PRAYER AND WORSHIP . . .

✠ FROM THE DESK OF DEACON STEVE ✠

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany in which the Evangelist, Matthew, tells us of the visit of the Magi to the newborn Jesus. We are blessed here at St. Charles Borromeo parish to have a pastor who each month orders a number of copies of "The Word Among Us." This great publication not only provides us with the Mass readings and prayers for every day during the month, but also contains written articles that share wisdom to help guide us on our faith journey. Perhaps the most important contributions that are contained in this prayer aid are the daily reflections provided for the scripture readings of the Mass of the day.

The reflection for January 8 gives us a different look at the Magi's visit and serves to remind us how their journey to greet the newborn King, Jesus, should inspire us today, two millennia later. These wise men likely made a thousand-mile journey lasting four months while protecting valuable gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. There was the danger of robbery, accident, bad weather and rough terrain, yet they were not deterred from reaching their goal. I hope that those of you who picked up your free copy of "The Word Among Us" will take the opportunity to read that reflection today. For those of you who have neglected to grab a copy of this gem of a publication, please get yours before they are all taken and then use it each day during the month as fuel for your journey of faith.

The story of the Magi is one that is familiar to us since our childhood. We all know the Christmas carol, "We Three Kings." But I wonder how many of us, including myself, truly try to put ourselves in the shoes of those three courageous men in a spiritual sense. We need to ask ourselves some questions. How determined am I in my efforts to meet Jesus? What gifts do I offer Him? When things in life do not go my way, do I give up in frustration and lose faith in God, or do I exhibit the persistence of the Magi?

The Magi traveled hundreds of miles to see Jesus. At first they went to Jerusalem, only to find he was not there. They did not get frustrated and quit. When Satan tried to fool them through the lies of evil King Herod, they did not fall victim to the selfishness of the world. Instead, they took faith in God's message received in a dream and complied with God's will. Matthew tells us that the Magi were "overjoyed" when they found the Lord. Have we experienced that "joy" in finding the Lord? Until we experience Jesus Christ in a personal way, realizing that he became man and died for us as if we were the only person in world, then we miss out on the joy that can come in that type of intimate relationship with our Savior.

This new year, 2023, make a resolution to develop a "Magi relationship" with Jesus.

PRAYER FOR THE SOUL OF POPE EMERITUS BENEDICT XVI

Father, eternal shepherd, hear the prayers of your people
for your servant Benedict, who governed your Church with love.

In your mercy, bring him with the flock once entrusted to his care to the reward you have promised your faithful servants.

May he who faithfully administered the mysteries of your forgiveness and love on earth, rejoice with you for ever in heaven.

In your wise and loving care,
you made your servant teacher of all your Church.
He did the work of Christ on earth.
May your Son welcome him into eternal glory.

May your servant whom you appointed high priest of your flock
be counted now among the priests in the life of your kingdom.

Give your servant the reward of eternal happiness and let your mercy win for us the gift of your life and love.

We entrust your servant to your mercy with faith and confidence.

In the human family he was an instrument of your peace and love.

May he rejoice in those gifts for ever with your saints.

Amen.

(All are encouraged to pray for Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, with the prayer above, or even with a simple Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be.)

Fr. Ray's Prayer-Poem for 1/8/23

Part I...in the words of the Prophet Isaiah 60:2

"Though darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds, the peoples,
upon you the LORD will dawn,
and over you his glory will be seen."

Part II...in another's words, a prayer-poem –

with such frightening clarity our varied darknesses are seen as harpies of what isn't seen hidden away in the darkness

yet each of our darknesses is also surprisingly an horizon where light will inevitably break through the seemingly ever present darkness

oddly & miraculously if one looks directly fiercely into the darkness
one sees light's birthing

if you doubt the possibility talk to one of those who looked at the death-darkened cross only to see it burst forth with eternal life-light

[my stunned "amen!"] - fr. Ray

Getting Involved and Volunteering

The Archdiocese of Baltimore and St. Charles Borromeo Parish are committed to maintaining the trust of the faithful by providing our children and youth with safe environments characterized by healthy relationships. With our longstanding commitment in mind, all volunteers, employees, and clergy must register as a volunteer in VIRTUS, our compliance management system, which allows us to facilitate compliance with archdiocesan child protection requirements. To register as a volunteer, or for more information, visit www.ourstcharles.org/virtus.
