Sacraments

This weekend and last, we welcome Bishop Jarrell for Confirmations of our young adults. We had Confirmation last weekend and this weekend. First Communion Masses will take place the following two weekends. Both of these classes are some 100 in number. The candidates of both classes have been preparing since the beginning of the year for these days. As many of you know, First Communion is my favorite day of the year (Sorry, Confirmation class!). To see the reverence and awe with which the first communicants receive The Holy Eucharist reminds us of the special moment it can be for each of us every day. It certainly renews and refreshes my faith. In addition, our young adults preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation are inspiring in their zeal for the faith and the knowledge of Christ they have exhibited over the course of their preparation. If these young men and women continue to grow in their faith and become the leaders of our Church in the future, then our Church will be in great shape! Please continue to pray for the children, young adults and their families. Of course, we should all renew our appreciation for the gift of The Holy Eucharist and The Holy Spirit that Jesus gave us as a perpetual strengthening of our life in Him.

Bishops Services Appeal

The Bishops Services Appeal (BSA) is off to a good start. Thank you for your generosity. As you probably know, the BSA is the regular offertory for the diocese that helps pay for the benefits provided by the diocese to us and our community, including administrative services to our parish (such as accounting/bookkeeping support, architectural services, etc.), support of seminarians, and service to the poor. For those who have already pledged or would like to make a pledge, you can return your pledge or payment during the offertory via envelopes (in the Gathering Area), www.diolaf.org/bsa, or by texting the word DIOCESE to 41444. Please make checks payable to the Bishop's Services Appeal. Thank you for your continued generosity!

Mission Club Supports Those in Need

As the steward of the funds you give through the Mission Club to help those in need, I want to first thank you for your generosity, but also in a spirit of transparency, report to you how the funds are used. I hope that by being transparent and accountable to the gifts you contribute, that all may be encouraged to continue their generosity or perhaps contribute for your first time. Mission Club funds are used to help those who come to the church seeking immediate assistance with food, shelter, clothing or another essential need. We are able to help those who come to us and are truly in need (usually on a one-time basis). Besides emergency assistance to individuals, the Mission Club also prepares the Christmas Baskets, coordinates the Giving Tree, and provides funding for disaster relief and for local organizations like Catholic Charities of Acadiana, Faith House, and Meals on Wheels.

In addition to our assistance to individuals within the parish's geographical boundaries, donating to these organizations helps to cast a wider net since those in need of financial assistance outside of the parish's geographical area are referred to other agencies. We generally make sure no one leaves our church premises truly hungry, or in need of clothing or temporary shelter. Unfortunately, it is sometimes difficult to determine who is truly in need because some try to game the system. St. Pius X doesn't provide cash to individuals, rather the parish provides the tangible goods needed or pays providers directly. Potential beneficiaries are also vetted for true need. No need is overlooked, but neither are the requirements to receive assistance due to your generosity. Thanks again for your help to those in need!

Sunday Reflections

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Easter season provides us an opportunity to reflect upon who we are as Church, in light of the first experiences of Jesus' followers. From today's Gospel, we realize that all we do is founded on our friendship with and trust in Jesus, as witnessed in Jesus' dialogue with Peter. From Revelation, in the image of Jesus as the sacrificial Lamb, we can anticipate suffering for the sake of love for God and for others. From the apostles' bold speech in Acts, we remember that when we stay true to the Gospel, even at great cost, we must always embody God's forgiveness toward those who resist God's invitation. The early Church struggled to understand how to live the way of Jesus, and we can expect no less struggle for ourselves. And like them, we may also know the joy of growing friendship with God along the way.

OBEYING GOD

In the first chapters of Acts, the apostles venture out energetically, soon after Pentecost, to proclaim the risen Jesus. Today's reading shows the Sanhedrin, the formal religious body that had condemned Jesus shortly before, now threatening the apostles. The Sanhedrin likely feared that Jesus' followers would, in vengeance for the Crucifixion, stir up a riot or even a violent revolt. The apostles, consistent with Jesus' own dealings with the authorities, proclaim Jesus' message of God's forgiveness of everyone, and refuse to incite violence. It is a great challenge, as Peter said, to "obey God rather than man." Throughout history, when groups of God's people, inspired by God's dream for a just and free world, have spoken out nonviolently against injustice and oppression, they have sought to obey God's summons. We the Church, while always mindful of the dangers of self-deception, are similarly called to discern and obey God in our own time and place.

REPEATED QUESTIONS

In today's Gospel, John sets the scene for Jesus' encounter with Peter, sitting by a "charcoal fire." There is just one other mention of a charcoal fire in John's Gospel: when Peter warms himself while awaiting Jesus' trial, and Peter goes on to deny knowing Jesus, three times. The evangelist directly links Jesus' three questions of Peter, "do you love me?", to Peter's three denials. Through his repeated questioning, Jesus helps Peter to face his actions fully, and to accept forgiveness fully as well. When God invites us into prayer, we may be invited to enter into deep conversation with God about our lives. God can pose the same questions to us, again and again over time, to face what we might prefer to avoid: Can you forgive someone who has hurt you? Can you be more generous? Can you let go of obstacles to becoming more loving? And even: Do you love me? Jesus' encounter with Peter suggests that we can face such questions with deep trust in God.

GOD'S OVERFLOWING KINDNESS

The superabundance of God's kindness ties all of today's readings together. Especially when life overwhelms us, the Lord provides all we need, and then some. In the Acts of the Apostles, Peter takes the lead when facing the Sanhedrin. We might expect the man who denied Jesus to crumble under the imposing glare of the high priest. Instead, the Holy Spirit helps him testify to his faith in Jesus Christ. What Peter had lacked before, courage and conviction, God provides in abundance. Similarly, today's Gospel shows Jesus providing a surplus of fish for the disciples. They have no luck fishing until the Lord intercedes. Jesus supplies an almost ridiculous number of fish, and he cooks it for them, too. As our reading from Revelation affirms, the overflowing riches of God require constant praise. Countless creatures—"everything in the universe"—cry out to honor the Lord, forever and ever.

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket
on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes
drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
WHY IS IT?
