The Sermon on the Mount

Jesus' Sermon on the Mount is addressed to everyone. The basic theme of the sermon is that Jesus came not to abolish the Law and the Prophets but to fulfill them. Much of Jesus' teaching concerns how to act in the present times. Here is a breakdown of the Sermon on the Mount.

The sermon is neither a strictly individual ethic nor a blueprint for a social Utopia. Still, it does have implications for both personal and communal life. The sermon is not addressed only to a Christian elite, nor is it so impossible to practice that its only function is to remind people of their status as sinners and their need for God's Grace.

The sermon places a compendium of Jesus' teachings before a Jewish audience. The goal is to show how Jesus fulfills the Law and the Prophets, not to prove the superiority of his teachings to the Jewish Scriptures or Traditions.

In the Sermon, Jesus presents what is for Christians an authoritative interpretation of the Torah. The sermon is more concerned with the principles and attitudes of an individual rather than legalities.

In other words, if one is a disciple of Jesus, if one is a believer, then this is how one should be living in the world. We should be totally dependent on God. We should be thirsting for holiness, we should be showing mercy to all peoples, we should be peacemakers in the world.

The Sermon on the Mount lays out an ethic for life for the believer.

How are you measuring up to this ethic?

Pax Christi,

Very Reverends David O'Leary, VF, S.T.L., D.Phil.

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Father, your son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick sisters and brothers. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in His suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen
 (Catholic liturgical prayer for the sick)

DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

There have been many times when I have experienced “imposter syndrome” in my work, where I doubt my own ability. In these times, I often looked to others to try to determine if I was doing enough. But instead of giving me the validation and encouragement I was seeking, this act of comparison frequently led to dissatisfaction. I began to wish I was more like others — more outgoing, more disciplined, more organized. But who I am and the gifts that I have to offer are exactly what I am being called to give in my vocation. Saint Paul reminds us in his First Letter to the Corinthians that we were not called because we possess a specific talent or personality; we have been called to bear witness to the work Christ is doing in us. And this witness comes from living our vocation authentically, with the gifts we naturally possess. When we not only accept but love and value our unique qualities, we give glory to the One who so lovingly and perfectly created us.

REFLECT

As we go through life, there can be times when we feel unprepared for the vocation God has called us to. Consider how these feelings of inadequacy may be an invitation for us to rely more fully on Christ working within us. Bring this to prayer and ask the Lord to reveal how he may be using this particular circumstance to draw us closer to him.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In proclaiming the beatitudes, Christ reveals that those who will experience the rewards of heaven aren’t those we might consider “blessed” by human standards. What our culture values as markers of success and happiness are not always what is valued in the kingdom of God. Indeed, the joys of life in the kingdom are deeper than those here on earth; we were created for fulfillment greater than what this world can offer. Therefore, we must live confidently in the hope of Christ’s promises instead of comparing ourselves to others who might appear more successful. And as we live our vocation, we are called to live out the countercultural message of the beatitudes — a radical trust in the eternal promises of God in spite of earthly poverty, grief, or persecution. In doing so, we invite others to see and experience the joy of the abundant life that Christ proclaims.

Cypriana has long been a beacon of light in our community, generously sharing her kindness and gifts with others. She is now facing a difficult season of healing, with significant medical and travel expenses.

A group of parishioners has organized a GoFundMe to support her during this time, and we would like to share this opportunity with our parish community. Any donation, no matter the amount, will help ease the financial burden so she can

Family Mass & Faith Formation – Thank You!

Boston College Church in the 21st Century Center Visiting Our Parish

The Church in the 21st Century (C21) Center at Boston College is a catalyst for the renewal of the Catholic Church in the United States. Drawing on the Boston College community and beyond, the C21 Center engages the Church in critical conversations centered on four key areas:

- Handing on the faith
- Roles and relationships in the Church
- Sexuality in the Catholic tradition
- The Catholic intellectual tradition

This week, the C21 Center will be with us, leading Family Faith Formation following the 9:00 AM Mass at Holy Family and the 11:30 AM Mass at St. Irene. This opportunity is open to all families, not only those currently enrolled in Faith Formation. Please join us.

Knight of Columbus Family of the Month-December

Each month, the Knights of Columbus recognize a family who makes present in our community the beauty of the Domestic Church. Our Collaborative is blessed with many families who bring the faith to life through their daily witness, and this December we are honored to recognize the Benjamin family as our Family of the Month.

Katherine Benjamin, in addition to being a devoted wife and mother, serves our Collaborative as a 3rd and 4th grade catechist. Her devoted husband, Taylor, like St. Joseph, is a faithful supporter—ever present and willing to assist in every ministry. Their eldest son, Ryder, serves as a lector and greeter whenever asked. Their daughter, Samantha, serves as an altar server and lector and portrayed our beloved Mary in the 2025 Christmas pageant. Conrad, their joyful youngest, has recently received First Penance and is preparing for First Eucharist; he, too, is always eager to volunteer to read or serve whenever the opportunity arises.

Please join us in congratulating this wonderful family. May the Lord continue the good work He has begun in them, and may their example continue to inspire other families in our community.

Faith Formation

First Reconciliation

We were blessed with a beautiful, Spirit-filled moment as 38 of our students celebrated their First Reconciliation. Along with their families, they experienced the loving mercy of God through this powerful sacrament of healing. Please keep these children and their families in your prayers.

If you are not yet a spiritual grandparent, we could use 10 more to support our students with prayer and encouragement.

As they now continue their preparation for First Eucharist, please be sure to congratulate them!
