PASTOR'S COLUMN

As announced last weekend, Father Nick and I are inviting parishioners to 'polish up' a bit on their understanding and knowledge of the Mass and, by virtue of that, of the appreciation and gratitude we should all have for the Holy Eucharist.

Every weekend of this month, an insert will appear in the parish bulletin that draws attention to a particular aspect of the Mass. The inserts are the reflections of Father Brian Mahoney, Pastor of the Holy Rood Collaborative of Chelmsford and Lowell. We are grateful to Father Brian for his kindness in making his insights available to us.

Last week, Father Brian provided a reflection on why it is important to offer worship to God. His observation that "God's unconditional love for us is shown and discovered in our very act of worship," hits the mark on the significance of the Mass and the invaluable gift God provides us in and through the Eucharist. This weekend, focus is given to the Introductory Rites of the Mass and the often-overlooked importance these simple rites have in gathering the community together for true worship of God.

As we journey through these weeks of our "Mass review," Fr. Nick and I will also take a few moments (either before or at the conclusion of Mass) to provide reflections of our own that, hopefully, will offer additional points for your consideration. Your comments and suggestions will be appreciated.

Lastly, may the words of a most humble parish priest, St. Jean Vianney, regarded by the Church as one of its great figures simply because he was faithful, be an encouragement to us all..."If we really understood the Mass, we would die of joy." God bless you!
Fr. Frank Silva

MASS QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What is the "Ambo"?

Answer to last week's question:

Monstance and Luna - The Monstrance is a decorative circular stand designed to hold the consecrated host for Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament during Eucharistic Adoration and Eucharistic Processions. The host itself — the Body of Christ — is displayed in a glass-enclosed centerpiece called the Luna.

In recognition of Respect Life Month, parishioners of the Concord-Carlisle Catholic Collaborative are invited to attend a presentation and luncheon hosted by the Respect Life Ministry and Knights of Columbus St. Irene's Council on Sunday, October 15 from 12:00-2:00 in St. Irene's Church Hall in Carlisle. The presentation by Leah Gunning and Sylvia Fernandez del Castillo will provide information about Pregnancy Help, a pregnancy resource center of the Boston Archdiocese. Come learn how support is provided women in unplanned pregnancies and how you can support this important ministry. So plans can be made for the luncheon, kindly RSVP by Thursday, October 12 by email to aj.regan@verizon.net or cinreynolds@comcast.net

REGISTRATION IS OPEN for children and youth

Faith Formation Sessions are underway for children and youth (K through High School). These sessions also include preparation for the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. Registration details will be found on the Concord-Carlisle Collaborative website (cc-catholic.org) or by contacting the Parish Office Center.

Wish to assist with our faith formation sessions (catechist, volunteers, etc.)? Contact Maria Rosen (mrosen@cc-catholic.org) or Tony Cabrello (tcabrello@cc-catholic.org) for details.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Vineyards were important to the socio-economic structure and well-being of the ancient near east peoples. It would be disastrous for someone to plant and then cultivate a vineyard only for it to be overrun by wild grapes. It would have to be destroyed in order for it to be replanted and recover, which would be financially impossible for most people of that era. So when Isaiah prophesies about God's plan for his vineyard – that is, his people, Israel – it is attention-worthy for its radical nature. Isaiah says that even with all of the Lord's care and cultivation, his people have failed to grow, and they have devolved into idolatry and disobedience. So the Lord will bring his vineyard to ruin. Here's the good news contained (but unspoken in these verses) in that prophecy, however: The Lord will "start over," with a new covenant. And the Word which he sends forth in his Son will be the vine from which all other branches will arise and flourish. Though he will be killed for his message as prophets and messengers before him were, the Son in his victory over death will be the one who gives us the inheritance other tenants have sought. As Jesus himself says in today's Gospel "the stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." And on this cornerstone is built our salvation.

PRAY When we pray to God, we should follow the example of the saints who came before us. St. Paul notes: "Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you." Our prayers are a time to make requests of God but also should be used for thanksgiving. As St. Paul directs, we should make note of all those things that are true, just, lovely, or otherwise worthy of praise

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

There is much to love here on our earthly home – fragrant flowers, beautiful sunsets, and compassionate people. Still, it can be a place of great pain and sadness at times. It can be easy to feel angry and resentful when we encounter the imperfections of the world – when we experience heartache, loss, disappointment. Although working in the Lord's vineyard can be both joyful and heartbreaking, it is up to us to do our best to help it produce fruit until it is time to head to our heavenly home. It is our inheritance, as Christ has made us coheirs with him. St. Paul encourages us to "Have no anxiety at all." Surely, that is easier said than done, but the great Apostle tells us that by our prayers and petitions, "the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus."
