

grateful thankful blessed

Notes from Fr. Sean

In Today's Gospel

As we come to the end of the liturgical year, we are coming to the end of the Gospel of Matthew as Christ nears the end of his mission on earth. Knowing that his time on earth was short, he exhorts us to go out into the world to spread his good news, to share the graces he has given us.

It is not enough for us to receive gifts from the Lord and to do nothing with them. In today's Gospel, the servants who used the talents the master gave them were justly rewarded. The servant who hid them away was punished. We have all been blessed by God. Do not try to hold on to those blessings. Send them out into the world, and they will be returned many times.

En el Evangelio de Hoy

Al acercarnos al final del año litúrgico, nos acercamos al final del Evangelio de Mateo a medida que Cristo se acerca al final de su misión en la tierra. Sabiendo que su tiempo en la tierra fue corto, nos exhorta a salir al mundo a difundir su buena nueva, a compartir las gracias que nos ha dado.

No nos basta con recibir dones del Señor y no hacer nada con ellos. En el Evangelio de hoy, los siervos que utilizaron los talentos que el amo les dio fueron justamente recompensados. El sirviente que los escondió fue castigado. Todos hemos sido bendecidos por Dios. No trates de aferrarte a esas bendiciones. Envíalos al mundo y te serán devueltos muchas veces.

Happy Thanksgiving

Every year, we set aside some time to give thanks for what we have received. This did not start with the Pilgrims. From the first Spanish settlers to the Americas to the native populations already here, people have been giving thanks to God for centuries. From annual harvest festivals to monthly new moon festivals, we have recognized our dependence on a higher power and have given thanks to God or the Great Spirit or to our ancestors.

We give thanks to God every time we celebrate the Eucharist. The word Eucharist comes from the Greek word "eucharisteo" which means "to give thanks." The Eucharistic prayer begins with the preface dialogue in which the priest says, "Let us give thanks to the Lord." The people respond, "It is right and just." The priest then says, "It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere, to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, through Christ our Lord."

Celebrating the Eucharist is truly the greatest Thanksgiving that we can offer. We will celebrate a vigil Mass at St. Mary in Wayne at 7 PM on Wednesday for Thanksgiving. On Thanksgiving Day, we will celebrate Mass at both St. Richard and St. Mary, Cause of our Joy, at 9 AM.

Feliz Día de Acción de Gracias

Cada año reservamos un tiempo para agradecer lo que hemos recibido. Esto no empezó con los peregrinos. Desde los primeros colonos españoles en América hasta las poblaciones nativas que ya están aquí, la gente ha estado dando gracias a Dios durante siglos. Desde los festivales anuales de la cosecha hasta los festivales mensuales de luna nueva, hemos reconocido nuestra dependencia de un poder superior y hemos dado gracias a Dios, al Gran Espíritu o a nuestros antepasados.

Damos gracias a Dios cada vez que celebramos la Eucaristía. La palabra Eucaristía proviene de la palabra griega "eucharisteo" que significa "dar gracias". La oración eucarística comienza con el diálogo prefacio en el que el sacerdote dice: "Demos gracias al Señor". La gente responde: "Es correcto y justo". Luego el sacerdote dice: "Es verdaderamente justo y justo, o deber y salvación nuestra, darte gracias, siempre y en todo lugar, siempre y en todo lugar, Señor, Padre Santo, Dios todopoderoso y eterno, por Cristo Señor nuestro".

Celebrar la Eucaristía es verdaderamente el mayor Día de Acción de Gracias que podemos ofrecer. Celebraremos una misa de vigilia en St. Mary en Wayne a las 7 p.m. el miércoles para el Día de Acción de Gracias. El Día de Acción de Gracias, celebraremos misa en San Ricardo y Santa María, Causa de nuestra Alegría, a las 9 a.m.

The Holy Land Shepherds

The carving of the Olive Wood Tree has been inherited since the time of our Lord, Jesus Christ. It was passed down from father to son for many generations including our family. More than 80% of the Christian community income comes from tourism and the olive wood trade. However, due to the ongoing difficult circumstances and the tremendous decrease in tourism the Christian community has suffered many hardships that led many Christian Families to leave their homes in search of work and safety.

Our mission is to support and strengthen the presence of Christianity in the Holy Land by selling their beautiful olive wood artifacts here in the United States. We have been blessed and grateful to have had the opportunity to travel to different parishes all around the United States for the past 15 years to represent these less fortunate Christians. We are happy to announce that we will be visiting St. Mary and St. Richard on November 25th & 26th 2023.

We encourage you to look over their beautiful hand carved items. We value your support. We will be accepting cash, credit cards, & checks.

May God bless you & keep you safe.

St. Mary /St. Richard, WE DID IT!

This was another great and successful Christmas Project that will bring a lot of Joy and Smiles to poor children. On behalf of the Cross Catholic Outreach program, I would like to express Thank You to all the children, their parents and guardians, and parishioners of St. Mary and St. Richard Churches for their generous support of the Box of Joy 2023 Christmas project. We collected 216 Boxes of Joy and eleven hundred ninety-six dollars ($1196) to make Christmas joyful for kids in Latin America.

Thank you for your desire to spread Christmas cheer and the Christmas story, the Good News of God's love, with children around the world.

May God bless you for your generous support.
