Infant Baptism

Congratulations to all parents and parents to be. Baptism Preparation sessions for parents and new godparents are led by Deacon Steve Roscher. Contact Deacon Steve at steve.roscher@archbalt.org to register for a session and to arrange for the celebration of your child's baptism.

Faith Formation

Religious Education classes for children (K-8th Grade) take place on Sunday mornings from 9:45am-10:55am in the Rectory (September-May). For more information, contact Allison Mooney at SCBReligiousEd@archbalt.org. For our High School youth program, please contact Fr. Canisius.

Sacramental Preparation

Families wishing to prepare their children for Reconciliation or First Holy Communion, please contact Allison Mooney at SCBReligiousEd@archbalt.org. High School youth interested in Confirmation, please contact Fr. Canisius.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

RCIA is for adults interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and deepening their relationship with Jesus Christ as they journey toward full initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation) into the life of the Catholic Church. Please contact Deacon Steve Roscher.

Care for the Sick

Please contact the Parish Office when a parishioner is homebound, in the hospital, or in a healthcare facility and wishes to receive a visit, or any of the Sacraments. Whenever possible, please make arrangements for Anointing of the Sick before surgery or hospital admission.

Marriage

We rejoice with engaged couples, and ask them to contact Deacon Steve Roscher at least 6 months prior to the date of marriage, in order to schedule an appointment to begin marriage preparation.

DEADLINE FOR BULLETIN: TUESDAY AT NOON

Please pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP . . .

✠ A REFLECTION FROM FR. CANISIUS ✠

Dear Parishioners,

Here we are at the Fourth Week of Advent! The readings give us much to reflect on about Jesus, God's gift to all of us. Micah tells the Israelites that from Bethlehem shall come a ruler, whose origin is from of old, and he will stand firm and shepherd his flock, God's people. The Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Jesus did not come to offer God holocausts and sin offerings, but obedience to his Father's will. Finally, Elizabeth, formerly barren, is with child and she greets as Lord the unborn child that her young kinswoman is carrying.

Jesus far exceeds our imagination in both his power and his humility. We are assured throughout the readings about the greatness of Jesus: he is to be the ruler of Israel for all time, with greatness and majesty. Elizabeth recognizes him for who he is: the Son of God, the blessed fruit of Mary's womb.

Yet, even as we recognize the greatness of Jesus, we know of how humbly and quietly he came into the world, born in a tiny village that was too small to be among the clans of Judah; and born to a young peasant girl who was also a virgin, from an unknown town, Nazareth. He came in humble obedience to God and lived his entire life following God's will, even to the point of rejection and of suffering terribly on a cross. As we learn in the Letter to the Hebrews, through Jesus' offering of himself and his complete obedience to God's will, he consecrated a people for God, once for all.

So, as we celebrate in a few days the gift that God gave us through the Incarnation of his Son, let us also pray that we can be gifts to one another and to those whom God has sent us to serve. Let us pray for obedient hearts, that we might always strive to know God's will in our lives and to follow that will. Let us pray that, like Elizabeth, we might be enlightened by the Holy Spirit to see God's work in unexpected places and people.

And let us pray that, like Mary, we can give birth to Jesus in our world today; that through us, Jesus might be the Shepherd of the troubled souls whom we encounter in our daily lives. May we at all times, throughout our lives, allow Jesus to do the will of God through us, in whatever big or small way he chooses. Our God who created a vast universe virtually out of nothing can also do much in our lives, through our limited resources, time, and talents.

I look forward to visiting with you at our Christmas Open House after all masses this weekend. Check out our Christmas mass schedule. Please accept our invitation to "come home" to St. Charles Borromeo Church. Bring a friend or neighbor.

Blessings,
Fr. Canisius

ARCHDIOCESAN MASS

Archbishop Lori celebrates Mass at the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen at 11:00am each Sunday. It is broadcast live on Ch.24 (MyTV Baltimore); Comcast Xfinity (803); and Verizon (509). A livestream of the Mass is available online at: archbalt.org/online-mass/ or on the myParish app.

SIMPLIFIED SUNDAY READINGS AND CLOSED CAPTIONS

Weekly videos are posted on our Facebook page proclaiming the Sunday readings from a simplified lectionary translation created for children. These videos also contain "closed captions" so they are wonderful for those who suffer from hearing loss or are deaf. They are about 9-10 minutes long. Gather the family and check it out this weekend!

Fr. Ray's Prayer-Poem for December 19th

Part I...in the words the Luke 1:39a

"During those days Mary set out..."

Part II...in another's words, a prayer-poem –

her days!
my days?

her haste...
what was within her!

my haste...
what's within me?

she sets out
bearing the within her passion-mission!

I set out bearing my within my mission-passion?

[a quisitive "amen!"]

Singing is the sign of the heart's joy

(Acts 2:46)

For many years, John Thomas has shared his heart's joy with our faith community as the cantor for our old 12:30pm Mass, our 8:30am Mass, and most recently our 4pm Vigil Mass. He has mourned with our families while singing at countless funerals, and celebrated with others by adding his voice to baptism liturgies, Feast Day celebrations, holy day Masses, and other special parish Masses. This weekend, John will be retiring from his regular weekly music ministry. Please join us in thanking John for so joyfully sharing his gift of music with our parish family over these many years. We have been enriched by his presence in our community and know that God has wonderful plans for him... Well done, my good and faithful servant!

What is the Christmas season without music?

Please consider joining the Traditional Choir. We meet at 3:00pm on Saturdays and sing for the 4:00pm Mass. Our goal is to enjoy the gift of singing with others to enhance the worship service. We have a seat waiting for you in the choir loft! Contact Homeretta Ayala at (410) 905-5264 or hayala9022@aol.com or simply show up. We'll be waiting!

Additional opportunities to share your thoughts—or ask your questions—about the newly announced pastorate, Synod 2021-2023, etc, will take place in the new year. Watch this space for details about future Listening Sessions and plan to join us. We need your input as we plan for the future of OUR parish!

IN THE COMMUNITY . . .

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

Dioceses worldwide are participating in a listening process for the upcoming Synod, rooted in prayer and guided by the Holy Spirit. “For a synodal Church: communion, participation, mission” is an invitation by Pope Francis for “the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission.” Please watch Bishop Bruce Lewandowski’s video where he answers some basic questions about the synod: <https://youtu.be/N5I4pf9IDIk> or learn more about the synod at: www.archbalt.org/synod

We need your voice during the upcoming General Assembly session! Sign up now for the Catholic Advocacy

Network and join Catholics from across Maryland in advocating for vulnerable Marylanders, and for our schools, churches and ministries. As a member of the Catholic Advocacy Network, you will receive occasional action alerts via email that you just click, sign and send to your legislators, plus get weekly updates on key legislation and issues. Go to www.mdcatholic.org/joincan or, if you prefer text alerts, text CATHOLIC to 1-443-764-8765 (you will be asked a couple of follow up questions). And, please share this with your Catholic friends. Thank you!

ENGAGED COUPLE RETREAT—Know any engaged couples in the Philadelphia/Baltimore/DC area getting married in the Catholic Church? A two day, in-person Catholic Engaged Encounter retreat will be taking place at St. Stephen parish in Kingsville, MD on January 15 and January 16, 2022. This will be a commuter weekend with no overnight accommodations. You can find more details and register for the weekend at:

<https://baltimore.engagedencounter.com/>

More dates and locations for 2022 will be posted in January, so check back soon if the January weekend is not an option!
