Saint of the Week

Saint Maximilian Kolbe, Feast Day August 14

Patron Saint of drug addicts, prisoners and pro-life movement

Maximilian Kolbe was born in the Kingdom of Poland, part of the Russian Empire before WWII. Much of his life was strongly influenced by a vision he had of the Virgin Mary when he was 12.

"That night I asked the Mother of God what was to become of me. Then she came to me holding two crowns, one white, the other red. She asked me if I was willing to accept either of these crowns. The white one meant that I should preserve in purity, and the red that I should become a martyr. I said that I would accept them both."

After a faith-filled life, Kolbe was arrested by the German Gestapo and taken to the Pawiak prison. Three months later, he was transferred to Auschwitz. While there, men were chosen to face death by starvation to warn against escapes. Kolbe volunteered to take the place of a man with a family. During the last days of his life, Kolbe led prayers to Our Lady with the prisoners and remained calm. He was the last of the group to remain alive, after 2 weeks of dehydration and starvation. The guards gave him a lethal injection of carbolic acid and then he calmly awaited death.

Saint Maximilian Kolby, pray for us!

What is the Assumption of Mary?

The assumption of Mary is the teaching that: The Immaculate Mother of God, the ever-Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory.

What level of authority does this teaching have?

This teaching was infallibly defined by Pope Pius XII on Nov. 1, 1950. As Pius XII explained, this is "a divinely revealed dogma". This means that it is in a dogma in the proper sense. It is thus a matter of faith that has been divinely revealed by God and that has been infallibly proposed by the Magisterium of the Church as such.
