MARY MOTHER OF GOD

Notes From Fr. Sean

In Today's Gospel

I can only imagine how Mary felt in Bethlehem. She was in a strange home, a new town, and she had just given birth. She is just getting used to being a mother, and here comes a group of shepherds, straight from the field. The shepherds had an amazing story to tell. They talked about angels, the heavenly host, and the Messiah.

In today's gospel, we see Mary taking all this in and reflecting on it in her heart. Mary had seen her own angel. Mary had received her own message from God. Mary knew her son would be called "Son of the Most High." (Lk 1:32b)

Let us also take in the message of the angel. Let us reflect on all we have seen and heard and join with the shepherds in glorifying and praising God.

En el Evangelio de Hoy

Solo puedo imaginar cómo se sintió María en Belén. Estaba en una casa extraña, en una ciudad nueva, y acababa de dar a luz. Apenas se está acostumbrando a ser madre, y aquí viene un grupo de pastores, directamente del campo. Los pastores tenían una historia asombrosa que contar. Hablaron de ángeles, de la hueste celestial y del Mesías.

En el evangelio de hoy, vemos a María asimilando todo esto y reflexionándolo en su corazón. María había visto a su propio ángel. María había recibido su propio mensaje de Dios. María sabía que su hijo sería llamado "Hijo del Altísimo". (Lc 1, 32b)

Tomemos también el mensaje del ángel. Reflexionemos sobre todo lo que hemos visto y oído y unámonos a los pastores para glorificar y alabar a Dios.

Merry Christmas

Today, on the eighth day of Christmas, we celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God. Although we honor Mary and her role in salvation history, this feast day is more about Jesus than Mary.

For most Christians today, there is no question about the divinity of Jesus Christ. But this has not always been the case. For the first three centuries of Christianity, Christians were mainly concerned with avoiding persecution and staying alive. With the Edict of Milan in 313 and the legalization of Christianity, doctrinal issues began to be explored as people started to ask questions about the nature of God, the relationship between the Father and the Son, and just how the Holy Spirit fit into everything.

In 431, the Council of Ephesus declared Mary to be Theotokos, or "God Bearer." In Latin, this phrase is translated as Mater Dei, or "Mother of God." This is where we get the name of today's feast day. In calling Mary "Mother of God," we are saying that Jesus is both human and divine. To deny this title to Mary is to deny either the divinity or the humanity of Jesus Christ.

Feliz Navidad

Hoy, octavo día de Navidad, celebramos la Solemnidad de María, la Santa Madre de Dios. Aunque honramos a María y su papel en la historia de la salvación, esta fiesta se trata más de Jesús que de María.

Para la mayoría de los cristianos de hoy, no hay dudas acerca de la divinidad de Jesucristo. Pero esto no siempre ha sido el caso. Durante los primeros tres siglos del cristianismo, los cristianos se preocuparon principalmente por evitar la persecución y mantenerse con vida. Con el Edicto de Milán en 313 y la legalización del cristianismo, comenzaron a explorarse cuestiones doctrinales a medida que la gente comenzó a hacer preguntas sobre la naturaleza de Dios, la relación entre el Padre y el Hijo, y cómo el Espíritu Santo encaja en todo.

En 431, el Concilio de Éfeso declaró a María Theotokos, o "Portadora de Dios". En latín, esta frase se traduce como Mater Dei, o "Madre de Dios". Aquí es donde obtenemos el nombre de la fiesta de hoy. Al llamar a María "Madre de Dios", estamos diciendo que Jesús es tanto humano como divino. Negar este título a María es negar la divinidad o la humanidad de Jesucristo.

Jesus, the Way the Truth the Life

- Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God. Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? Is Jesus a part of your life, or is he at the center of your life as he should be?
- This study is presented by Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins, and Edward Sri and was filmed in the Holy Land so you can experience the extraordinary world in which Jesus lived and taught—the historical context, the politics, the clashing cultures, the history, and the ancient land—and see where the most significant events of his life took place, from his infancy to his ascension.
- We will learn how Jesus is God Incarnate, fully divine and fully human. We'll experience his intimacy with the Father, his revelation of the Father's love, and his gift of the Holy Spirit to each of us. Most importantly, our encounter with Christ will empower us to know and love him in a new and life-changing way.
