For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

Luke 19:10

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This is a delightfully touching gospel story about the boundless love that God has for sinners. It shows the forgiveness that He offers, with open arms, to the worst of us. Zacchaeus was the most hated man in the community. People boycotted him and wouldn't bid him the time of day because he was a tax-collector for the Roman forces. Popular estimation had written him off as lost. Yet Jesus made him feel special. He saw beyond the idle curiosity of the little man up the tree, into the pain and turmoil of his heart. He made the first move and called: 'Hurry, come down, I must stay at your house today.' His whole being called out to Zacchaeus and the little man's selfishness crumbled before the gaze of Christ. Zacchaeus desperately wanted to get outside of himself and make a break with the past. He was wealthy but not happy and he saw Jesus as the answer to his troubled conscience. The encounter made him mend his ways and think about his behavior in a new light. He now saw something more worthwhile in life than lining his pockets with money. Close contact with Jesus had awakened in him religious impulses and opened his eyes to his real faults.

The message that Jesus is trying to get across to us is that no one is beyond redemption. There are no limits to the possibility of salvation offered by Jesus. God's grace can turn a life up-side down and change a sinful person. The greater the sinner the more forgiving He is. There is no past, however shameful, that cannot be given a fresh start. Lurking within each one of us there is a sinful Zacchaeus, seeking out the Lord to save us and give us new hope.

The call of Jesus, 'Hurry, because I must stay in your house today,' goes out to everyone in the congregation. We must take full advantage of his passing, by acknowledging our sins and opening our hearts to his goodness. The real focus of the story is on the last line of the gospel: 'The Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.' Before Jesus, all men are sinners like Zacchaeus. The Lord has come to save us, and he meets us at the point of our need, with no strings attached. He is waiting to change our lives as soon as we show a willingness to open the door of our hearts and let his salvation get to work in the very center of our being.

IN APPRECIATION

Thank you to everyone who helped our Youth Ministry and the Knights Of Columbus for National Make a Difference Day. Nearly 40 people volunteered their time and talent to help at 14 homes. And, we'd like to thank all those who donated food to help feed our crew. This Make a Difference Day was a huge success!

Next, as a community, and with help again from the Knights of Columbus, we were able to collect 70+ coats for kids to stay warm this winter. We give a special shout out to Dennis Schmitt and Lindeman's Cleaners for their help in cleaning the coats. Give yourselves a round of applause. You are all truly amazing!

MILITARY SERVICES SECOND COLLECTION

Next week our Circle of Faith churches will take up a collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA. The AMS relies solely on private donors in support of its mission "serving those who serve." Please prayerfully consider a generous contribution to those who defend our rights of freedom.

For our youth, the voice of Christ and message of the Gospel are woven into our Catholic schools and parish faith formation programs. They play an important role in forming missionary disciples to spread the Good News. Catholic education and faith formation programs grow extraordinary, devoted Catholics, who are inspired to attend Mass, receive God's gifts, pursue holy vocations to ordained service and create faithful marriages and households of discipleship.

Through the one by One campaign, we will reignite the catholic character of our schools, strengthen catholic school facilities, ensure access to Catholic Schools for middle income families and much more.
