22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." - Mk 7:14-15

AUGUST 29, 2021

We are most happy to welcome new members to our community and invite new members to introduce themselves to a member of the Parish Staff. We want to know and serve you. We pray that you will also become involved in your parish by joining us with your prayers, presence, talents, and financial support according to your means.

Parish registration forms are available in the churches and by contacting one of our parish offices. Registered parishioners are asked to notify the parish office of any address changes.

PASTOR'S COLUMN

Did you know that I once sold shoes? That's right! As a senior in high school and throughout my years in college, I worked for the old Thom McAn Shoe Company. The store at which I worked was located at what is now the Meadow Brook Center in Lowell – back then it was simply called the 'Plain Street Mall.' I fondly remember those days given the various co-workers with whom I came in contact – along with the true variety of people who shopped at the store. Believe me, they all provided me with enough humorous stories to recall for a lifetime!

In any case, it was always this time of year – the final weeks of August – when the store was most busy. As you can imagine, hundreds of parents with children in tow would come to the store to purchase shoes for the new school year getting underway. I sold shoes at a time when every child's foot was measured as accurately as possible and fitted with a comfortable, quality shoe that hopefully would last until the child's next growth spurt. While my co-workers and I were happy to see the increased business taking place (we earned commissions on our sales!), the work was exhausting and, at times, tedious.

Throughout the years, I cannot help but believe those hectic August days selling shoes were preparing me for whatever pastoral assignments I would have as a priest. I know I am not alone in feeling this way. During these late summer days many of us, especially parents with young children, have a variety of chores and tasks added to their daily agendas. Given the 'adjustments' we all need to apply in doing certain things resulting from the virus pandemic, our schedules can become even busier than usual.

You should know that those on our parish staffs find themselves especially busy at this time as things fall into place for the coming months. ♦ Scheduling sessions and obtaining materials (and volunteers!) for our Religious Education Program are receiving special priority. (Parents can help in this area by registering their children ASAP for classes.) ♦ The music ministries in our parishes are hoping soon for the presence of adult, handbell, and possible children's choirs – enhanced by the congregation's use of a new hymnal. ♦ Liturgical Ministers (lectors, communion ministers, altar servers, etc.) and Ministers to the Homebound are preparing for training and updating sessions. ♦ Details are being finalized for the "Celebrate the C's" (Concord-Carlisle Catholic Collaborative) family event on September 19 (be sure to save the date!). ♦ Calendars for bible study and faith sharing groups are being determined. ♦ And some people have especially noted the efforts that have taken place (with more to come!) in maintaining the extensive properties and grounds of our two parishes.

Yes, these are busy times! But I would label it a "good" busy as we further efforts on many fronts to renew and continue the mission of Christ within our community. And perhaps when things settle down to a more even pace, you could join me at the site when I use to sell shoes – the Thom McAn store is no longer there at Meadow Brook Center, it is now a Chuck E. Cheese! Anyone for Pizza??!

God bless!

Fr. Frank Silva

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 29, 2021 | Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dt 4:1-2, 6-8 | Jas 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27 | Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

Written by
THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE,

SERVE As I began reading the Gospel for today, I initially thought, "Here we go - those hypocritical Pharisees are at it again! They are always questioning Jesus, always judging others, and always looking for ways to make themselves look 'holier' than everyone else." Uh oh; then I realized that I was feeling pretty smug as I judged the Pharisees! Sadly, it can be easy for me to fall into a "Pharisee attitude," thinking I "walk blamelessly and do justice" when really I am just deluding myself. While Jesus uses this encounter to point out the hypocrisy of the Pharisees, he also calls the crowd to a greater understanding of the source of evil in their lives, "From within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts." Maybe I need to hear these words, too, and examine my own thoughts and actions before judging others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

St. James provides an answer to combating the evil we discover in our hearts: "Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls." The Word, Jesus, came to us and has given us the way to free ourselves from the evil within. Our relationship with him is the key. We know we are to "be doers of the word and not hearers only." We have the Holy Spirit to help us stay close to him and access his saving power that transforms our hearts to reflect his goodness and truth. It requires us to humbly assess and own the things we need to change; and to turn to him for guidance so that we may have nothing within us — no evil thoughts, greed, malice, envy or arrogance (etc.) — to defile us. Only then are we most free in Christ — truly free to "care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world."

PRAY The Daily Examen, created by St. Ignatius of Loyola, is an ideal way for growing closer to Jesus and seeking his guidance. Suggested for the day's end, this prayerful reflection helps you recognize God's presence in the day's events, assess your thoughts and behavior, ask for his help in growing in goodness, and discern his plans for you.
