Notes from Fr. Sean

In Today's Gospel

Last week, we heard Jesus say to Peter, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah... I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church..." (Mt 16:17-18) In today's Gospel, he tells Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me." (Mt 16:23) That is a dramatic shift.

Peter was an obstacle to Christ because he could not understand how the Messiah could be subject to suffering, persecution, and even death. Christ calls us to deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow him. (cf. Mt 16:24) Sometimes, it is difficult for us to think as God does; after all, we are human. Jesus came to give us an example to follow. Let us follow him. As we follow him, we will come to know him better, and as we know him, we will begin to think like God.

En el Evangelio de Hoy

La semana pasada, escuchamos a Jesús decirle a Pedro: "Dichoso tú, Simón, hijo de Juan,... yo te digo a ti que tú eres Pedro y sobre esta piedra edificaré mi Iglesia." (Mt 16:17-18). Evangelio, le dice a Pedro: "¡Apártate de mí, Satanás, y no intentes hacerme tropezar en mi camino!". (Mt 16:23) Ese es un cambio dramático.

Pedro fue una piedra de tropiezo para Cristo porque no podía entender cómo el Mesías podía estar sujeto al sufrimiento, la persecución e incluso la muerte. Cristo nos llama a negarnos a nosotros mismos, tomar nuestra cruz y seguirlo. (cf. Mt 16,24) A veces nos cuesta pensar como Dios; después de todo, somos humanos. Jesús vino a darnos un ejemplo a seguir. Sigámoslo. A medida que lo sigamos, llegaremos a conocerlo mejor y, a medida que lo conozcamos, comenzaremos a pensar como Dios.

Labor Day

This weekend, we celebrate Labor Day. Labor Day is an annual celebration of the social and economic achievements of American workers. The holiday is rooted in the late nineteenth century, when labor activists pushed for a federal holiday to recognize the many contributions workers have made to America's strength, prosperity, and well-being.

Today, it is perhaps better known as the unofficial end of summer. For many, this is the last opportunity to get away before settling into the new school year. This weekend, let us all enjoy our vacations and barbecues but let us also remember those who labor every day to build and maintain this nation. Thank you to all who do the work that makes our way of life possible.

El Día del Trabajo

Este fin de semana celebramos el Día del Trabajo. El Día del Trabajo es una celebración anual de los logros sociales y económicos de los trabajadores estadounidenses. El feriado tiene sus raíces en finales del siglo XIX, cuando los activistas laborales presionaron para que se estableciera un feriado federal para reconocer las muchas contribuciones que los trabajadores han hecho a la fortaleza, la prosperidad y el bienestar de Estados Unidos.

Hoy en día, quizás sea más conocido como el final no oficial del verano. Para muchos, esta es la última oportunidad de escaparse antes de adaptarse al nuevo año escolar. Este fin de semana, disfrutemos todos de nuestras vacaciones y barbacoas, pero también recordemos a quienes trabajan todos los días para construir y mantener esta nación. Gracias a todos los que hacen el trabajo que hace posible nuestra forma de vida.

Blue Mass

Next Sunday, we will celebrate our "Blue Mass" to honor our police, fire, and EMS personnel, who are the first to respond in times of emergency. All first responders are invited to attend the 11:30 mass at St. Mary, where we can thank them for their service and pray for them and their families. There will be a reception in Haney Hall in their honor following mass. All are encouraged to attend.

Misa Azul

El próximo domingo celebraremos nuestra "Misa Azul" para honrar a nuestro personal de policía, bomberos y servicios de emergencias médicas, quienes son los primeros en responder en tiempos de emergencia. Todos los socorristas están invitados a asistir a la misa de las 11:30 en Santa Maria, donde podemos agradecerles por su servicio y orar por ellos y sus familias. Habrá una recepción en Haney Hall en su honor después de la misa. Se anima a todos a asistir.

The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy

If you consider God the Divine Bridegroom and the Church his Bride, then the prophets from the Old Testament can be seen as "spiritual marriage counselors." They comfort the afflicted, calling for us to return to our covenant relationship with God. They urge us to repentance, warn us of the dangers of sin, and announce the blessings of faithfulness. Their prophetic words speak to us even today as they draw us closer to our heavenly Bridegroom.

Here, at St. Mary, on Sundays, and at St. Richard, on Tuesdays, we will begin a ten-week Bible study, Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy, beginning in late September. We will meet weekly to view an engaging video presentation followed by lively group discussion and fellowship.
