

The VINE & BRANCHES

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 3, 2023

How can we understand Jesus's command to take up our cross in a culture that goes to great lengths to avoid and deny the suffering that is a part of every human life? The word 'suffer' comes from two Latin words, 'sub' (under) and 'ferre' (to bear). There's a sense of supporting something from underneath. It is an active, vigorous word. It lets you imagine some human being who has taken up his or her burden of pain and is bravely carrying it along. When I imagine this, this image has many faces and names as I recall the people who I have witnessed bravely undertake suffering with great faith and perseverance.

If it were only about words, how easy it would be! But it is about us. We have two ways of living with suffering: we can take it on our shoulders and try to walk with it; or we can just sit down under it and feel like victims. No one pretends that either way is easy. If it were easy, it wouldn't be suffering.

Our instinct is to run away from suffering, and when we can't escape from it, to treat it as an enemy that has defeated us. Then we are in danger of giving way to complaining and self-pity. This is the harder way in the end; harder for us and for everyone around us. The wisdom of the Gospel tells us to face our suffering; not to treat it like an enemy but like a friend, to learn from it, to let it draw us away from self-centered thoughts and feelings, and ultimately to see it as a sharing in the Passion of Christ.

There's a striking phrase in John's gospel, "You will have sorrow, but your sorrow will turn into joy" (16:20). He did not say "Your sorrow will be replaced by joy." Your joy will somehow be born out of the heart of your sorrow. Then it will be able to endure. It will not see sorrow as a threat and an enemy. It will not be at the mercy of sorrowful circumstances. Sorrow itself will give birth to a strange deep kind of joy.

Finally, as Christians we never suffer alone. Please resist the temptation to hide an illness or a worrying diagnosis, or a problem you're struggling with. The Devil conquers by dividing us and isolating us from each other. Christ triumphs and... Continued on p. 2

If you know anyone who is homebound, or in need of the anointing of the sick please let me know. Because the anointing strengthens us, it is important not to wait until death to ask for the anointing of the sick. Perhaps you can bear the healing presence of Christ in the Eucharist to someone who is homebound, or in a nursing home! I have always found these among the most spiritually rewarding moments in my day. If you'd like to help you can contact me at fathermarc@me.com.

May the healing power of the cross and its mercy be ours always. ~ Father Marc

We have what the world needs - Hope!

"Always be prepared to give an answer for the hope that people see in you." 1 Pt. 3:15.

We are the richest country in the world, yet we lead the world in anxiety levels, with depression as the leading cause of morbidity in the US. What people need is HOPE! We have the answer, Good News that brings Hope and Peace but how do we share it?

We are forming a team to lead the efforts to execute an evangelization vision and strategy for our Family of Parishes, FOP. To look more and more like our name - Downriver Missionaries for Christ.

While there has been much talk and ink spilled about becoming more missionary and evangelizing - it is time for action. There were some very positive initiatives starting at several of our parishes and then "COVID". Since then, we have also become a Family of Parishes, FOP and our new vision and strategy has taken on a much broader approach.

To that end I am looking to form a team of about 12 - 15 people from across our different parishes to help lead the implementation of the vision which has been crafted and approved by our pastors and the leadership team they appointed. I'm very excited to have their final blessing on what I believe the Holy Spirit has guided us to.

We are not looking for theologians or catechists. We simply need people with the following qualifications:

Desire to share what God is doing in and through you.

Love other people as displayed by an attitude of hospitality.

Willingness to let God use you as a channel of grace and healing.

It will not be the sole responsibility of the evangelization leadership team to execute and implement but to lead that effort.

September 14, 15 and 16th 2023

Back in the day, people who cleaned and scrubbed hard where termed “Elbow greasers” because when they finished everything” shined”. Sacred Heart is in dire need of “elbow greasers” to do much cleaning at Sacred Heart.

We will be putting out a “sign up genius” for cleaning the church, school rooms, both kitchens, statue of Mary outside, bathrooms and tree trimming (Knights to do this.) Every job will have an area for you to sign up and the jobs will be divided into one to one and half hour slots.

We will start at 8:30 a.m. for a continental breakfast and work till noon and have a lunch of hot dogs provided by the Knights.

Please watch for the” sign up genius” and give us and hour of your time!

Thank you, Christian Service

When possible, please look for a healthier version of canned items as in "no added or less" salt and/or sugar and lower fat content. These options are better for all of us! We are running low on boxed mashed potatoes, cake mix, frosting, Kleenex, and canned Salmon. Thank you again for your generosity!

Church Directory Photos!!

Each family that signs up to have their photo taken will receive a free complimentary 8x10 photo AND a free directory! This is a no pressure session, but you can choose to buy portraits. This is a great way to make yourself familiar with other families in our parish community and also to celebrate our 175th anniversary in 2024! The more people we can get to sign up, the more of a fancier directory we can get with our credits. Our goal is to get at least 200 of our families to take photos. Our last directory in 2018 was a big success and we hope to make this even bigger!

If you would like to schedule online, please go to ucdir.com and our username is mi1735 and use password photos.

If you can't make the session, you can submit your own photo. It will be $25 if we get our hard cover photo book. It will be less if we get a soft cover.*

We are looking for volunteers to help with the week of the photo appointments. We will need a couple people each day to help. Please contact Jaime at jcalvin@stjosephstrenton.com for more information.
