11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." - Mt 10:6-8

COLLABORATIVE NEWS

PASTOR'S COLUMN

A recent study reported that one in three households in eastern Massachusetts experience child-level food insecurity. Not that it is able to meet all the needs that arise, but for close to 35 years, Open Table has provided food resources to families and children in Concord, Carlisle, and surrounding communities.

No doubt many of our parishioners are familiar with the great work undertaken by Open Table. Some parishioners are among the more than 600 volunteers who assist annually in doing everything from sorting food donations, to cooking, to transporting and serving clients.

To support Open Table in their mission to fight the problem of hunger in our local community, a food collection basket will be placed at the entrance of our churches to receive donations. When you do food shopping for yourself or your family, consider picking up an extra item or two that can be placed in the food basket when you come to Mass. Donated items will be delivered each week to Open Table.

Summer can be a particularly tough time for families who rely on free meals through school programs. Over the coming weeks, Open Table will seek to provide nutritious lunches and snacks for kids to bring to camps and activities. At the present time, donations of healthy snack foods, granola bars, goldfish crackers, fruit cups, juice boxes, etc. will be much appreciated.

I am hopeful our parishes can maintain an on-going association with Open Table. From time-to-time, suggestions will be made through the weekly bulletin about a particular food item needed by Open Table to assist their clients. Your ability in helping to meet that need will go a long way in fighting the battle against hunger.

God bless you all...

Fr. Frank Silva

SPECIAL COLLECTION - THIS WEEKEND

Promoting the Gospel

This week's special collection supports the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) and the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). Through the work of CCHD and CCC, the Gospel is promoted by assisting those in poverty, providing grants to community based groups, and using the entire array of media tools available today to evangelize and promote Gospel values. While this collection supports national efforts, a portion of the proceeds are designated for local CCHD grants and parish communication efforts. Your support is much appreciated!

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN -

Training Session

Participation in a "Protecting God's Children Training Workshop" is mandatory for ALL faith formation volunteers and those who serve in various Church ministries.

The workshop provides useful information to protect our children and vulnerable adults by equipping those trained to establish safe environments, raise awareness of the signs of abuse, and to know what responsibilities church volunteers may have legally as mandated reporters. Volunteers need only participate once in this program.

A training will take place this Thursday, June 22, from 12:30-3:30 pm in the Catholic Parish Center (70 Monument Square, Concord). The training will be led by Maria Rosen and Tony Carbrelo from the Concord-Carlisle Catholic Collaborative Faith Formation Team.

To register for this training, go to Virtusonline.org, choose First-Time Registrant, and follow the prompts to complete your registration.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

As a teenager, I was someone you might call "Suzy high school." I played sports, was president of my class, had many friends, etc. But there were times I made some bad choices and ended up having to face my parents with the truth. I remember being afraid of what they would think, even wondering if my actions would make them love me less. Thankfully, I was blessed with incredible parents whose loving lessons throughout my life pointed me toward our Father's love. St. Paul gives us a glimpse of how deep the love of our Father is in the second reading: "But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us." God loves us so completely that even before we approach him to ask for forgiveness, his arms are open wide. Look up at the cross and let that abundant, unending love wash over you. Reflect on what is said in the first reading from the Book of Exodus: "Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine."

ACTION One of the ministries I enjoy contributing to in my area is a Foster Closet. It stocks blankets, clothing, backpacks, toys, and many other products to allow foster children to have quality shopping experiences. If there is one near you, you might find that supporting these vulnerable children is a simple way to let them know they are infinitely worthy of God's love.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

How can we respond to this great love we have been shown by our heavenly Father? Jesus is pretty clear on this topic, isn't he? "Love one another as I have loved you." Not a lot of ambiguity or nuance there. Daunting? Doesn't need to be. The words of today's responsorial psalm proclaim: "Know that the Lord is God; he made us, his we are; his people, the flock he tends." His flock is all of us - including the poor, the depressed, the lonely. Perhaps we can challenge ourselves this summer to step out in service to God's flock by calling on someone in our own lives who may feel marginalized, frightened, or anxious, and be the hands and feet of our Father to them. Perhaps they do not know the depth of our Father's love and we can reassure them of this. In today's Gospel Jesus says: "Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." We have been blessed by the sacrifice of the Lamb, and it is our responsibility to share that blessing with others.
