PRAYER AND WORSHIP . . .

A REFLECTION FROM FR. CANISIUS

Dear friends in Christ,

Isaiah tells us that God's ways are above our ways and his thoughts are above our thoughts. As an example, the parable about the landowner's decision to pay all of the workers the same wage no matter how long they worked in his vineyard can be confusing. It seems to offend our sense of fairness.

But Jesus turns our perspective upside down when the landowner asks, Am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous? Jesus' focus on the landowner, his generosity in paying the workers who only found the job at his vineyard at the last minute, draws our focus to God.

God is that generous landowner, who welcomes people to his vineyard until the very last moment. For God, it is never too late for people to come to him and seek to serve him and do his will. God loves all of us as his children, and his mercy extends beyond our own conceptions of place and time.

As we go about our day, let us seek God and remember his generosity to us, his love and mercy that are so high above us that we cannot even fathom them. And no matter when we entered his vineyard, let us thank God for the opportunity to work for him.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Canisius

LIFT YOUR VOICE AND SING!

Our Traditional Choir is back after their summer hiatus. Please consider being a part of the music ministry here at St. Charles. There is a minimum time commitment, and the only requirement is the desire to be part of such wonderful people spreading the word of God. If you have children and feel that you cannot commit, bring them along. This is a wonderful way to introduce them to the music of the church. Feel free to contact Homeretta Ayala via email or text (410-905-5264). We meet at 3:00pm on Saturdays and sing at the 4:00pm Mass.

AN INVITATION FROM DEACON STEVE:

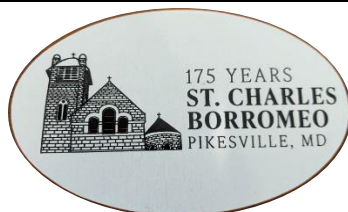

BE A PART OF THE

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL!

There is a word that is unique to the Catholic faith – Transubstantiation. It is the word used to describe when the bread and wine is changed into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ during the Consecration at Holy Mass. While the bread and wine remain visible as bread and wine, in substance they become the Body and Blood of our Lord, Jesus Christ (see Mark 14: 22-24; Luke 22: 19-20; Matt. 26: 26-28; 1 Corinthians 11: 23-28; John 6: 48-71). Our human intellect finds it impossible to fully grasp this concept. It leaves us with a choice: Believe what Jesus tells us about the Eucharist, or discard the literal meaning of his words as merely symbolism. St. John Chrysostom (A.D. 347-407) was the archbishop of Constantinople, a Doctor of the Church, and the greatest preacher of his time. He offered timeless wisdom on the importance of having faith in the sanctity of the Blessed Sacrament even when our minds found it impossible to grasp the concept of transubstantiation. "Let me submit to God in all things and not contradict him, even if what he says seems to contradict our reason and intellect; let his word prevail over our reason and intellect. Let us act in this way with regard to the Eucharistic mysteries, and not limit our attention just to what can be perceived by the senses, but instead hold fast to his words. For his word cannot deceive." It is important that when it comes to the Eucharist we should be willing to let faith take over when reason reaches its limit as we grapple to understand the Real Presence.

See: <https://www.eucharisticrevival.org>

A mailing went out to all registered parishioners announcing our 175th anniversary-year celebrations. It included a commemorative magnet and a bookmark with special event dates and prayer to our patron, St. Charles Borromeo. If you did not receive yours, please complete a parish registration (online at www.ourstcharles.org/register or on a registration form in the church vestibule) or update your mailing address with the parish office and one will be sent to you. We can't wait to celebrate with you!

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION OF AN UNBORN CHILD

Our annual Spiritual Adoption program begins on October 7th/8th. Pledge and prayer cards will be in the pews at all Masses that weekend. Won't you pledge to pray daily for a baby in danger of abortion? The child may be unknown to you, but God knows this child!

JUNIOR CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS

Our Junior Catholic Daughters had a yard sale and bake sale last weekend at one of the girl's houses. They planned, baked, asked family and friends for donations, priced everything, and sold a lot! We are grateful to a couple Catholic Daughters who helped us too! Our girls made over $430 to give to Haiti 180, which is a Catholic orphanage in Haiti!

We also wanted to invite any young ladies between the ages of 8 and 18 to come join us. Our group focuses on leadership roles to serve others and growing in our faith together. The girls lead our games, ice breakers, crafts, snacks, and plan ways to help fund raise for needy groups. If you are interested, please call Julianne DeMarco at (410) 653-0832 OR (203) 943-9621.

For the fourth consecutive year the officers of the Baltimore County Police Department Precinct 4 (Pikesville) are teaming up with St. Charles Borromeo Catholic parish to collect non-perishable food for our food pantry. Our parish helps to provide food for families in need each month. Officers will be present at St. Charles on Sunday, October 8, at the 8:30am Mass to collect food for our food pantry. These officers will already have collected food at area supermarkets on behalf of this parish project and ask that our parishioners team up with them to provide food for area families that are in need of our assistance. Check the bulletin for the food items which are most needed and bring them with you to Mass on October 8.

"For I was hungry and you gave me food."

Matthew 25:35

This week our pantry is in need of: Spam; Tuna; Rice; Vienna Sausages; Canned Green Beans; Hearty Soups; Instant Potatoes; Gravy; Cold Cereal; Canned Milk; Jell-O; Low-Salt Vegetables; Low-Salt Crackers; Canned Fruit; and Hot Cereal.

We are also in need of the following items for packing orders: Strong Shopping Bags (cloth, plastic, or paper with double handles); Full-sized Paper Grocery Bags; and Plastic Shopping Bags (like Target/WalMart).

While we appreciate all donations for the food pantry, we are unable to accept perishable items, and all donations must be unopened and in date. Items may be dropped off at the parish office (M-F, 9am-3pm) or placed in the shopping baskets in the church vestibule.

If you have any questions about our pantry, or would like to volunteer, please contact Lori Mooney at foodpantry@ourstcharles.org or 410-241-6441.
