June 24th

It was amazing to be witness to an overflowing crowd to celebrate Fr. Brogan's Farewell Mass & Reception, and Fr. Brogan asked me to include the following statement in gratitude...

Fr. Blaney

A Note of Thanks from Fr. Brogan

Before I take my leave of you all and head to Hamilton/Wenham/Ipswich, I simply wish to thank all of you for the work that went into my Final Mass & Reception on the 21st of May.

It was an exceptionally beautiful day. I thank Mark Beyerly and Anne Tripp Miller and their choirs for the music at the Mass. I thank Roseann Furbush, Ann Carroll, John Sullivan and all those they roped into service for everything from the directing of traffic to the setup and cleanup of the reception. I thank Pat Bain for the flowers provided. I thank Fr. Blaney for being our great Pastor and my good friend. I thank the people of Wellesley and beyond who attended. I thank God for each and every one of you parishioners of Most Precious Blood and St. Theresa's.

God bless you all so very much and thank you,
Fr. Brogan
