† St. Mary † St. Richard

Notes from Fr. Sean

In today's gospel

"That's not fair." If I were one of the laborers hired first thing in the morning in today's gospel, I do not doubt that you would have heard me crying out, "That's not fair when I saw those who only worked a few hours getting paid the same. To our human understanding of fairness, I would be right. But God acts with mercy, giving us every opportunity to receive that mercy, even to the last moment of our lives. Do I want one God to be fair, or do I want his mercy?"

En el Evangelio de Hoy

"No es justo." Si yo fuera uno de los trabajadores contratados a primera hora de la mañana en el evangelio de hoy, no dudo que me habrías oído gritar: "Eso no es justo cuando vi que a los que solo trabajaron unas pocas horas les pagaron lo mismo. Para nuestra comprensión humana de la justicia, estaría en lo cierto. Pero Dios actúa con misericordia, dándonos todas las oportunidades para recibir esa misericordia, incluso hasta el último momento de nuestras vidas. ¿Quiero que un Dios sea justo o quiero su misericordia?"

One Family, United in Christ

Throughout Scripture, many images of the family represent the relationship between God and his people. God is our father. Through baptism, we become the adopted sons and daughters of God. We are called into one family by Jesus Christ.

Last week, St. Mary, I spoke of the importance of our commitment to our family, the Church. Both St. Mary and St. Richard exist because of you. It is your commitment that enables us to serve our community. I asked you to reflect on your commitment to the Church and how you can continue in that commitment. Many St. Mary parishioners have already received the letter for our annual increased offertory program for this year: One Family, United in Christ. This flyer asks you to renew your commitment to St. Mary. Although these flyers only went out to St. Mary parishioners, I encourage all parishioners at St. Mary and St. Richard to reflect on your commitment to the Church.

This week and in the coming weeks, we ask you to make a financial commitment to support the Church, allowing us to make the best use of your donations. Although St. Richard parishioners have not received commitment cards, we ask you to make a commitment in your heart. But I don't just want you to make a financial commitment. There are many opportunities to serve in the Church, from singing in the choir or welcoming people into Church, from helping with our faith formation programs to working in the Outreach Center, and many more. How can you best serve our family, United in Christ?

Una Familia, Unida en Cristo

A lo largo de las Escrituras, muchas imágenes de la familia representan la relación entre Dios y su pueblo. Dios es nuestro padre. A través del bautismo, nos convertimos en hijos e hijas adoptivos de Dios. Somos llamados a ser una sola familia por Jesucristo.

La semana pasada, Santa María, hablé de la importancia de nuestro compromiso con nuestra familia, la Iglesia. Tanto Santa María como San Ricardo existen gracias a ti. Es su compromiso lo que nos permite servir a nuestra comunidad. Les pedí que reflexionaran sobre su compromiso con la Iglesia y cómo pueden continuar en ese compromiso. Muchos feligreses de St. Mary ya han recibido la carta de nuestro programa anual de aumento de ofertorio para este año: Una Familia, Unida en Cristo. Este folleto le pide que renueve su compromiso con Santa María. Aunque estos folletos solo se enviaron a los feligreses de St. Mary, animo a todos los feligreses de St. Mary y St. Richard a reflexionar sobre su compromiso con la Iglesia.

Esta semana y las próximas, les pedimos que hagan un compromiso financiero para apoyar a la Iglesia, permitiéndonos hacer el mejor uso de sus donaciones. Aunque los feligreses de St. Richard no han recibido tarjetas de compromiso, les pedimos que hagan un compromiso en su corazón. Pero no sólo quiero que usted haga un compromiso financiero. Hay muchas oportunidades para servir en la Iglesia, desde cantar en el coro o dar la bienvenida a la gente a la Iglesia, desde ayudar con nuestros programas de formación en la fe hasta trabajar en el Centro de Alcance y muchas más. ¿Cómo puedes servir mejor a nuestra familia, Unidos en Cristo?

Saints Simon and Jude Parish

On September 14, 2023, Archbishop Allen Vigneron issued two decrees concerning Saints Simon and Jude Parish. The first causes the parish to cease being so. The second decree relegates Saint Simon and Jude Church to secular but not unbecoming use; this is, decommissioned as a church. The decisions in the decrees take effect on October 2, 2023. A certified copy of the decrees may be obtained from the Moderator of the Priests In Solidum, Father Shafique Masih. For additional information and assistance in understanding the details of this announcement, you may write to Chancellor@aod.org.

The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy

If you consider God the Divine Bridegroom and the Church his Bride, then the prophets from the Old Testament can be seen as "spiritual marriage counselors." They comfort the afflicted, calling for us to return to our covenant relationship with God. They urge us to repentance, warn us of the dangers of sin, and announce the blessings of faithfulness. Their prophetic words speak to us even today as they draw us closer to our heavenly Bridegroom.

Here, at St. Mary, on Sundays, and at St. Richard, on Tuesdays, we will begin a ten-week Bible study, Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy, beginning in late September. We will meet weekly to view an engaging video presentation followed by lively group discussion and fellowship.
