

The VINE & BRANCHES

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 22, 2023

"Show Me the Money!"

Is Jesus' request of the religious authorities who confront him about paying taxes, which is really a question about his allegiance to the Roman Emperor. The coinage in question here bore the image of the Roman Emperor, who was called a god. As a graven image of a false god, it was a violation of the second commandment. There were money changers in the Temple precincts because offensive Roman coins had to be exchanged for Temple shekels that would be used to purchase lambs for sacrifice and to make the offering that was mandatory for Jewish males each year. Jesus' response is a very sharp reminder that there is a huge gap between the dominion of Caesar and the dominion of heaven, and no one can serve two masters. One god instigates the suffering and death of Jesus, while the true God achieves the real victory - new life, resurrection. ...Continued on p. 2

Continued... What conflicts with civil authorities do Christians face now? How? Why? What modern structures now occupy the place of Caesar and his empire? Have politics changed much? What do you think of people who refuse to pay taxes because their ethical standards conflict with civil authority? Do people sometimes align themselves with politicians purely for their own self-interest?

Many people misunderstand Jesus' teaching about Caesar and God. They think that it means that religion and politics or religion and economics "don't mix." The Second Vatican Council taught that such thinking "deserves to be counted among the most serious errors of our age." Gaudium et Spes, #43. How we make and spend money and how we act (or refuse to act) politically expresses much about where our allegiance lies. The divisions evident, even today, in our legislative bodies may invite us to question whether our responsibility is to hold on to power, in any way shape or form, or to work together for the common good.

Please plan on joining us for All Souls Day on November 2 at 7:00 pm at St. Timothy Parish, Trenton. It is always a beautiful and comforting celebration of our faith in eternal life.

Fr. Marc

Go Make of All Disciples

How does the Church pray for the dead?

This corporal work of mercy to bury the dead is something that seems to have been lost in recent years by some. Part of burying the dead is offering our prayer for them as well as us in the Rites that accompany funerals. This thought leads us into the month of November, traditionally a month where the Church prays for the faithful departed. The month begins with All Saints Day, which invites us to call upon the saints to intercede for us and inspire us by their example to live a life of faithful discipleship. The very next day (All Souls Day), invites us to pray for our loved ones who have died, but also for all those in the world who have died. Our prayer can be realized in many ways:

Ensuring a Catholic funeral for our loved ones take place

Offering Mass intentions, which also continues to pray for their purification in preparation to see God

Visiting cemeteries

Being involved in any funeral/bereavement ministry our parishes engage in

I count it a blessing to be present to people who have just lost a loved one. In their need, we as Church can be a loving and caring presence to them. I invite you, as we come toward this month of November, to consider how you will participate in All Souls Masses in our Family of Parishes, and how you can offer your gifts, your time and ministry, to those who are grieving loved ones.

God bless, Sean Calvin

Ladies Guild

The next meeting of the Ladies Guild will be Tuesday, November 7, 6 pm in the Social Hall. At this meeting we will be collecting items for our Veterans. Some of the items they are desperately in need of are white socks, emery boards, hairbrushes & combs, deodorant, toothbrushes & toothpaste, lap robes, wheelchair bags, AA batteries, new playing cards, word search books, crossword puzzle books, note pads & writing tablets, pocket size calendars, etc.

Surely everyone knows or has someone in their family who is a veteran and can certainly use some of these items. There are no Dollar Stores where they are located!! I even have a young grandson in the Navy who is soon to be deployed overseas.

Won't you help by bringing these items to our meeting or dropping them off at the Office marked "LADIES GUILD." The Ladies Guild will take care of getting them to our many veterans in the armed services.

Thank you all for your generosity, as always. Beverly Nicholson

Offertory Campaign Starting Soon!

St. Cyprian Parish will be starting an Offertory Enhancement Campaign in November to strengthen our weekly collections.

This important campaign is being conducted to increase our Offertory contributions that we rely on to pay for the day-to-day expenses of operating the parish – which includes religious programming, staffing, utilities, supplies, and general maintenance and repairs. Parishioners will also have the opportunity to volunteer their time and talents to some of our most vital parish ministries.

Please respond generously when you receive Father Marc's letter this November. Thank you for your generous and faithful support of St. Cyprian Parish!

8th Annual SOCKTOBERFEST

Sponsored by the Riverview Knights of Columbus Council #13980

During the month of October at all the weekend Masses, you can make a generous donation of new socks and shoes that will warm the Soles and Souls of men, women, and children within homeless shelters and the Downriver area. Donations will be collected in the gathering space of St. Cyprian Catholic Church. For sanitary reasons please donate new items only.

Socks will be donated to St. Vincent de Paul, local charities, veteran organizations, and homeless shelters. Shoes will be donated to St. Joseph Catholic Church, to support their St. Nicholas Day Shoe Drive and will also be distributed to individuals in the Downriver Vicariate.

Thanks to the generosity and kindness of St. Cyprian parishioners over the past seven years, over 13,400 pairs of socks and shoes were distributed to people and made a big difference to them especially during the winter months! We thank you in advance for your generosity and support this year.

St. Joseph 5th Graders

Wow, we can't believe the end of Quarter 1 is here! In writing, we are learning to add figurative language, sensory details, author's viewpoint, and imagery to our writing to communicate, or express, the personal feelings or thoughts of the writer. In social studies, we are creating an Early Explorers Book highlighting some of the first Spanish and French explorers to come to the Americas. In science, the students are learning about food webs. The students made a live model of a food web and identified where organisms get their energy from.

Blessings, Mrs. Searls

Catholic Funeral and Cemetery Services

On Saturday, November 4th and Sunday, November 5th, representatives from the Catholic Funeral & Cemetery Services (CFCS) will be here at St. Joseph to discuss the spiritual and practical reasons for learning about Catholic Funeral & Cemetery Services.

Informational presentations will be held in the dining room immediately following the 4:30 PM Mass on Saturday and following the 8:30 and 10:30 AM Masses on Sunday. The sessions will include a short presentation with question-and-answer opportunities.

Volunteer as a Catechist

Is God calling you to share our faith with families of young children in our community? Help is needed especially for weekly Monday faith formation on Mondays at 6:15pm at St. Joseph!

This is such a rewarding ministry to help our children and their families learn about Jesus and our church. All the materials and training are provided! Email Sarah Hogan at shogan@stjosephstrenton.com to volunteer!
