus told him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed." John 20:28-29*

What if all the apostles had been in the locked room and seen the risen Lord on that first evening? Without one who had missed the opportunity and who doubted what he didn't experience himself, we would not have had the practical effect of hearing Jesus "prove" his bodily existence after his death. We also would not have been directly blessed by the Lord as ones who have believed without having seen. Unlike Thomas, we do not have the opportunity to see Jesus in the flesh at all. However, we do have opportunities to see his presence again and again: in each other, in the Eucharist, in those in need, or when we receive the gift of divine mercy.

ANNOUNCEMENT WEEKEND

Next weekend is Living and Giving in Christ: Unity through Diocesan Ministries Commitment Sunday, when the faithful throughout the Diocese of Cheyenne make an offering to the annual appeal. During this coming week, parishioners for whom the Diocese of Cheyenne has mailing addresses should receive a letter and pledge card from Bishop Steven. If you have not done so before, please consider making an annual pledge, which will allow you to budget your contribution. Those who do not receive the mailing, may use in-pew remittance envelopes, made available during Masses. QR codes on the envelopes go straight to the online giving platform for those who wish to make their annual pledge that way. In preparation for next week, please prayerfully discern your annual offering to support immediate and ongoing ministries across Wyoming.
