Movement Ministry in Motion

Our two parishes are so much alike in our Gospel perspective

Dear Sisters and Brothers In Christ,

I want to thank everyone who attended last Sunday's gathering at Paddy's Place after Mass. What a blessing to get to know better our friends at St. Joseph and see how similar our two parishes are in so many ways (And, of course, there was Pagliacci Pizza!). I've tried to listen deeply to where the Holy Spirit is leading this community and there are a few signs we all should take note of: Laura Ash moving to St. Joe's as Music Director, Betsey Beckman's 40+ year association with the incoming pastor at St. Joseph who was the Music Director of a Gospel performance troupe when Betsey was the Movement Director, and how our two parishes are so much alike in our Gospel perspective. The Spirit is breathing new life through our two communities. Come join us this Sunday as St. Joseph's incoming pastor Fr. Chris Cartwright will serve as our Mass celebrant.

Peace...

Dcn. Dennis Kelly
Pastoral Coordinator

Important Parish Update

With anticipation and hope the parish leadership and parishioners from St. Joe's joined with St. Pat's to celebrate Mass and meet in ministry groups – Liturgy and Worship, Faith Justice, Parish Life and Faith Formation. Both the Mass and the meetings afterward were well attended (over 100 people from both parishes stayed to meet with one another) and the event highlighted the wonderful spirit of St. Pat's as well as the welcoming spirit of St. Joseph.

Below are a few of the 3 dozen graces that were collected that day:

- The chance to meet and listen to each other, share experiences and ask questions.
- Being at Mass today was the most moving, vibrant liturgy I have been part of in I don't know how long. St. Pat's is a complete gift for St. Joe's. We need fun!!
- Grace of collaborative creativity!
- The many existing connections that already exist between St. Pat's and St. Joe's.
- Received the grace of openness at St. Joe's and St. Pat's to create something new.
- So thankful for the welcoming we've received from St. Joe's and their openness to our gifts.
- Connection, Feeling of coming home, Gentleness.
- Grateful that St. Joe's is welcoming yet being so respectful of our sadness.

Zoom Mass Comes to an End

Effective this weekend, virtual Mass will only be found on the St. Patrick Facebook page and not on Zoom. A special thank you to Betsey Beckman, Sandi Tennyson, Andrea Hoekstra and others for shepherding this community the past two years. Your ministry has been a blessing.
