PRAYER AND WORSHIP . . .

✠ A REFLECTION FROM FR. CANISIUS ✠

Dear Parishioners,
Happy Easter!

What a privilege it is to be a Catholic on this holy day. We commemorate the greatest event in human history: The Lord Jesus has risen from the dead and our salvation has been accomplished. God's saving actions change people. It changed the world, and changed our destiny. We have fasted and done penance to prepare, and now it is time to put on the mantle of joy and praise.

At Easter, we also have the great honor of welcoming new members into our family. All around the world Catholic parishes are celebrating baptisms, confirmations, and receiving new people at the table of holy Communion. This is a tradition that is nearly 2,000 years old. Our family is blessed to "give birth," through the waters of baptism, to many more brothers and sisters as we celebrate Easter. It is a sign of life when a body grows and thrives. It is that life we all bring to parish life hear at St. Charles. Never are we more Catholic, never are we more united as a worldwide Church as on this very day. When we consider all the great saints and leaders who have done what we do, we are humbled and inspired to be part of such an amazing movement of the Holy Spirit. We see the grace of the Holy Spirit in the joy of new converts joining our holy family. We hear the powerful Good News that Jesus is not dead, but he lives again.

Then we join in our ultimate act of unity and intimacy with Christ as we receive his body and blood from the sacred altar. We come together as a community, but also with our brothers and sisters from every corner of the world to testify that Jesus lives, and the tomb is empty. Jesus' victory is the source of our joy, and can be the source of their joy forever.

Salvation is a pure gift from God. We have done nothing to earn it. However, we ought to celebrate this gift in the way we live; as if we have been given the keys to the Kingdom. So let us give thanks for all that we have received through the saving power of God; and let us pray for continued growth in faith, hope, and love. Thank you for your presence, support, and commitment to St. Charles Borromeo Parish.

May God's peace be yours this Easter and always.

Fr. Canisius
