Reflection

First Sunday of Advent, cycle A – 30 November 2025

Happy New Year but be Prepared!

The beginning of our liturgical year will see a very large selection from the Gospel of Matthew being read each Sunday. But the first two weeks of Advent have the readings reminding us to be prepared and be ready for the end, Jesus' second coming. When I was teaching, this worked very well with the students since the end of the semester was very near. But for us it is still a good reminder to be ready for the end. The last two weeks of Advent give us the immediate preparation as we remember Jesus' first coming into the world.

Many new procedures will be starting up to enhance our liturgical celebrations. First, we will have the lectors now be part of the entrance procession, showing how important the Word of God is to our Mass. If there is no Deacon present the one lector will be carrying in the Book of the Gospel and placing it on the altar. Also, we hope to have four cup bearers at Saint Bernard's and two cup bearers at Saint Irene for folks to receive the precious Blood more easily. After Communion, those who will bring the Holy Eucharist to our homebound parishioners will be commissioned, blessed, and sent forth, ensuring that the homebound receive Communion directly from our Sunday celebration. On the Third Sunday of Advent, we will also joyfully commission 17 new Altar Servers, who will begin serving at our Sunday Masses.

All registered parishioners of Holy Family and Saint Irene's should have received the Grand Annual appeal letter. The Grand Annual helps greatly in meeting operation expenses and needed repair work at both parishes. Please be as generous as possible to the special collection. Please label your check Grand Annual.

Finally, my new book; "Twelve Tough Questions and a Pastor's Response" has been published on Amazon. This is the book that I wrote during my sabbatical studying at the Vatican in 2024 for three months. May I suggest that it would make a great Christmas present for family members and friends.

Let's Walk Together!

Join me for a weekly walk — a great way to get some fresh air, gentle movement, and good conversation.

Wednesdays at 1:00 PM | Meet in the parking lot at St. Irene's

(Check the bulletin for any date changes.)

Tips from the Heart

The holidays are fast approaching, remember to:

- Crack open a window to circulate the air, when having family and friends over for celebrations.
- Get enough rest during the busy holiday rush.
- Check in on your neighbors as the weather gets colder.
- Share a warm coat or winter clothing with someone in need.
- Make sure you get your flu vaccine.
- If feeling overwhelmed with the upcoming holidays, you are not alone, seek support. (988)

As always, Be kind to yourself.

If I can help, please call, email or stop by.

Be well,

Nurse Jean

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Father, your son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick sisters and brothers. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in His suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen
(Catholic liturgical prayer for the sick)

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

For many in the upper latitudes of the northern hemisphere, this is the darkest time of the year, the time when the duration of daylight is at its lowest. It's providential, then, that our first reading calls us to "walk in the light of the Lord!" Paul tells us that we do this by "throw[ing] off the works of darkness" and "put[ing] on the armor of light." While we might not struggle with the vices listed in Paul's Letter to the Romans, each of us has our own struggles against sin. As we begin this Advent season, let us take time to do a thorough examination of conscience to discern areas of weakness and sin – those "works of darkness" Paul talks about – in our own lives. Then, consider taking up practices that help you to foster the opposing virtues to arm yourself against these temptations. As you grow in these virtues, you'll certainly be on your way up the mountain of the Lord and walking in his light!

PRAY

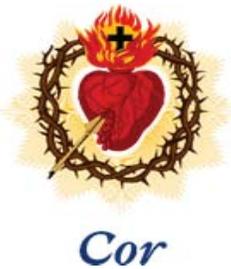

Take a moment to pray this week for those "divine appointments" – those individuals who might come your way – seeking encouragement or insight into the spiritual questions in their lives. Ask for the grace to be "awake" so that you're ready to meet them when they come. We can't always predict when these encounters will happen, but we can prepare ourselves to receive these persons as Christ and offer them our full attention and love.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Today's Gospel calls us to vigilance. Jesus tells us, "Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come." While he is speaking about our need to be ready to meet the Lord when he comes at the end of our lives, it's also an invitation for us to always be ready to share our faith with others whenever the opportunity presents itself. As Scripture says, we should "always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you a reason for your hope." (1 Pet 3:15) We never know the moment when someone will come to us in need of prayer, a word of encouragement, or with questions related to their own spiritual hunger. We must always be ready to meet them where they are and offer a word of hope.

Give something small for women in need!

Rosie's Place provides a safe and nurturing environment that helps poor and homeless women maintain their dignity, seek opportunity, and find security in their lives. It offers free meals, showers, laundry, lockers, and overnight beds.

Toiletries, both full and travel sizes, are needed on a continuing basis: shampoo, conditioner, lotion, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes, and soap and women's sanitary products.

These items mean so much to them! Please place your donations in the baskets at Holy Family or St. Irene's in the baskets at the church entrances.

Our small team could use more helpers. Please contact Julie Hirschler at jannhm@gmail.com for more information.

Thanks!

OCIA RITE OF ACCEPTANCE

On Sunday, November 9th, our parish joyfully accepted two friends—Eric L. and Charles E.—into the Order of Catechumens as they begin their journey toward Easter, when they will be baptized and confirmed in the Catholic Church. Eric was raised in a Jewish family, and Charles comes from a mixed-faith background. Please keep them in your prayers, that God may bring to completion the wonderful work He has begun in them.

If you know an adult who is interested in becoming Catholic or who would like to complete their Sacraments of Initiation, please encourage them to reach out to us at faithformation@cc-catholic.org. Please keep them in your prayers, that God may bring to completion the wonderful work He has begun in them.
