2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world."
John 1:29

Welcome to our Collaborative!

You are welcome here, just as you are

No matter your present status in the Catholic Church

No matter your family or marital situation

No matter your personal history, age, income, background, race, gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity

No matter how you see your own holiness or worthiness or where you find yourself on your spiritual journey

A Reflection on Our Interfaith Prayer Service

Last Sunday, January 11th, Saint Bernard’s Church hosted the first Inter-faith service sponsored by the Concord Interfaith Coalition. The prayer service had the theme of “Loving thy Neighbor and Welcoming the Stranger”. Fr. Dave and Reverend Jennifer Johnson were the co-leaders of the service. There were prayers and readings from many of the faith groups in Concord. Here is one parishioner’s re-action to attending the event.

“Dear Fr. O’Leary,

Though I had to keep quarantine last evening by sitting with Bill in the last pew on the Monument St side, both of us left the Interfaith Coalition service encouraged and moved by the speakers (especially Marie Noel!) and the music.

We are also struck by the fact that the prayers for peace and caritas were sheltered by the Catholic Church in town. If one had God’s eye view of history, it might seem like just yesterday that Protestants and Catholics and Jews—let alone other religions—were profound enemies, sometimes at war. But last night, we sheltered together, as one ad hoc community reaching deeply to remember our common theological/moral patrimony.

Thank you for being that host, courageously leading despite possible controversy, to bring the faithful people in Concord to higher ground.

For the community at large urgently needs the moral clarity and guidance that Pope Leo and the American Catholic Bishops are best suited to offer. Thank you, in communion with them, for standing up to embody it by your warm hospitality to the Interfaith Coalition last evening.”

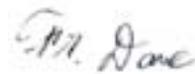

sincerely,

— A grateful parishioner

Pax Christi,

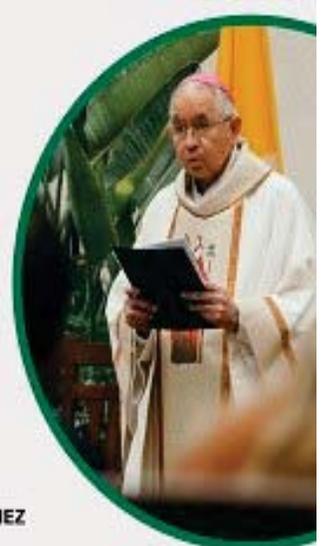

Very Reverends David O’Leary, VF, S.T.L., D.Phil.
Pastor

If you see volunteers moving bags of groceries or food for Rosie’s Place and/or Open Table donations after Mass at Holy Family, please consider offering a helping hand. Your assistance is greatly appreciated—thank you!

We do not love those who oppose us because they are loveable, or even likable, Rev. King once said. We love them because God loves them. And by our love, we seek their conversion and friendship, not their humiliation. This is our Christian duty in this moment – to be healers and peacemakers, to overcome evil and lies, not by more of the same, but with words of truth and works of love.

GRAND ANNUAL UPDATE

83 families have contributed $88,125 to Holy Family, and 47 families have contributed $63,850 to St. Irene.

For those who have not yet participated—or who are new to our Collaborative—the Grand Annual provides essential funding for major projects across our buildings and helps cover the ongoing maintenance of our facilities.

Thank you for your kindness and generosity!

Christmas Tree Pick Up A Success!

Our twenty-year collaboration with scout troop 132 continues in our annual Christmas tree pick up event.

This year, 25 Youth Ministry Church volunteers joined Scout Troop 132 in picking up trees at a little over 700 households in Concord. This fundraiser for Youth Ministry supports new initiatives, our annual fall retreat with NET Ministries, and the summer mission trip we have begun planning. Thank you for your support!

Our Collaborative Prays for Life January 23

Please join us for a Holy Hour for Life, Forgiveness, and Healing with Exposition on Friday, January 23, from 7:00–8:00 PM, at Holy Family Parish – St. Bernard Church, as part of the Archdiocese's observance of the National Day of Prayer and Penance.

Led by Deacon Gregory, we will pray for reverence for the dignity of human life from conception to natural death; for those wounded by abortion; for those facing death; and for deeper holiness within the Church.

This Holy Hour is organized by Boston Deacons for Life, in collaboration with the Office of Diaconal Life and Ministry and the Pro-Life Office of the Archdiocese of Boston.

All are welcome.

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Father, your son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick sisters and brothers. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in His suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen
(Catholic liturgical prayer for the sick)

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I have struggled when doing work that feels unseen. Has anyone noticed that the floors were mopped today? Do my students care about the feedback I provide on their writing? Does my supervisor notice the extra time I put into my work? In today's Gospel we hear John the Baptist announcing Jesus as "the Lamb of God." John has been preparing for the coming of Christ and now that Jesus has arrived, his role is to step aside and encourage his followers to move their gaze toward Christ, the Messiah. Although we know John's name and his faithfulness, it would have been easy for him to assume that his work would have been forgotten — overshadowed by the signs and wonders of Christ himself. But in his humility, this is exactly what John seemingly wanted. His life and words were focused solely on proclaiming the coming of Christ. While I may have been tempted to say, "Please don't forget about what I did," John responded faithfully to God's call to preach and prepare for Christ's coming, without worry of receiving credit for his actions. And in our lives, too, what matters is not whether our work is appreciated or noticed, but whether our actions are in response to God's call to holiness.

WITNESS

Consider the countless men and women who have gone before us who remained faithful to God's call. Their lives bear witness to their trust in God, in big and in small ways, sometimes visible, but often hidden. What simple acts of faithfulness are you being called to persevere in today? Recommit to practicing faithfulness in the big — as well as mundane — aspects of daily living.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Despite not knowing whether his work would extend for years or decades, John the Baptist continued to lead others toward repentance. He did not know the full scope of his role in the plan of salvation, but he trusted in the voice of God. Like John, we are called to persevere in faithfulness to the work that God has called us to do, right where we are. When we persevere in our faith, living according to the teachings of Christ and our vocation, we give witness to the truth that the God who called us is worthy of our trust.

A group of parishioners has organized a GoFundMe to support Cypriana during this difficult time, and we would like to share it with our community. Any donation, no matter the amount, will help ease the burden of medical and travel expenses so she can focus on healing.

Cypriana has always given so much of herself to others through teaching, music, faith, and service. Now, she is facing a difficult season that requires her full focus on healing and recovery. Due to ongoing medical needs, Cypriana must take time away from work to regain her strength. This period of recovery brings not only physical and emotional challenges, but also significant financial strain. Medical expenses, specialized therapies, and necessary travel for treatment are quickly adding up.

We are starting this GoFundMe to help ease that burden so Cypriana can concentrate on what matters most...her health. Funds raised will help cover medical bills, ongoing treatment, therapy and rehabilitation services, and travel expenses related to medical care. Every contribution, no matter the size, will make a meaningful difference. If you are unable to give financially, please consider sharing this page and keeping Cypriana in your prayers.

Thank you for your generosity, kindness, and support during this critical time. Together, we can help lift Cypriana up and remind her that she is not walking this journey alone.

A Thank You from the Friends from Afar Ministry

Dear Parish Family,

With full hearts, we extend our deepest gratitude to all who made our recent gathering with our Friends from Afar such a beautiful and grace-filled experience.

We are profoundly grateful to everyone who helped plan, organize, cook, donate, transport, and serve. Your kindness was felt deeply by the families we accompany. Many of them have shared stories of arriving in this country without family, moving from shelter to shelter, and finding hope only because of volunteers who cared for them when they felt most alone.

During our time together, this is what we heard from them:

“These people owed us nothing, yet they gave us everything. We will be forever grateful.”

“The work you do has no limit and can never be repaid. Only God can repay you. We can never thank you enough.”

Their words echo our own: we can never thank you enough.

Thank you for the games and laughter.

Thank you for the diapers, clothing, food, and desserts.

Thank you for the planning and the behind-the-scenes work.

But most of all, thank you for your love—for making space for belonging, for friendship, for dignity, and for community.

Through you, these families have encountered not just generosity, but the living face of God.

Even the leftovers became a gift—joyfully shared with our friends from the Interfaith Coalition following their prayer gathering. Truly, nothing was wasted. Love multiplied.

May God, who alone can fully repay such generosity, bless each of you abundantly.

With gratitude and prayer,

Friends from Afar Ministry
