PRAYER AND WORSHIP

☙ REFLECTIONS FROM OUR ASSOCIATE PASTOR ❧

Dear Parishioners,

Most of us are familiar with the old platitude, "Easier said that done." Saint Paul encourages the Philippians today to have no anxiety at all. Right Saint Paul, easier said than done! Some synonyms for anxiety are concern, unease, apprehension and worry. Another one, though, is disquiet. It is hard for us not to be anxious at times, especially in times like these. We become anxious about people – about our children, our spouse, our aging parents. We also become anxious about things – about work, retirement, mortgages and car payments.

When we become anxious, we disturb the quiet within, thus we become disquiet. Saint Paul seem to imply today that in order to enter into prayer, into dialogue with God, we need to set aside our anxiousness. This is not easy for us. The distractions of our daily lives often overrun our quiet moments with God, but this we must guard against.

Dialogue with God does not need to be complicated. We tend to overcomplicate things, to excuse ourselves from following through. We might agree that this is true in various aspects of our lives. But prayer does not need to be complicated. We can pray anytime, anywhere.

In the quietness of our encounter with the Lord, we will know the Lord's peace, and that peace will guard our hearts and minds in Jesus. So, let us not grow anxious about too many things. Instead, try to commit to a rhythm of prayer each day. Then, as Saint Paul teaches us today, the God of peace will be with us and we will bear good fruit.

Lastly, most of us probably know someone who might be interested in learning more about the Catholic Church and perhaps someone who might want to become Catholic. There might also be some adults who were baptized Catholic but never made their First Communion or Confirmation. It might even be you. In any case now is a good time to pursue these concerns further here at St. Charles. If interested, please call the parish office, leave your name, and we will have someone from our team call you back. God Bless!

Have a blessed WeeK!

Fr. Canisius Tah

The Knights of Columbus and
St. Charles Borromeo Council 3960
Invite you to attend

The Silver Rose Prayer Service

When: Sunday, October 11, 2020
Time: 7-8 P.M.
Where: St. Charles Borromeo Church

As part of the Knights of Columbus Respect for Life initiative a special prayer service honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe is being offered at St. Charles this coming weekend. A silver rose has travelled a prayer journey through Catholic Churches in Canada, nine states and the District of Columbia. At each location since March prayers are offered with the intention that the dignity of human life is respected from conception to natural death. The silver rose, a symbol of our prayers, will be presented at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City on her feast day, December 12. This prayer pilgrimage, nine months in length, symbolizes the period of Jesus gestation in the womb of Mary.

The prayer service consists of scripture, song, the Holy Rosary, a prayer litany to Mary, and time for personal prayer. The devotion will be led by Deacon Steve Roscher. This opportunity for prayer is offered to the general public, so we hope you and your family can attend.

BAPTISM PREPARATION can be held via ZOOM or in person and private Baptisms can now be scheduled. To learn more, please email Deacon Steve at: steve.roscher@archbalt.org

Fr. Ray's Prayer Poem for Sunday, Oct. 4th

Part I…in the words of the Prophet Isaiah

Isaiah 7:4

"What more could be done for my vineyardthat I did not do?
Why when I waited for the crop of grapes, did it yield rotten grapes?"

Part II…in another's words, a prayer-poem –

how plaintive
Your voice

it moves me
as You wait
for their answer
two answers…

then I realize
I may be and probably am
the one being questioned…

[a tentative "amen"] -Fr. Ray

Back from the Dead Cemetery Walks take place October 16-18, 23-25, 30-31 and November 1 in the historic cemetery at the Seton Shrine, located at 339 South Seton Avenue in Emmitsburg, MD.

On the Cemetery Walk, as a guide leads you through the dark by candlelight, saints and martyrs come to life and reflect upon the "Last Things": death, judgment, heaven and hell. Like Saint Isaac Jogues, who will describe what the North American martyrs endured for the sake of Christ. Or St. Teresa of Avila, who will share her visions of hell.

You'll also meet Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, who reveals how she found Jesus in the midst of suffering. Through these encounters with saints, and martyrs, you'll discover what it means to be truly alive, both now and in the life to come.

*Due to COVID and limited capacity this year.

Tickets: To guarantee admittance, you must pre-purchase tickets ahead of time, as Back from the Dead will sell out. Walk-ins will only be admitted if space is available.
