Catholics celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany on January 6, the 12th day of Christmas. In some places, Latin Rite Catholics observe it on the closest Sunday to that date.) The celebration marks the arrival of the three Magi in Bethlehem, where they worshipped the newborn Son of God with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The Epiphany provides Catholics and all Christians with the chance to reflect on what Christ's birth means for pro-life efforts. Like the wise men, we too can recognize, celebrate, love, and support the parents in our community, especially new parents and single mothers. We are called to serve the Lord by serving one another; what better time than Epiphany to reach out to parents in need with gifts tailored to their beautiful calling to love the children God entrusted to their care?

The Baptism of the Lord – God's Right Here -

The church celebration of Jesus' baptism is better understood when explained with its counterpart, the Feast of the Epiphany. Epiphany shows Jesus' divine nature and purpose. The baptism shows Jesus as a human among humans, and as the chosen one of God. Jesus allowed John to baptize him, along with thousands who stood on the riverbank. Against this background, it's hard to imagine an uninvolved God somewhere up in the sky. God himself became a creature with a body and soul "made in the likeness of God." With Jesus' baptism, God is no longer "over us," but he is in us and with us.

Christmas Catholic Charities Collection

This annual collection, held each Christmas, allows the Diocese of Columbus to meet a variety of basic needs directly and through diocesan Agencies and diocesan-sponsored organizations including J.O.I.N. (Joint Organization for Inner-City Needs), and the St. Francis Evangelization Center in McArthur, Catholic Social Services, St. Stephen's Community House, and St. Vincent Family Services. You can help share in this important work by generously supporting the Catholic Charities collection this year.

PSR

PSR classes will resume Sunday, January 7 (today).

OCIA

OCIA classes will be resuming Monday, January 8 at 5:30pm in the Office Bldg.

We will be removing the Christmas decorations from the church after Mass this Sunday's Mass. Again, your help would be greatly appreciated. Many hands make light work!

Pizza Party for Volunteers

To show our sincere gratitude for your time and dedication to our parish, a pizza party will be held on Sunday, January 14 at 5:00pm in the Center. We will need RSVP's to the office if you plan to attend. This is for ANYONE who helped in ANY WAY throughout the year.

Email: office@icckenton.org or 419-675-1162.

Eucharistic Revival

Do you want to improve your love and understanding of the Eucharist, the true body and blood of our Lord? The Eucharist Revival classes are for you. The 7 sessions have amazing lessons and personal stories that teach us new insights, remind us of the truths we have been taught so we can renew our commitment, and inspires us to truly appreciate and love the Eucharist. During each session, we also have an opportunity to discover that other members of our parish are thankful and are searching to increase their love of the Eucharist as well.

New classes starting

If you missed the classes this fall or would like to participate again, you have the opportunity to attend the sessions beginning Sunday, February 4 at 6:30 in the Office Bldg.

2024 – Women's & Men's Conference

Please pray for our seminarians

Every week we will pray for one of our Seminarians. This week please keep Dcn. Daniel Colby from Pontifical College Josephinum in your prayers.

Father, You love us and call each of us to go on mission with you in advancing your kingdom. You equip us with everything that we need to serve and love others in that mission. We pray for our seminarians whom you have called to seminary to discern a possible call to serve you as priests. Please watch over them, Lord. Guide them and help them grow in holiness. Grant them wisdom and courage to give themselves radically to You. We pray also for the grace to grow in holiness ourselves and to seek always your will in our lives. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Please remember the following parishioners in your prayers:

Diane Jaeger, Rita Scharf, Carol Lowery, Ellen Ramage, Dr. Kate Johnson, Joe Krych, Don Conkle, Rita Buyer, Lisa Blum and Pat Kusner.
