5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. - Mk 1:32-34

5<sup>º</sup> DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Al atardecer, cuando el sol se ponía, le llevaron a todos los enfermos y poseídos del demonio, y todo el pueblo se apiñó junto a la puerta. Curó a muchos enfermos de diversos males y expulsó a muchos demonios, pero no dejó que los demonios hablaran, porque sabían quién era él. - Mc 1, 32-34

Dear Beloved Parishioners;

We are in the month of February, the month of love. I would like to express my affection to each and every one of you. I want to share my personal website where you can visit www.dotheart-frarlon.org and read my written weekly homilies. Please enjoy reading "The Dictate of the Heart." I write for the Novus Ordo homily, Spanish and Extraordinary Form (Traditional Latin Mass).

Today is the 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B. We are invited to reflect on the readings today, which guide everyone to understand our life's situation, and no matter what situation we are in, we just acknowledge the power of God. We are healed by God in so many ways which according to psalm 147 states, "The Lord heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds." Therefore, after we are healed, there is a task we need to do, and that is our willingness to collaborate for the advancement of God's kingdom.

The first reading, taken from the book of Job, is a story of a man with much suffering in his life. He had a hard time more so than anybody else. The devil claimed that when Job was confronted by human sufferings and discomfort, he would give up his faith, become pessimistic, and think life is unfair. These are the most natural responses to human sufferings. However, in the case of Job, the devil says that he is a man of faith because he stayed faithful to God, even to the point that he lost everything except the value and meaning of his personal life and that of all humankind.

In the second reading from the 1st Corinthians, St. Paul attests to the fact that what gives meaning to his life is the mission given to him to preach the gospel. Preaching the good news and sharing it with others intensifies our freedom from condemnation through Jesus Christ. St. Paul had done the unusual interior work of hearing, believing and preaching what he had heard about Jesus.

The gospel, taken from St. Mark, continues to present the healing miracles of Jesus as He works hard to establish the Kingdom through preaching, healing, expelling demons, and good deeds. He liberates men from all sorts of diseases that impede them from doing their usual tasks. Let us recall the actions of Jesus in this gospel pericope.

First, Jesus went to Simon Peter's house with Andrew, James, and John after a long day's ministry. Probably, Jesus wanted to pay a visit and to have private time with the family of Peter. However, Simon's mother-in-law was lying in bed because of a fever. Jesus told her to rise, and He grasped her hands. The gesture of the Lord seizing her hands speaks of His resurrection, giving her back something good for her well-being.

Second, after sunset, many people brought to Him many who were ill with various diseases or were possessed by demons. They were cured both physically and spiritually and were made well. He spends most of the day healing the sick, and they keep coming and coming while Jesus keeps on serving the people. However, Jesus felt the need to rest in prayer.

Third, the next morning, before anyone else was up, he went to a deserted place to communion with the Father. Simon and other disciples were looking for Him. Upon finding Him, they said, "Everyone is looking for you." Jesus responded, "Let us go to the nearby villages that I may preach there also." This is the urgency of Jesus' mission to evangelize and to minister to other people as well. Jesus could have hidden and disappeared from those people who are waiting for Him, and yet He simply wants to serve and respond to ease the misery of the people for He is merciful.

Today we are all reminded that when Jesus extends His healing hands upon us, we must not stay in bed. We are called to do something for the Lord and His Church to serve Him in gratitude. Just as Job and the mother-in-law of Peter and Paul had received from God another chance of knowing the meaning of their lives and the "purpose of their beings," they never lost HOPE. They became remarkable people and, in the end, they remained humble servants of God.

I would like to say that in no inch of a doubt, God works through you and me. Let us faithfully follow Jesus' style of service, commitment, and prayer so that we may resist our tendency of seeking self-satisfying arrogance and conceit. We pray that the graciousness of our inspiring life, and the growth given and sustained by God through the words we have heard and the Sacraments we have received, will form us to be an integral part of Christ's Body.

God bless you.

Fr. Arlon, osa

ASH WEDNESDAY COLLECTION

Dear Brothers and Sisters
in Christ,

Our diocese takes up the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe on Ash Wednesday. This Collection supports essential unmet pastoral needs in Central and Eastern Europe and areas of Central Asia formerly under Soviet control. Our assistance is vital to the growth and strength of the Church in these regions. Throughout his pontificate, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, has often spoken of the need for Christians to evangelize others through accompaniment. Through listening patiently, building trust, and being mindful of others' dignity, we can help one another encounter Christ's merciful love, especially those who suffer from emotional wounds, loneliness, and doubt.

For many in the Church in Central and, especially, Eastern Europe, the aftermath of 70 years of Soviet rule and state-sponsored atheism are still evident every day in the form of poverty and lack of access to pastoral care and buildings in which the faithful can worship and cultivate their faith. Your donations help strengthen the Church of this region through grants to Catholic organizations that help deliver pastoral care, form leaders, and build places where they can worship in the light of Christ.

Please be generous in the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, where your gifts are restoring the Church and building the future. Thank you and God bless you.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel H. Mueggenborg
Bishop of Reno

THE RCIA MINISTRY

The St. Teresa of Avila RCIA Ministry would like to thank our parishioners for their very generous donations to our ministry as our catechumens and candidates continue their faith journey. Two weeks ago, we asked for help for our candidates, catechumens, and sponsors to attend a retreat at Camp Galilee as well as help with the cost of supplies used throughout this process and our parish family overwhelmingly answered our prayers. We are so blessed to have such a supportive community! Last weekend 42 candidates, catechumens and sponsors and team members joined together in prayer, listening, and sharing to deepen their relationship with Jesus as they attended a retreat. Again, we would like to thank you for your generous donations and prayers. We continue to ask for you to keep them in your prayers as they move closer to being fully initiated into the Catholic Church this Easter Vigil.

We need a Volunteer in the parish front office. If you're interested or need more information, please contact Alicia (Office Manager) at 775-882-1968 ex 104.

THANK YOU for supporting our $5000 monthly goal for parishioner donations this fiscal year so far. The third year of our HUGS for Homeless winter clothing drive is wrapping up with nearly $6000 of donations from local businesses and non-parishioners. The St. Vincent de Paul Society provides new winter coats, gloves, hats and socks to our local homeless citizens through the HUGS for Homeless project, which is primarily funded through annual CSA rebates from the Reno Diocese and St. Teresa of Avila Parish. Due to the outstanding generosity of our parishioners, (with both financial support and volunteer hours) our first time running the Christmas Giving Tree Program was a huge success.

GOD's BLESSINGS to all of you that support the St. Vincent de Paul Society each and every month.
