January: The Month of The Holy Name of Jesus

The month of January is traditionally dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus, with January 3rd being the feast of the Holy Name. Angel Gabriel announces to Mary that she would conceive a son and the Child's name would be called Jesus, which means "God Saves".

Let us all keep the Savior's name holy and only say the name of Jesus or any other of his titles when we are calling on Him. Do not take the Lord's name in vain.

New Melchizedek Project: Sunbury – St. John Neumann

This discernment group for high school and college-aged men will be second Tuesdays of the month beginning with the 6:00 p.m. Mass (starting January 11). Go to <http://www.seekholiness.com/the-melchizedek-project/> for details about this and all of the groups in our diocese.

He is an international speaker and author. Conference fee is $50.00; includes pastry, lunch, and snacks.
