"But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.'"

Reflection

Prayer should be Faith in Action

Once again, the three readings for this weekend focus on prayer. But not just prayer for ourselves but prayer should be leading to action and conversion. Prayer should never be turned into boasting or listing one's own accomplishments. Saint Paul in the Second reading is at the end of his life in jail. But he still praises God for all the many blessings he has received from God.

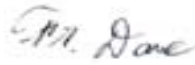

Jesus' parable of the tax collector and the pharisee praying in the temple shows the proper attitude for prayer, being humble. The pharisee is so busy counting his possessions that he cannot receive any blessings from God. His prayer has a very narrow vision and worst he assumes God's role as a judge, looking down on the tax collector.

Meanwhile the tax collector's prayer is one of simplicity and truth. Yes, he is a sinner, and he acknowledges that fact. And he knows he needs God in his life! The tax collector just wanted God's mercy and forgiveness. He did not waste God's time listing all his good points. He just knew he needed God and God's mercy and forgiveness.

The Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles show us that prayer is a strong theme. Luke is showing us that prayer is meant to be faith in action. Prayer is not an optional exercise in piety, done to show one's relationship with God. Prayer IS relationship with God!

We are all called to have the humility that is found in the tax collector's prayer. Just like each and every Mass begins with a penitential rite; "Lord have mercy on me a sinner". And then our Mass ends with a commissioning to go out and bring Christ into the world. Our private and public prayer should be one of humility and then one of action in the world.

Pax Christi,

Very Reverend David O'Leary, VF, S.T.L., D.Phil.
Pastor

Liturgical Ministers Training

All Liturgical Ministers are invited to a training and refresher session with Father Dave and the Faith Formation Team.

Together, we will walk through the parts of the Mass and reflect on the important role each minister plays in our parish liturgies. This is also a wonderful opportunity for anyone who may be interested in joining one of these ministries—you are most welcome to attend and learn more!

Tips from the Heart ❤️

Happy Fall. The air is feeling crisp, remember to:

- Go for a walk with friends and family and bundle up.
- Watch out for those trick or treaters roaming the streets.
- Make sure you get your flu vaccine.
- If feeling overwhelmed with the upcoming holidays, you are not alone, seek support.

As always, Be kind to yourself.

If I can help, please call, email or stop by.

Be well,

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Father, your son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick sisters and brothers. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in His suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen
(Catholic liturgical prayer for the sick)

FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today's first reading says, "The Lord is a God of justice who knows no favorites." While we humans show deference to people we admire or give preferential treatment to those we like, God loves all his creatures with the same perfect love. But then the reading goes on to say something that seems to contradict that opening line, even suggesting that God has a soft spot in his heart for the poor: "Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed." The text mentions that God hears the prayers of the widow and orphan, and that "the prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds." So what are we to make of all this? While God loves all perfectly, his heart is moved to mercy particularly toward the poor and lowly. And so the tax collector's humble prayer is heard, and he goes home justified, while the Pharisee does not.

PRAY

There is a short, ancient Christian prayer known as the Jesus Prayer that is derived, in part, from our Gospel reading today. The entire text of the prayer is one line: "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner" which is repeated over and over again. Consider praying this prayer throughout the week as a way of rooting yourself more deeply in humility and an awareness of our need for God's mercy.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Jesus knew how to tell stories that acted as a mirror to reveal the state of peoples' hearts. Today's Gospel opens with the line: "Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness." Because we cannot know what's going on in someone's heart the way Jesus knows, we have to be careful not to assume we know what another needs to hear. Yet, in our efforts to accompany others on the road to discipleship, there may be moments where we're called to speak a word that "afflicts the comfortable or comforts the afflicted." If we do, we must always do so from a place of love and humility, recognizing that sometimes we are sharing this word because God has convicted us of precisely the same thing we're sharing with another! In that way, our sharing becomes more witness to the ways God has humbled us.

Give something small for women in need!

Rosie's Place provides a safe and nurturing environment that helps poor and homeless women maintain their dignity, seek opportunity, and find security in their lives. It offers free meals, showers, laundry, lockers, and overnight beds.

Toiletries, both full and travel sizes, are needed on a continuing basis: shampoo, conditioner, lotion, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes, and soap and women's sanitary products.

These items mean so much to them! Please place your donations in the baskets at Holy Family or St. Irene's in the baskets at the church entrances.

Our small team could use more helpers. Please contact Julie Hirschler at jannhm@gmail.com for more information.

Thanks!

"Become a Faith Formation Spiritual Grandparent."

Dear Friends,

Our Faith Formation ministry is in full swing! We are already in our second session and our very first Family Faith Formation gathering. The Spirit is truly alive and moving in and through our families. It is a joy to welcome so many families into our community as we encounter Christ together and grow in loving friendship with the Blessed Trinity and with one another.

Please note that we are still accepting families. Children with special needs are welcome and are especially invited to join us. If you know a child or family seeking faith formation, please encourage them to apply at <https://www.cc-catholic.org/faith-formation-registration>.

This year, we are blessed with 31 students preparing for First Penance and First Eucharist and 36 students preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation. They will need our prayers and support.

Therefore, we are inviting parishioners to serve as Spiritual Grandparents to these children. This simple but beautiful ministry involves praying daily for your spiritual grandchild.

If you would like to become a Spiritual Grandparent, please contact Marie Noel at faithformation@cc-catholic.org or call 978-367-7442 ext. 224.

Let us continue to pray together for all our children and their families.
