"Come Follow Me"

Dear Sisters and Brothers In Christ,

Jesus' ministry is on its inaugural voyage this weekend. He is at a religious function when he performs his first miracle in Mark's Gospel. Jesus casts out the evil spirits from a man at a religious gathering. "He starts to build the Kingdom of God not by overcoming the evil that is out there-in the world of the unfaithful-but by first casting out the evil that is present in here-within the lives of those who are trying to be faithful. That's us." I love this perspective found in the book "Come Follow Me." The author also said these powerful words: "There are a variety of ways in which we can learn to cloak the unclean spirits of our lives in the garb of religious justification. Sometimes arrogance is cloaked as excellence; gossip is disguised as wisdom; disregard for the world around us is cloaked as spiritual detachment. Those are some of the unclean spirits from which Jesus wants us to be freed so that we can be disciples who follow the Lord and do His will, and not just disciples who do our own will in the Lord's name." Challenging words for us all.

Peace...

2021 NW Catholic collection. Through Northwest Catholic magazine, NWCatholic.org and @northwestcatholic, the Church is able to enter Catholic homes in Western Washington with a message of Hope that the world so desperately needs, especially in this time of social separation.

Your donation is a wonderful way to continue to share the gift of faith with others. For those attending in-person Mass donation envelopes will be made available. You are also welcome to donate online here. Thank you for your past and continued support of this annual collection!

Games Night - BINGO!

Come one, come all to St. Patrick's Game Night, starting soon for community members = FUN!!

This twice monthly activity will take place on the first and third Saturdays of each month from 6 PM - 8 PM hosted by Elaine Clark, assisted by Ellen Carpentier, who will interpret for Deaf and Hard of Hearing participants. Hearing participants will learn ASL signs so we can all play together.

Starting virtually on February 6th, BINGO will be our kick-off game, and then on February 20th we will access playingcards.io to play Go Fish and/or other similar games. To participate virtually, each player will need "good enough" internet connectivity plus ability to access Zoom for the BINGO; and zoom plus a second browser for the playing cards night.

Once we move beyond COVID restrictions, the plan is for Game Night to evolve into a combined virtual and live activity with additional board and card games at Paddy's Place. (Look for the Zoom link for Feb 6 BINGO in the St. Patrick email bulletin on Feb 5).

Care for Creation: 2040

Join fellow Catholic parishioners for an amazing at-home screening of this award-winning climate documentary.

Drawing on the best minds from around the world to focus on climate, economics, technology, civil society, agriculture, and sustainability, 2040 maps out a pathway for change that can lead us to a more ecologically sustainable and equitable future. The film takes a solutions-based approach to how we can, using the technology we already have, mitigate the enormous global issues we currently face. 2040 is a story of hope, and a powerful tool to encourage people to take action.

You can register individually (<https://care4creation.eventbrite.co.uk>) to watch the movie any time you like until February 6th.

There will be a facilitated group discussion about the film and its solutions on Sunday, February 7th from 1 - 2:30 PM (Zoom information will be sent out separately). Contact Kathy Wilmering (kathywilmering@gmail.com) for more information.

This event is sponsored in part by the following Catholic Care for Creation teams: St. Joseph Parish, Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers, St. John the Evangelist Parish, Intercommunity Peace & Justice Center, St. James Cathedral, and Seattle University Institute for Catholic Thought and Culture.
