32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury." - Mk 12:42-43

PASTOR'S COLUMN

We have seen it happen so often – a major event hits the news, receives the sympathy of many people, and then seems to fade into the background as other concerns arise. This has been the situation since U.S. Forces completed their withdrawal from Afghanistan at the end of August.

Over recent months, we have witnessed thousands of Afghan families and individuals fleeing violence and persecution in their homeland. A number of them have been forced to leave their loved ones and homes behind and arrive with virtually no possessions as they begin new lives in foreign communities. Many of these people are arriving in the United States – including the area of Greater Boston.

Fortunately, efforts are at work keeping alive the Afghan situation and helping to address the needs of those looking to begin a new life for themselves and their families. Catholic Charities of Boston (CCAB), as one of the largest providers of social services in Massachusetts, has been at the forefront in assisting Afghan refugees. CCAB has actually joined with Combined Jewish Philanthropies (CJP) and the Jewish Council on Community Relations in an effort to raise the community support necessary to welcome and resettle these new community members.

On the local scene, members of several faith communities in Concord, have also come together to assist in the resettlement of Afghan refugees. Their projects are coordinated by the International Institute of New England (IINE) in Lowell. Carroll Sandel, a parishioner of Concord's Trinity Episcopal Church, serves as a project team coordinator for this Concord-based effort.

If you are able to assist with the Afghan refugee resettlement, consider contacting Catholic Charities of Boston to offer a donation (CCAB.org) or Carroll Sandel (carroll.sandel@comcast.net) to make use of your time or talent. Keeping the story alive about the Afghan resettlement fulfills our Christian obligation to 'welcome the stranger' among us as we would welcome Christ himself.

God bless!

ANNUAL MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

Saturday, November 6 – 4:00 pm St. Irene Parish

Sunday, November 7 –
10:30 am Holy Family Parish

During the month of November (The Month of All Souls), we celebrate an Annual Mass of Remembrance to honor the lives of those who were buried from our churches over the previous year. At the Mass of Remembrance, their names will be read. Parishioners with relatives who died last year and for whom services were held elsewhere are invited to have the names of their deceased loved ones included in the list to be read at the Mass of Remembrance.

[RECLAIM!] - VIRTUAL EVENT WITH MATTHEW KELLY

Isn't it time you reclaimed... your dreams, your voice, your time, your health, your personal finances, your relationships, your spirituality, your hope for the future, your soul, your heart, your childlike wonder, your needs, your peace of mind.

We invite you to join Matthew Kelly in a live webinar as we explore practical ways to reclaim the-best-version-of-yourself in the midst of a culture that is constantly trying to rob you of it.

This live Webinar is FREE through our partnership with Dynamic Parish. Save the Date: Tuesday, November 9, at 8:00 pm. Move to clarity from confusion, to courage from fear, to hope from despair. It is time to reclaim! We are excited to announce this special virtual event — featuring a powerful new message from Matthew Kelly, inspiring music, a dynamic Dream Session, and live Q&A with Matthew.

To register for FREE, go to the www.cc-catholic.org website, and click on the [reclaim!] banner when it appears at the top of the cover page. Registered individuals will receive a link to participate in the event on the morning of November 9.

Thirty- Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

03

November 7, 2021

November 7, 2021 | Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kgs 17:10-16 | Heb 9:24-28 | Mk 12:38-44 or 12:41-44

Written by
THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When it comes to money, I'm a worrier. Just ask my husband how I reacted when he had the audacity to pay for shipping! I shop carefully, armed with coupons. I've always been a saver, making sure to contribute to retirement, life insurance, and the "what-if-the-roof-comes-down" fund. Being fiscally responsible is a good thing, but the quest for financial security as the ultimate good is a fool's errand. God is the true provider of all that we need, and what we have finds its fulfillment in service to him. The widows in today's readings knew that too well. In the first reading, a mother and son are down to their last bites of food, facing starvation and death. Yet she gives her last morsels to the prophet Elijah. In the Gospel, the widow gives generously, not of her surplus, but of her entire livelihood. Both women exhibit utter and complete trust in God, and a generosity that knows no bounds. As we study today's Scripture, they teach the worriers among us that God will and does provide, and that the more we give away, the greater our reward in this life and the next.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Do you ever get that knock on the door from a Cub Scout selling popcorn just when you're about to put dinner on the table or run out to a ballgame? Or perhaps you already have a full calendar and suddenly a neighbor really needs your help with an errand or a household emergency – and there goes a whole afternoon! Today's readings invite us to set aside whatever "sticks we are gathering" and welcome the "Elijah moments." They encourage us to give a bit of ourselves away, whether it's time, money, or attention. In doing so, we give witness to the paradox of the Christian life – that the more we give away the more we are rewarded. We also set a positive example for our children and others, who will see our generosity in action.

SERVE

Even the budgeters among us can do this! Look ahead at your budget. In addition to regular expenditures and giving, look at something you can sacrifice – a meal out, a new sweater, a movie night – and decide as a family how you would like to use the extra money and/or time to help others.

ANTIQUE WOOD ENTHUSIASTS

The renovation of the former St. Bernard's Rectory in Concord's Monument Square continues to make progress. Passing by the building, you may have noticed that new windows have been installed and the roof is just about completed. Once finished, the renovated building will serve our community with office and meeting space for the parish.

Work on the building has resulted in materials from the original structure becoming available that may be of interest to woodcrafters and those considering future home projects. A limited supply of Oak Timber Beams, Fir Boards and Joists are on hand. Those wishing to obtain any of these items should contact Paul DeMasi, Holy Family's Business Manager, at the Parish Office (978-369-3940) within this week.

ROSIE'S PLACE

Rosie's Place provides a safe and nurturing environment that helps poor and homeless women maintain their dignity, seek opportunity and find security in their lives. They offer free meals, showers, laundry, lockers and overnight beds. Toiletries, both full and travel sizes, are needed on a continuing basis: shampoo, conditioner, lotion, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes and soap. These items mean so much to them! Please place your donations in the basket in the Gathering Space on Sunday mornings from 7:30am- 12:30pm.

THANK YOU

The Pregnancy Care Center is deeply grateful for the Respect Life Ministry, the Knights of Columbus, and the entire Concord-Carlisle Catholic community. Your practical donations of toiletry, clothing and personal items for "Mothers in Need" exemplify Christian compassion and charity. The support of local churches is vital to our mission, and the Pregnancy Care Center values your generosity and continued support. Thank you!

EVANGELIZATION

November 7 - Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Two readings from today's scriptures focus on stories of widows. Both were poor women in relation to worldly standards and yet when called upon to be generous they gave everything they had. In the gospel, Jesus points out the action of the widow with the words "she contributed all she had. . . ." Being a grateful disciple of Christ requires a spirit of stewardship of the multiple gifts God has bestowed on us. It means being willing, like the two widows, to make sacrifices, to offer prayer and service to the parish as well as to those most in need. Are you willing to share these gifts? This week, pay attention for opportunities that God will provide for you to share your time, your talent, and your treasure - and then - respond as a grateful disciple!

TURKEY TRUCK

Get ready! It's almost time! Our annual turkey collection to benefit the Crossroads Family Shelter in East Boston needs your help! Frozen turkeys are preferred and, due to the lack of freezer storage space, can only be accepted outside the morning 8am, 10:30am and 11am Masses on Sun., Nov. 21st (Holy Family & St. Irene). Cash donations are also welcome outside all weekend Masses in both parishes on Nov. 20/21. Spread the word! We appreciate any help you can provide!

SYNOD ON SYNODALITY

A CHANCE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE GLOBAL CONVERSATION

Over the next years, the Church around the world will be participating in a process called the Synod on Synodality. Pope Francis will be meeting with Bishops from across the globe in 2023 to discuss ways of improving the process by which the church on all levels is open to hearing the voices of people from all walks of life.

That process begins here in Boston now with asking as many people as possible to take a simple survey. The link to the survey can be found here: <https://forms.office.com/r/aPadVsPFt9>

In coming months, open discussion sessions and the like will be scheduled to invite additional contributions to the global conversation on synodality. More importantly, we hope to improve the synodality of various local institutions here in the Archdiocese, as well as of the Archdiocese itself. Please feel free to address any questions about the process to Fr. Paul Soper at psoper@rcab.org. Thank you for your participation!

SOCIAL JUSTICE CONVOCATION

-- A Virtual Gathering --

Let Us Dream: The Path to a Better Future

Saturday, November 13 - 10 am-12:30 pm

Keynote Speaker will be Austen Ivereigh, official biographer for Pope Francis, with whom he collaborated on his book of the same title as this convocation. The program will include Mass celebrated by Cardinal Seán, commentary following the keynote with Father J. Bryan Hehir (Archdiocesan Secretary of Health and Social Services), and a reflection on "Lessons from a Pandemic: what and how we can do better as a community of faith" by MC Sullivan (Chief Healthcare Ethicist for the Boston Archdiocese). To register for this free event and to find out more about the Convocation and the Archdiocesan Social Justice Ministry, go to www.bostoncatholic.socialjusticeministry.org.
