

The VINE & BRANCHES

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER
APRIL 23, 2023

Marcings

FR. MARC GAWRONSKI

The story of today's gospel is one of the most heartwarming in Luke's gospel. It causes our hearts to burn with us as well. It's easy for us to identify with the apostles on the road to Emmaus. On our journey in life, we end up confused, disheartened and lost, but we also find the Risen Jesus walking with us through the Scriptures and in the Breaking of the Bread at Mass. Luke leaves us this Eucharistic story with obvious clues that our Eucharistic celebration is exactly what he has in mind: The encounter occurs on the sabbath; which is the day of the resurrection. It is an encounter between disciples, who already know him and have followed the Lord.

In recounting the topic of their discussion, the disciples recount what we call the kerygma, which is the initial and recurring proclamation of God's saving action on our behalf through Jesus. This is deepened through our reflection on the Word of God each Sunday, as Jesus explains the Scriptures to us, and through the breaking of the bread, which feeds us and sends us on the journey once more, where inevitably we will eventually meet with an even greater need for understanding the Lord's healing presence in our lives. The journey to Emmaus is our journey. It is a journey with stops and starts and twists and turns, but always accompanied by the Lord. Like the disciples, we don't always recognize his presence with us, but his is there, and when he is, and we recognize him in the sharing of scripture and the breaking of the bread, our hearts burn within us.

It is my privilege to be a sharer in this journey with you. One of the most meaningful details for me is that, even in their confusion and doubt, the disciples don't separate. They journey to Emmaus together. We need each other on this journey with the Lord. Thanks for walking together, and for inviting others to join us on the way.

Go Make of All Disciples

From the Director of Discipleship Formation

So Lent is gone, what about Easter?

We celebrate Lent for 40 days, but Easter for 50! We give up, we pray, fast and give alms in Lent. We attempt to reform our lives, maybe do a little more spiritually to help us grow closer to God as a disciple of Christ. Now, we're in the Easter Season which is celebrated for 50 days, concluding with the Solemnity of Pentecost. As we were invited to do something different in Lent, I also encourage you to consider a few ways of growing as a disciple of Christ in this Easter Season. There is a movement in the Archdiocese of Detroit called the "Unleash the Gospel" movement, where we are encouraged to encounter Jesus anew, grow daily as His disciple, and witness to God's love and mercy to the world.

More information can be found about this movement at www.unleashthegospel.org. On this site is some great information about how to "Live as an Easter People." Here are just a few ideas from this site:

Practice Gratitude

It is so easy to succumb to focusing on the frustrations of life. Jesus tells us, though, that he has come to bring good news, to offer us salvation, and to give us life in abundance. We are reminded in St. Paul's letter to the Colossians that whatever we do, we ought to do it in the name of Christ giving thanks to God the Father. This Easter, practice making gratitude a central part of your family life. Incorporate it into your dinner table conversations. Include it as part of your night prayer. Encourage everyone to begin their day with a prayer of thanksgiving. It can seem overly simple, but in these small acts, we can begin to create an innate posture of gratitude that helps us acknowledge even the smallest gifts of God in our lives and recognize him at work in the lives of others. Create a "blessings jar" in your home. Each evening, invite everyone to add a slip of paper that shares one thing they are thankful for that day. At the end of each month, go back and read through what has been shared to see how God has been present in the life of your family.

Walk in Prayer

It is spring in Michigan, and the weather is finally (hopefully) getting nicer! One way our family intentionally prays for our community is by taking prayer walks through our neighborhood. Praying for our neighbors doesn't have to be scary! Take a walk around the block as a family and pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. As you walk, you could also pray a rosary for the intercession of the Blessed Mother in leading people to Jesus or pray a Divine Mercy chaplet for God's mercy to fill the hearts of your neighbors. Get to know your neighbors if you don't already. Learn their names, and intercede in prayer for them by name. As your relationship grows, be bold — ask them if there are things you can pray for specifically.

Spread Joy

Archbishop Vigneron reminds us in his pastoral letter, Unleash the Gospel, that we are called to be joyful missionary disciples. The importance of joy cannot be understated. Nobody likes a Debbie Downer for long. In fact, St. Teresa of Calcutta wisely taught us that joy is a net of love by which we can capture souls. The joy and imagination of our children can certainly move hearts! Have the children assemble small care packages with an encouraging note, artwork and something fun like bubbles, a mini-puzzle or coloring book/crayons and see if you can drop them off at a local hospital, nursing home or care facility where residents might feel isolated.

Read through the Acts of the Apostles as a Family

During the Easter season, the first reading at Mass is proclaimed from the Acts of the Apostles instead of the Old Testament. We do this to both ground ourselves in the celebration of Christ's resurrection at Easter and to focus on moving forward from the resurrection event to our lives as disciples today. Consider reflecting on the daily Mass readings from the Acts of the Apostles as part of your Easter family prayer. Maybe choose a memory verse for the week from Acts and display that prominently in your homes for everyone to learn.

God bless,
Sean Calvin
