AUG 22	Queenship of Mary
AUG 23	St. Rose of Lima
AUG 24	St. Bartholomew
AUG 27	St. Monica

DID YOU KNOW?

Catholics celebrate the Queenship of Mary because her Divine Son is King. Pope Pius XII, having declared the dogma of the Assumption, that "the Immaculate Mother of God . . . was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory," then established the feast of her Queenship proclaiming, "We are instituting a feast so that all may recognize more clearly and venerate more devoutly the merciful and maternal sway of the Mother of God." Our Lady, pray for us!

HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

In the Fall of 2021, the U.S. bishops approved a unique three-year eucharistic revival that aimed to foster a deeper devotion and knowledge about the Eucharist. The revival officially began on the feast of Corpus Christi on June 16, 2022, and will culminate with the National Eucharistic Congress 2024 in Indianapolis. Bishop Andrew Cozzens, an auxiliary bishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis and chair of the bishops' evangelization committee, presented the plan to his fellow bishops by using the statement, "We want to start a fire, not a program."

The development of the plan was spurred by a 2019 Pew Research study, the results were shocking and suggested that only about one-third of U.S. Catholics believe the Church's teaching that the Eucharist is truly the body and blood of Christ.

The three-year Eucharistic Revival program includes three tiers: parish, diocesan, and national. In July of 2022, dioceses across the country were encouraged to hold Eucharistic events and make the Eucharist a primary focus. Following that, in July 2023, parishes will be encouraged to do the same. The revival will culminate in the summer of 2024 with a Eucharistic celebration event, held in a major city, that will serve as a pilgrimage site; therefore, keep your calendars open for July 17-21, 2024 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

For more information, visit the National Eucharistic Revival website, www.eucharisticrevival.org, where you can sign-up for the revival newsletter, enlist as a prayer partner, and learn a plethora of information about Jesus Christ, truly present in the Eucharist.
