

The VINE & BRANCHES

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
NOVEMBER 19, 2023

In today's Gospel, a well-off man calls his servants and gives them sums of money in trust and goes away. Later he returns and calls them to account. Two of them had largely increased their capital and were commended. A third confessed that he had been afraid to risk his master's money, and had carefully hoarded it; he now restores the precise sum he had received. It is implied that he expected to be commended for his caution and strict honesty. Instead, he gets a strong rebuke and no reward.

There is a sense of warning here. The more we hear the Gospel, the more we know, the more responsible we are. The more we hear the Gospel, as people of faith, we know what Jesus expects of us. We are faced with a choice, we can hear the Gospel and act on it like... Continued on p.2

Continued... two of the servants did, or we can be like the one servant: paralyzed in fear, afraid to use our gifts, afraid to allow our faith to grow and change, and waiting for tomorrow. The problem is, tomorrow came for him and it was too late.

The time for growth, the time for unpacking our gifts and talents and abilities is now! If we wait, we are losing precious time. Time when our talents, our abilities, our faith could be growing along with God's kingdom.

I have spent time over the past couple of weeks talking to my siblings and nieces and nephews, assembling RSVP's for the Thanksgiving dinner I'll be hosting this year. My conversations with them these days always remind me what a treasure our families are. They are valuable not only for the closeness and love we share, but also because our families can prepare us to live our faith in the world as we grow into adulthood.

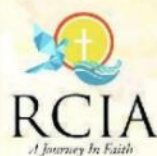

As you prepare to gather with your family for Thanksgiving, think about the members of the generation that preceded yours, and how they passed on the precious gift of faith. Resolve to do the same for the next generation. The world is certainly a different place, and different methods, images and ways might be in order. But prayer, service and mercy never go out of style. May this Thanksgiving be a faith filled celebration of gratitude to God for you and your family!

Seamus Imes

RCIA Catechumen

The Rite of Acceptance into the order of catechumens is of utmost importance. This Sunday, Seamus will declare his intention to the Church and in turn the Church, will carry out its apostolic mission and accept him as a person who intends to become a member. God showers his grace on Seamus, since this celebration manifests his desire publicly and marks his reception and first consecration by the Church.

Please keep Seamus in your prayers!

Go Make of All Disciples

Let the day of the Lord not overtake you like a thief.

The Scripture readings at Masses toward the end of each liturgical year often speak of end times. This is certainly not something people are comfortable thinking about - the end of their life. St. Paul encourages the people of Thessalonica in the Second Reading this weekend (1 Thessalonians 5:1-6).

"You, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness...all of you are children of the light and of the day. The passage goes on to remind us that God did not destine us for wrath, but to gain salvation through Jesus. St. Paul concludes this with, "Encourage one another and build one another up" (vs. 11).

Because we are children of the light and of the day, let us share the light of Christ with those around us. This goes along with encouraging one another and building each other up. The gifts God has given each of us are varied, and when we are encouraged to use our gifts, what are able to accomplish in Christ can bear much fruit. The Gospel acclamation verse this weekend from John 15:4-5 says, "Remain in me as I remain in you, says the Lord. Whoever remains in me bears much fruit." Let us all remain in the Lord, encouraging one another, building each other up, and staying alert for the coming of the Lord. Then, through our faith and love, there is hope for salvation.

God bless,

Christmas Youth Choir

Christmas Youth Choir is Now Forming!

The Christmas Season is quickly approaching. Mason Koch, Director of Music and Liturgy and Cheryl Reynolds, Director of Faith Formation are forming a Youth Choir to sing at the 4:00 PM Christmas Eve Mass. All children and teens from ages 7 to 17 are welcome to participate.

Rehearsals will take place on the following Sundays after the 11:00 AM Mass (12:15 - 1:30 PM).

November 12, November 26, December 3 and December 17. Is there a better way to welcome Jesus than by singing on his birthday?

RCIA & Adult Faith Formation

A Journey of Faith/Becoming a Catholic Christian

The RCIA is the process by which people become members of the Catholic Church. Also known as Catechumenate, it is a journey of faith, a process of growth and conversion that takes place through the proclamation of the Gospel, teaching of Catholic doctrine, and a gradual introduction to the customs and practices of the Catholic life. This gradual development culminates in the celebration of the initiation sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist at Easter.

If you know a family member, friend or co-worker who has not been baptized or baptized in another faith and has a desire to learn about the Catholic faith and the Gospel of Jesus tell them that they are invited to inquire about the Catholic faith.

Please contact Sr. Helen Therese at 734-676-1378 or e-mail helen@sacredheartgi.com for an initial meeting.

St. Joseph's 8th Grade

What a busy year we've been having this year in 8th grade. We just finished the first quarter and the 8th graders have been working hard. We've been learning about solving equations in Math and in Literature we've been studying about a person's character and how that helps them make the choices they make within the story. We also celebrated Special Person's Day at school and really enjoyed spending time with those who are special to us. In Religion, we've focused on the 4 Marks of the Church: One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic. We've learned about what they mean and the importance of these as a part of who we are as Catholics.

Even though we've been studying hard, we've also had time to get to know our Kindergarten partners. We've enjoyed making projects with them and reading with them. It's great to see how much the 8th graders look forward to spending time with their partners.

Many Blessings,
Mrs. Crotty and the 8th Grade
