Nothing ordinary about this parish!

Happy Father's Day!

Dear Sisters and Brothers In Christ,

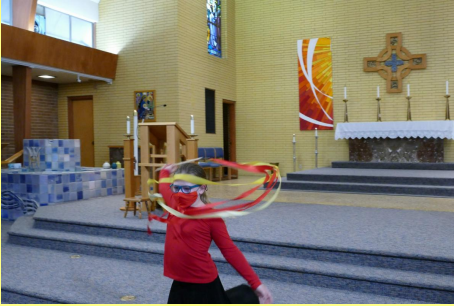

This weekend we will hear Jesus calm stormy seas and also calm the hearts of his fearful disciples. But this weekend's second reading from St. Paul to the Corinthians deserves a closer look. St. Paul is calling us all to die to our old ways and embrace a new way of life centered on the other, not ourselves. This is what Jesus did for us by dying on the cross. And this is what Jesus calls us to do in our daily lives. "So, whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come." May we live these words in our families, in our workplaces, and in our neighborhoods, and by our example may we help Jesus to transform a broken world into the kingdom of God."

Peace...

Father's Day Blessing

We have a special blessing now for all fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, and all people with fathering roles. Please pray for them:

God our Father,
in your wisdom and love, you made all things.
Bless these men,
that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers.
Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, their sons and daughters,
may honor them always
with a spirit of profound respect.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.
Amen!

Phishing/Spam Emails

We have received reports of email impersonation scams that appear to be sent from Fr. Bryan. The bad actors are able to achieve seemingly realistic emails through the use of email spoofing. This is a scam. Please do not respond to this email or offer any assistance. Simply delete the email.

All St. Patrick parish emails will come from our official email accounts, which have our parish name in the title, and not personal Gmail, Hotmail accounts, etc. If in doubt, please contact a member of staff.

What is Juneteenth?

“Juneteenth is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States. Dating back to 1865, it was on June 19th that the Union soldiers, led by Major General Gordon Granger, landed at Galveston, Texas with news that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Note that this was two and a half years after President Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation - which had become official January 1, 1863... The reactions to this profound news ranged from pure shock to immediate jubilation... The celebration of June 19th was coined 'Juneteenth' and grew with more participation from descendants. The Juneteenth celebration was a time for reassuring each other, for praying, and for gathering remaining family members... Juneteenth almost always focused on education and self-improvement. Thus, often guest speakers are brought in and the elders are called upon to recount the events of the past.” Source: from Juneteenth.com

Northwest African American Museum (NAAM) has planned a full week of exciting virtual Juneteenth events. You can access the full event list here.

USCCB to Celebrate Religious Freedom Week

Each year, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) observes Religious Freedom Week. Religious Freedom Week will be observed this year from June 22 to June 29 and the theme chosen is Solidarity in Freedom. “Solidarity means much more than engaging in sporadic acts of generosity. It means thinking and acting in terms of community” (Fratelli tutti, 116). Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all.

The USCCB has prepared resources to “Pray – Reflect – Act” which may be found at: www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek. Through prayer, education, and public action during Religious Freedom Week, the USCCB hopes to promote the essential right of religious freedom for Catholics and for those of all faiths. Connect with the USCCB Committee for Religious Liberty. Text FREEDOM to 84576 and sign up for First Freedom News, the USCCB Committee for Religious Liberty’s monthly newsletter.
