Saint Monica – Feast Day August 27

Patron Saint of homemakers, married women, invoked against difficult marriages and difficult children.

Monica married a man named Patricius, who was a pagan and said to have had a violent temper and an immoral lifestyle. Monica and Patricius had 3 children: sons Augustine and Navigius and a daughter whose name is unknown.

Monica's marriage and home life were difficult, but she was a woman of deep faith and prayer. She prayed fervently for her family's conversion. Patricius admired Monica's virtues and was deeply affected by her love for him. The coupled with her prayers, led to Patricius' conversion and baptism one year before he did.

Saint Monica endured a difficult life, but she persevered, overcame her difficulties, and devoted herself to a life of prayer and virtuous living. Her prayers and virtues first won over her husband and mother-in-law, then all three of her children. Saint Monica is seen by many as a model of hope for those whose family members have gone astray. As we honor her today, ponder the power of her prayers.

Saint Monica, pray for us!
