

The VINE & BRANCHES

23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 10, 2023

Marcings...

In today's Gospel, Matthew deals with the relationship of members of the Church and highlights one of the most painful of responsibilities, namely fraternal correction. Jesus reminds us that if there is any breakdown in our relationship, we should not wait, but be the first to put things right. To speak about it in private, in order to build the relationship again. The important thing is to do it with love: delicately, tactfully and with love so that the other is not made to feel small in the eyes of the community.

Continued... Two aspects of Jesus's teaching here are striking: He has standards, and He uses a wise progression. The first is to go to the offender and speak directly to the person rather than to anyone else. There is no place for gossip, slander, or school yard insults in the Christian community, in person, or on social media.

The Gospel also tells us that only if you cannot solve the problem in private do we call others, that we might be objective and have a third-party opinion on the matter. We should do everything in our power to reach out and help the other to be aware of the possible cause of misunderstanding, error or pain before we break off relationships with others. Sometimes, even if I am right, do I have to prove the other is wrong?

A man approached St. Francis of Assisi and asked him, "Brother Francis, I am in a quandary. In the Bible it says we should rebuke sinners, but I see people sinning all the time. I don't feel like I should go around rebuking everybody." St. Francis then said, "What you must do is to live in such a way that your life rebukes the sinner. How you act will call others to repentance."

May our love be exercised with humility and compassion.

Go Make of All Disciples

Kick Off for Faith Formation

Please keep our families in prayer, those who have children in our faith formation programs. Our official kick off is a Mass at St. Roch on Monday, September 11 at 6 pm. Please feel welcome to join us, as we begin our catechetical year with an encounter with Jesus in the Mass!

If you or someone you know has not registered for faith formation, it is not too late. Please go to www.downrivermissionariesforchrist.com/faith-formation.

How do disciples treat disciples?

The Gospel of Matthew (18:15-20) today is known as Jesus' "community discourse." When it comes to being a disciple of Jesus, or one who follows Jesus and learns from His example, Jesus teaches us how to treat each other. When people look at us, they should think, "There's something different about him/her. I want to be more like him/her." The way we act as disciples of Jesus should show our patience and understanding toward one another. All in all, this weekend's Scripture readings are about relationship. Our relationships with one another and with Christ requires a peace that can only come through a desire to love, share and welcome others into our lives.

God bless,
Sean Calvin

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN FOR THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS (THAT MAN IS YOU!)

The Knights of Columbus is an international Order of Catholic men who are called to lead with faith, protect our families, serve others, and defend values in a busy changing world. You will find that Knights of Columbus membership brings Catholic men together in a powerful way. As you know, your Knights here at St Cyprian's has been holding a membership drive during the months of July, August, and culminating this month on the weekend of September 23rd and 24th at mass. At both masses, there will be Knights to help answer questions and share with you our personal stories of why we are knights. As if this was not enough, your council has announced that all men that sign up to join our council during the months of July, August, and September will receive an official baseball cap and shirt, along with free 1st year membership!

As Catholic men, we are called to do more and be more. Let us put our faith in action together as Brother Knights! I would love to speak with you about joining. Please give me a call or one of the officers listed below.

Grandparents Day Prayer

*Virgin Mary,
Mother of faith and hope,
an example for this humanity bent
by indifference,
make me as willing as You
to accept the will of God,
to magnify and praise His Mercy.
Mary, Mother of fortitude,
you who knows my heart,
do not allow me to become discouraged.
I confidently surrender my life into
your hands.
Heal my wounds.
May your tenderness accompany me
on the way.
Your presence, Mother of love,
brings us to experience the joy*

*of seeing our families united.
Help me to transmit the tenderness
and Love of God
to the grandchildren and youth
so that, in addition to praying for them, we can pray with them.
Mary, may the gift of the Holy Spirit
intercede for me:
sustain my weakness;
breathe into my heart the
consolation
that I may leave traces of faith
among the young,
bearing witness to the beauty of life,
knowing that life has a limit
and that beyond it lies before us our Father's embrace.
Amen.*
