Gospel Reflection - Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we hear that a number of Jesus' followers left him because his message was too difficult for them to accept. In essence, they did not believe in him. He then asked the Twelve if they wished to leave as well. Peter responds by making a profound profession of faith in Jesus as Lord and Savior. The Twelve made a choice and stood by their choice, remaining loyal to their commitment to Jesus.

A good question for our reflection might be this: Are we satisfied with the stewardship we exercise over our baptismal commitment? Are we just “along for the ride?” Are we keeping Christ in front of us as we make decisions about our daily activities, our relationships, our parish, issues in the workplace, issues such as peace and justice? What is the quality of our stewardship?

“For it is in giving that we receive.”

- St. Francis of Assisi

A Mother's Prayer for Her Children

Dear Lord, bless my children in their waking and sleeping, in the food they eat and in their play and study.

Grant them, O Lord, the right use of Your graces and gifts that in all they do, in every pursuit of their lives, they may seek to give you glory and come to share in Your eternal joy.

Direct their steps, O Lord, and lead them along paths that will bring them to you, in peace and love forever.

Amen.

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. John Cathedral,

I wish to express my sincere and heartfelt gratitude for the love, support, and prayers that you, the faithful people of St. John's, have graciously offered me over these past three years. My time here under the guidance and direction of our amazing pastor Fr. Chester has been a true gift. To the Cathedral Staff, Cathedral-Carmel School, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Daughters, Holy Goats Men's group, ACTS group, Friday Morning Bible Study Crew, Monday Night Holy Hour faithful, 9AM Fellowship volunteers, amazing sacristans and choir, and to every single parishioner, I want to thank you. You have allowed my time here to serve as fertile ground for my spiritual and pastoral growth and development. You have allowed me to love you and to grow closer in relationship with our Lord together. You have prayed for me, some of you on a daily basis. For all of this, I am forever indebted. Thank you for pushing me to dive deeper into my own faith and trust in God. I treasure my time well spent. My prayers, support and love will always be with you. May God's grace and mercy follow you along your particular path towards our Heavenly Feast. I pray we never forget that no matter how steep or treacherous our days may seem, God will provide. Continue to show up and be amazed at His love and mercy!

In Christ through Mary and Joseph,
Father Schu
