

The VINE & BRANCHES

DIVINE MERCY
APRIL 16, 2023

Marcings

FR. MARC GAWROŃSKI

When the early church first celebrated the resurrection at Easter, it did so without a Lent preceding it, or a season of Easter Sundays following. These times and seasons have developed over centuries to meet a very real human need: to allow the meaning of this greatest of feasts to 'unfold' or grow in our hearts so that they might truly have an impact in our lives.

So during these weeks, from time from Easter to Pentecost, our Easter Alleluia continues to grow stronger as it resonates in our hearts and we recognize the presence of the Risen Lord in the world around us, and we begin to see especially how death and resurrection of Jesus are completed by his ascension to heaven and the sending of the Holy Spirit to be the spirit, the life and the guide of the church on earth. Through Spirit, Jesus is present in his church today. That Spirit is not a disembodied ghost! The Spirit lives and breathes in us: God’s church.

For our neophytes, the new baptized, this post-Easter season is especially important. The newly baptized are now sharing in the eucharist. The tradition of mystagogy gives special emphasis to preaching the “mysteries” of the sacraments. The biblical readings of Year A which we hear this year (There are three Sunday cycles in the Lectionary: A, B & C) have been chosen especially for this purpose. “Mystagogical preaching” may be an unfamiliar notion, but it is my conviction that it can bring a new vitality to our worship and our life. Simply stated, the aim of preaching on the sacramental mysteries is “preaching that proclaims that these great truths are made visible and tangible to us in the sacraments.” We preach and believe that the sights, sounds, tastes, smells and touches of the Easter Season which we celebrate in the paschal candle, our Alleluia, with incense and bread and wine and joyful hearts and faces come together to provide us a very real encounter with the Risen Lord. Be like a sponge and allow these masses of the Easter Season to continue to fill you with joy thought the sensible signs that we use to praise God and bring joy to our hearts and salvation to our lives! Bring these signs home! You are encouraged to draw water from the Baptismal font and take it home. Sing Alleluia as part of your family meal prayer, and bless each other by signing each other on the sign of the cross with the baptismal water. When we bring home the words, songs, and gestures we share on Sunday, we return the following Sunday even more prepared to receive the grace God wants to share with us in the liturgy. Happy Easter. May Christ’s Easter joy continue to fill your heart and enlighten your mind with his merciful love.

Go Make of All Disciples

From the Director of Discipleship Formation

What are you afraid of?

We all have different fears. Fears of being accepted, fears of the future, fears of being alone. The list goes on. Oftentimes, fear comes with the idea that fear equals weakness. One of the gifts of the Holy Spirit is "Fear of the Lord." This gift given to us at Confirmation is to instill in us the virtue of hope that inspires us with a profound respect for the majesty of God. This fear is based on the selfless love of God, which can be realized also in the selfless love of God sending his Son into the world not to condemn the world but to save the world.

This selfless love of God is what brought Jesus through His passion, death, and resurrection. As we celebrate the Octave Day of Easter today, we hear of the fear of the disciples as they were locked in the upper room. Their fear was squashed quickly upon Jesus' words, "Peace be with you... Receive the Holy Spirit." If you are ever fearful about anything, I invite you to listen to the words of Jesus, receive His peace, and receive the Holy Spirit, who will guide you as you navigate through any fear you may have. Through Jesus' resurrection and appearance to us here and now through one another and through the Word and the Eucharist, we are invited to "come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name" (John 20:31).

God bless,

MOTHER TERESA/ BLESSED Fr. MCGIVNEY AWARD

The Mother Teresa Scholarship was created by the Sacred Heart parish community in 1997 to commemorate the life and work of Mother Teresa. We have combined the award with the Knights of Columbus, Blessed Fr. McGivney, whose life, legacy and zest was for proclaiming the Gospel and concerns for his brothers and sisters. These awards recognize the high school senior, male or female, in the parish who most aspires to the values and mission of Mother Teresa and Blessed Fr. McGivney. Recipients receive a one-time grant. The recipients will be announced at the 5:00 p.m. Mass at Sacred Heart on May 21st, 2023.

Applications are sent to all Sacred Heart Parish high school seniors by mail, and the applications are also on the Sacred Heart website or you can call the office to pick one up. This year we have $3000.00 to award, we will be interviewing all applicants on Sunday May 14th after the 11:00 a.m. Mass in Room A at the parish office.

Second Sunday of Easter: Divine Mercy Sunday

The Message Is Mercy

Sr. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who lived in Krakow, Poland, reported having visions of Jesus and conversations with him, which she wrote about in her diary, later published as the book The Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, Divine Mercy in My Soul. Sr. Faustina's diary records fourteen occasions when Jesus requested that a Feast of Mercy be observed, for example:

My daughter, tell the whole world about my inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of my tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the font of my mercy. The soul that would go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment...Let no soul fear to draw near to me...It is my desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the font of my mercy. (Diary, no.699)

On May 5, 2000, five days after the canonization of St. Faustina by Pope John Paul II, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday. The Paschal Mystery of the suffering, death, and resurrection reveals God's love. This particular Sunday is meant to be one of "thanksgiving for the goodness of God shown to people in the whole Easter mystery." (Pope John Paul II)

Plenary Indulgence for Divine Mercy Sunday

In a degree dated August 3, 2002, the Apostolic Penitentiary announced that in order "to insure that the faithful would observe this day (Divine Mercy Sunday) with intense devotion, the Supreme Pontiff himself established that this Sunday be enriched by a plenary indulgence...so that the people might receive a great abundance of the gift of consolation of the Holy Spirit."

The soul that goes to Sacramental Confession (which may take place some days before) and receives Holy Eucharistic Communion, reciting a prayer the Holy Father, adding a devote prayer like Merciful Jesus, I trust in you, on that day shall obtain the total forgiveness of all sins and punishment (like a second baptism). (The full text of the decree may be found at: www.mercysunday.com)

The readings and prayers for Mass on this day reflect perfectly on Our Lord's Divine Mercy. The Gospel of the Second Sunday of Easter narrates the wonderful things that the Lord accomplished on the Day of resurrection, during his first public appearance. Jesus said to them, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." (John 20:19-23)

St. Joseph School

The 3rd grade class had a blast during March is Reading Month! The students did a variety of events including reading with flashlights, reading as superheroes, and dressing up as their favorite book characters.

In science, the 3rd graders are learning about weather and climate. Students are comparing and contrasting weather and climate and learning the many factors that can impact the weather. The children were able to put their skills to the test by becoming meteorologists and creating their own 5-day weather forecast.

We are also working on many projects for Easter and Holy Week including creating our own positive affirmations with Easter eggs. The children picked six of their best qualities and filled their easter baskets with eggs describing their best traits that make them uniquely special.

The children are learning so much and growing together in their faith.
